TJ HIGH — INSIDE OUT

Thomas Jefferson is a combination of individual ideals built from the dreams and efforts of thousands of people. For 29 years students have entered the present building—each one adding something to our school, each leaving with new aspirations and increased wisdom.

Progress is the motivating force at Thomas Jefferson. In keeping with the ever-changing student body, which has grown from 1,300 in 1929, to the present enrollment of 1,920, THE YELLOW JACKET Staff has chosen as its theme "TJ—Inside Out." We chose it because we have tried to show our school "inside out"—in complete detail of operation, traditions, and customs.

The staff's first aim was to give you Thomas Jefferson students the very best yearbook you have ever had. The next was to give a memory book that would increase in value with every day and every year that passes. We like to think of your looking at THE YELLOW JACKET and recalling everything you did while at Thomas Jefferson—from the clothes you wore to the books you read. We hope the book shows our pride and reflects our love for just those things. This is the TJ story for 1957-1958—inside out.

COACH P. T. (PETE) PENSE

The 1958 YELLOW JACKET is proudly dedicated to a man who has put fellowship and good sportsmanship in the hearts of all those with whom he works. These two assets are essential to us if we are to have happiness and prosperity in our future years.

He will always be remembered for his untiring efforts and the sincere loyalty that he has demonstrated through the yeras.

The YELLOW JACKET Staff proudly dedicates the 1958 yearbook to Coach P. T. (Pete) Pense.

John, I can't believe that's you in the picture with Sharon.
Hope you have a lot of fun this summer.
Be good
Lynne

At First . . .

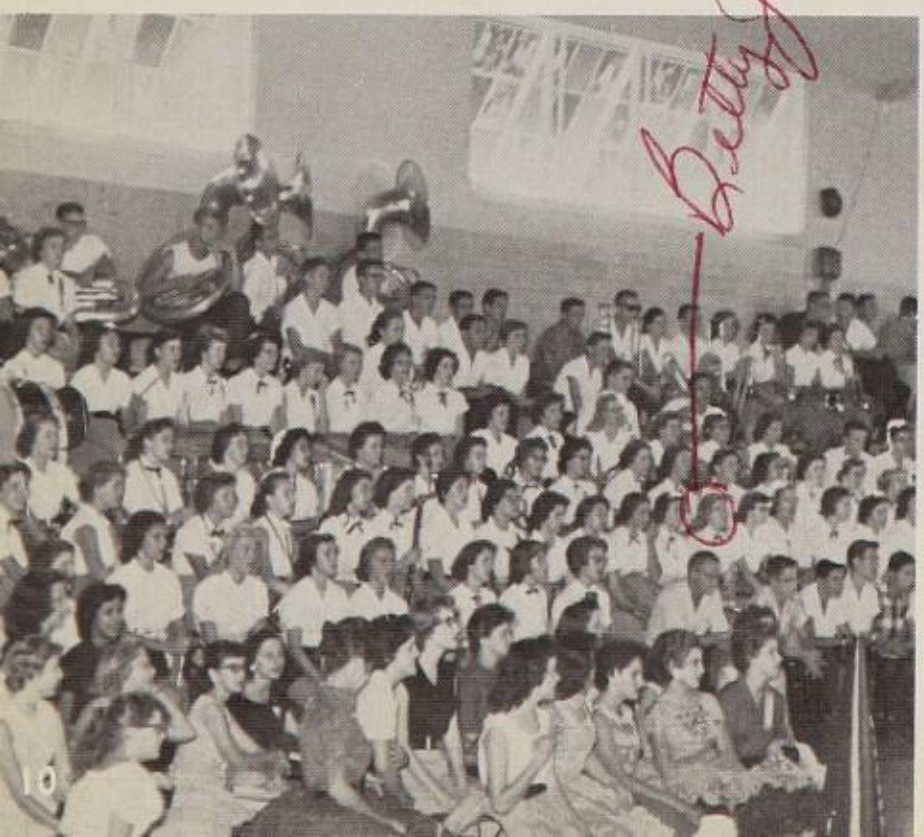
The First

months of the 57-58 school year were filled with many things familiar to T-Jites . . . happy things, dull things, and some just plain enjoyable things. In September through November, we enjoyed Elvis, "Millionaires," "You Send Me," Dino and Tony, Ivy Leaguers, drag races, Sputnik, football games , Choir-Hussar-Band, and Drama practice, report cards, "That'll Be The Day," "Pal Joey," homework, pep rallies, weekends, dates, and the many other small things that made this part of school life fun.

ALL ABOUT

"Who Y'all Gonna Yell For?!"

Caught in a serious mood by the eye of the camera was this group of T-Jites who crowded the Field House for the Odessa pep rally. Left to right are . . . uh, the Maroon and Gold Band was present, as usual, to provide the music, downbeat, and rhythm, which added so much to the rallies.



"Time's A'wasting!"

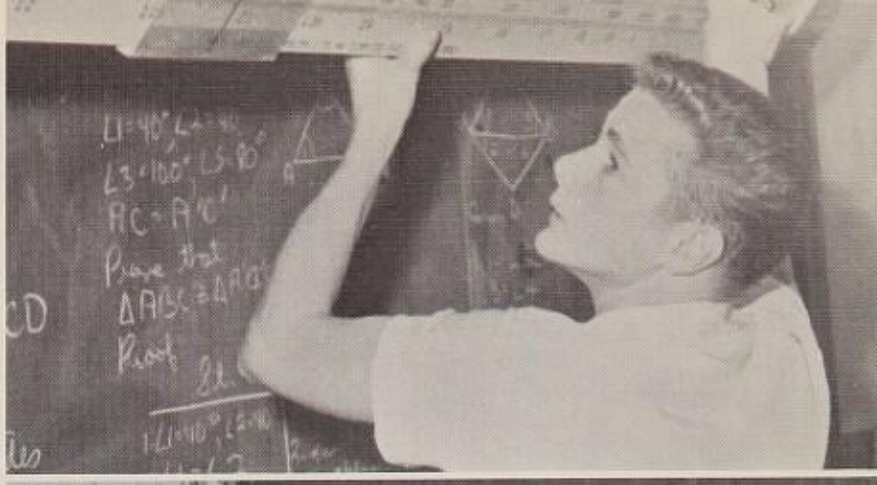
"Good Grief!"

Senior engineer - to - be Artie Thornton seems to find this slide-rule interesting though oversize.



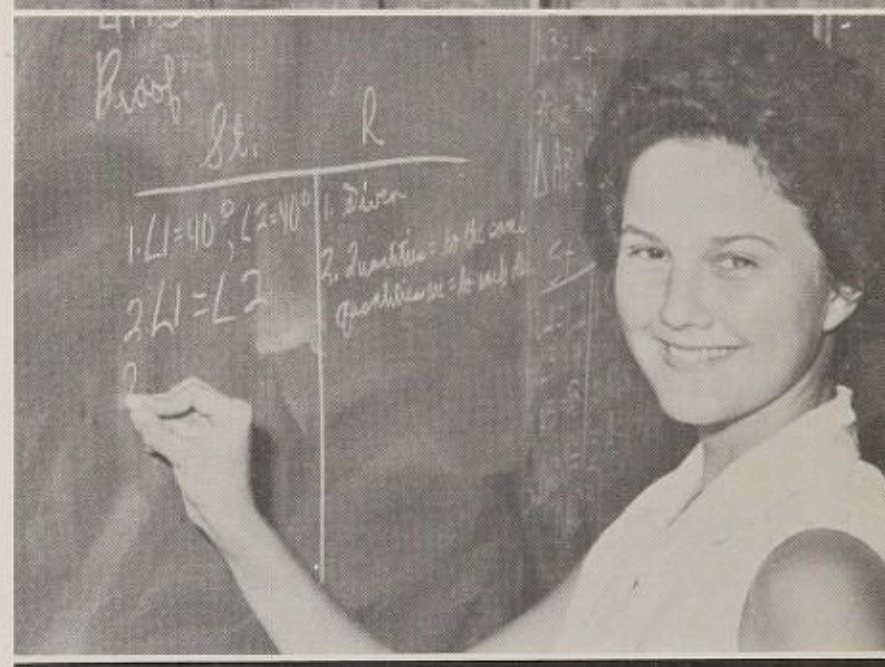
US

"Little Brown Jug"

Permanent possession of the "Brown Jug" was partly due to the efforts of this foursome who sacrificed vanity and tonsils to spur the "Jug" campaign with their, uh . . . arrangement. Left to right are S. McCarthy, S. Logan, K. Vaughan, S. Simpson, J. Willoughby.

"Idioms, Irby?"

Pretty Junior Sandra Irby did not seen to mind the rigors of Plane Geometry at all . . . . . in September.



"Beaumont Bonfire . . ."

Participants who included Junior Jerry Smith who touched off the effigy of the Beaumont Purples. Final score of the game was 30-0 in favor of the Jackets.

"Cigar-toting Desperados captured!"

Arrested for speeding during the CavOILcade parade were these Seniors who finally convinced the officer that "Matilda" would not go 85 M.P.H.

Get Up! It's 8:00 . . .

Gentlemen!

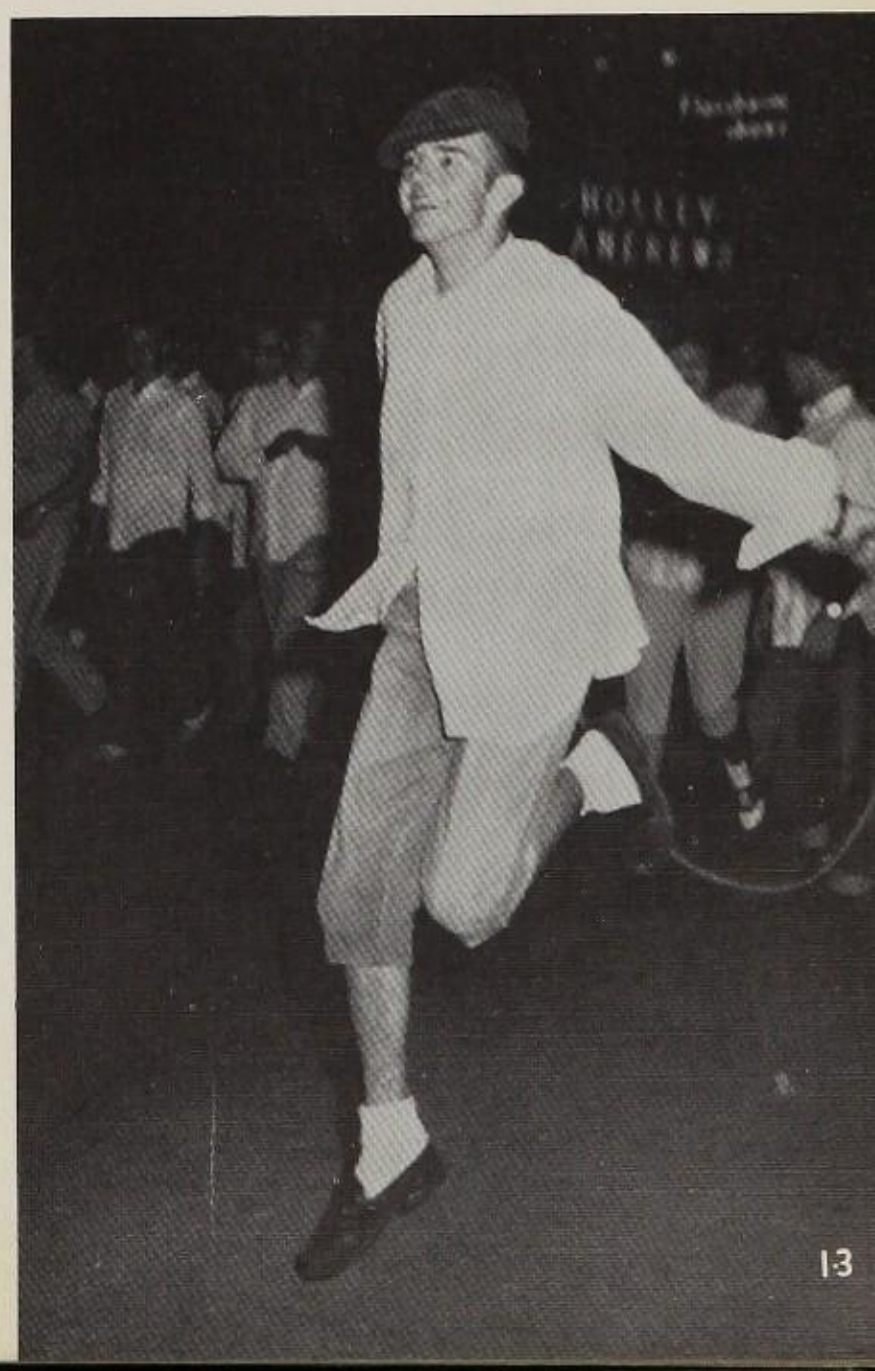
As always, the winter season (football season) was full of things to do. And . . . as always there was a contrast between the male and female "doings." Some gals like Mary Straub found something humorous in every school activity—even "Old Broken Nose," but all of them enjoyed posing for "J.C."

Peculiar to this time of year, TJ girls busied themselves with, Sam Cook, The Sad Look, 2-Karat rings, Revlon, Senior rings, and Cheyenne. . . but, egad, did you notice the change in spring? Their interests then turned to future lawyers, engineers, and the like. Also included were, proposals, sororities, the wedding march, and, of course graduation. In '57-'58, TJ's ladies were usually found . . . in the way (most of the time), at the beauty parlor, slumber parties, and, on sunny days, invariably at some practice or another.

Ladies!

Please notice the remarkable expressions on the faces of this manly set of TJites. Previous to annual publication, two students (boy and girl) were asked their opinion. The lady decreed that it surely must have been the "after" demonstration by Alkaseltzer. The gentleman is probably still seeking the identity of the girl he swears must have been behind the photographer. You should know by now, of course, what was "george" with TJ's gentlemen in '57'58. Popular with the boys were Brigitte Bardot, tardy slips, and girls.

. . . just five more minutes.



"TJ — INSIDE OUT"

"Happy Faces"
or
"Pardon Me For Laughing,
Dear, But There's Something on . . . "

"A Regular Guy . . . " according to his students, is Mr. Lindeman (Physiology, Biology, and old frogs). All enjoyed his lectures . . . particularly the one concerning his "phobia" about the Humane Society, and what they do to Biology teachers who literally "pick" on poor, dumb, animals.

More often than not, too little credit is given our teachers and instructors. Those of us (Class of '58) who are now looking back surely realize this. Few of us would ever graduate under the age of twenty-one if our teachers didn't, make, cajole, and finegle us into doing those things we would rather not do. Of course, free three-day vacations were necessary in some instances . . . uh-umm. When that unbelievable day of graduation comes, though, we realize that the credit is split three ways . . . teacher, mother, and, "Somebody up there must like me!"

After the long haul, (twelve or more unnerving years), has been made and we've found our "Place in the sun," we may one day meet someone who wasn't able to complete their education, and thus benefit, and say, "There, but for the grace of God and my teachers, go I."

The excitement of going to State . . .

. . . with all the trimmings too.

"CRUMPIE"

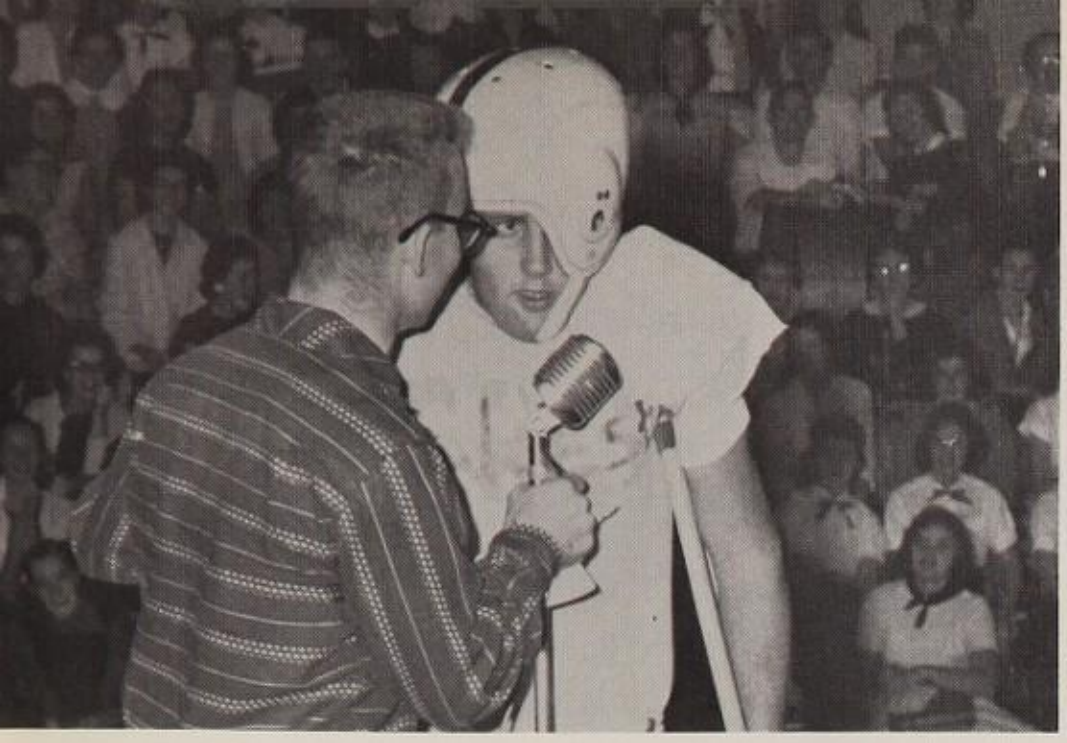
CHRISTMAS . . . . . .

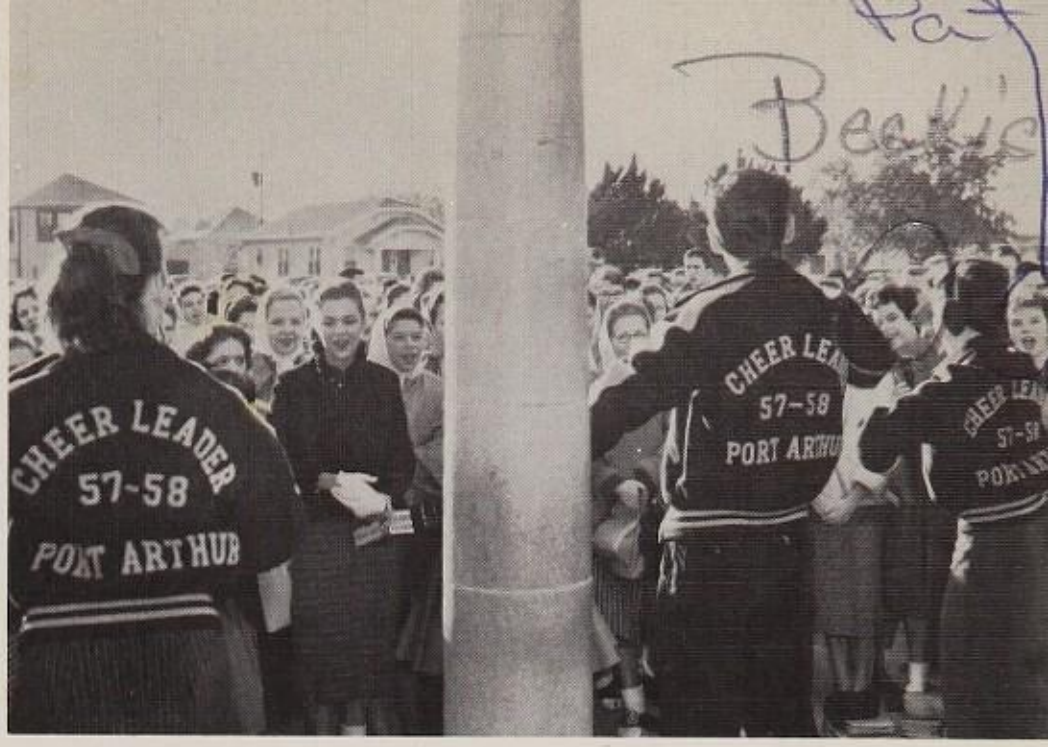
The holiday season of '57 brought, besides the customary gleeful things such as, NO school, gramma's, divinity, Santa Claus, daddy's charge account for daddy's gift, parties, parties, parties, Mid-night Mass and Christmas eve candlelight services, . . . also the honor of the 4-AAAA state finals. The eighteen days of grace passed quickly. We all made our usual New Year's resolution,

(no more "hooky-flu"), and . . .

THE Game

Christmas at school . . .





An exclusive interview at the Austin rally . . . and another rally.

. . . . . AND A NEW YEAR

. . . and then back to the grind. Mid-term exams, overdue reports, overdrawn allowances, cold, cold mornings, and the "after holiday blues," all failed to make that first week a success. Things perked up though and the days 'til school let out were counted again, and again, and . . .

The Big Game,

HEAR IT . . . SEE IT . . .

Long hours of hard work and study done by students shown here assembling scenery, is what helped make "Dino" a record breaker in sales. This crew of people worked many hours. It was not an easy task but everyone working together made the play a success.

This is just one of the many fine audiences that thrilled to Repertoire Players Production of "Dino." "Dino" was presented in the auditorium three nights and at every performance there was a capacity crowd of adventurer and action seekers.

There's always a rush for the best seats when a good play such as "Dino" is on. More than 1000 people purchased tickets to the show which dealt with teenage problems, starred Charles Wilkinson and Kitty Wyble. The play ran through November 20-23.

NOW!

Every Monday, when the latest pictures arrived, this was a familiar scene in the sixth period Journalism class. Members of the annual staff tried to get pictures that best suited their section, and they were always eager to see the newest picture.

Is she looking for a scholarship in electronics or listening to the latest pop song "You Send Me"? You can be sure there will be no studying or homework done from this cleverly wired literature book.

The biggest and best annual ever was promised by these students in an assembly skit: Theresa Thomas, Shella McCarthy, Steve Hodges, Sandra Wyble, Carol Thomas, Billy Chandler, Carmen Freedman, Beth Majors, Becky Burris, Dottie Honeycutte, Walt Sharp, Pickle LeTulle, Jill Baldwin.

GOOD TIMES ARE

It snowed! School was dismissed for an hour February 12, so everyone could have fun throwing snowballs. It was the first snow here since 1951.

Out of the rock and roll crowd in TJ Dale Gothia has proved his talent by organizing a successful Combo that entertained in morning assembly, as well as at a number of social affairs for the high school set.

PART OF T.J.'S STORY

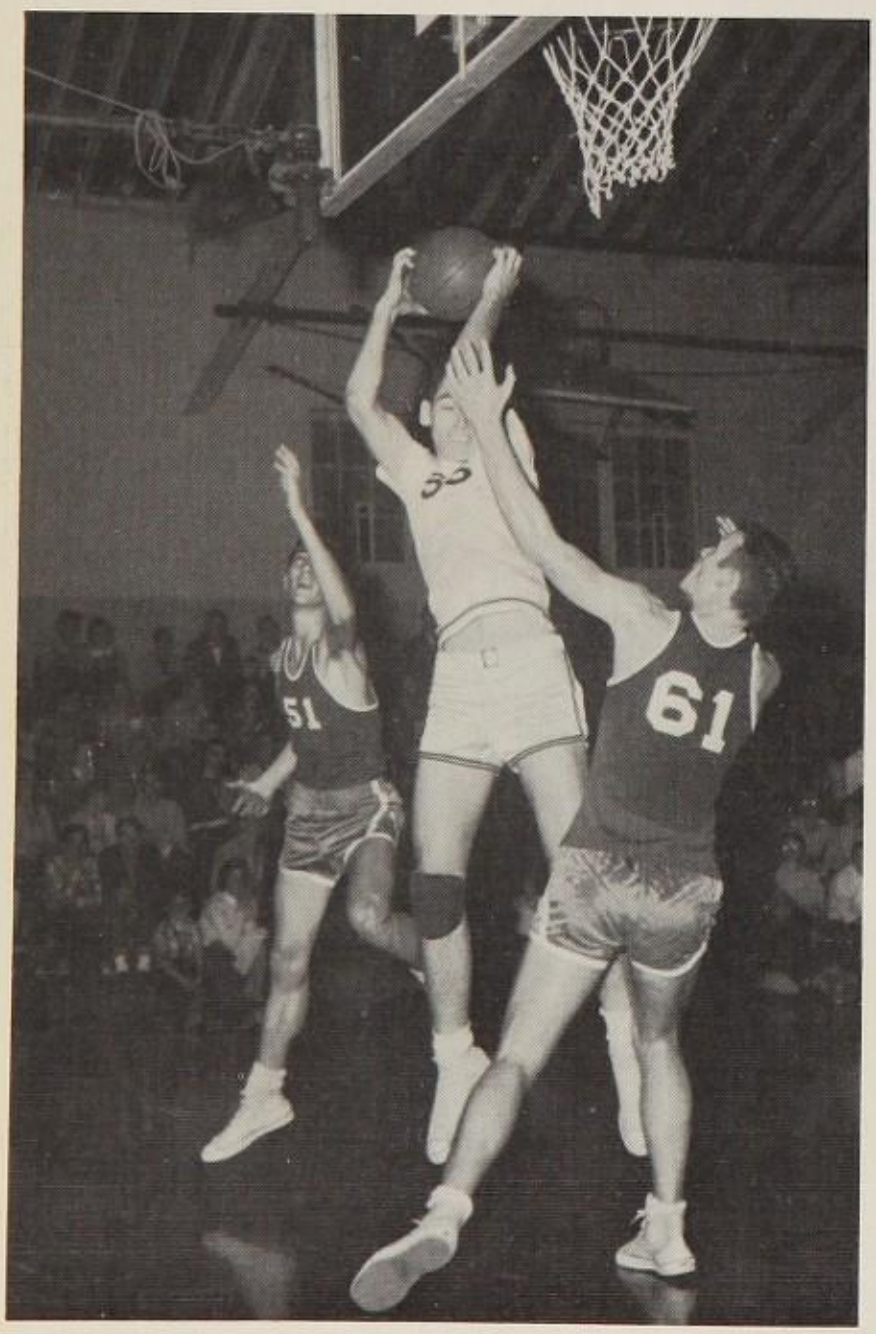
The last of the badmen were rounded up Texas Day by the Annie Oakleys of the Senior Class. In this instance would-be desperados were Jerry Gower, Steve Feltman, and Banker Phares.

At last it's Check Day, May 23, and Seniors are beginning to realize that school days are almost finished. Last minute autographs are penned by Carol Sims, Ruth Stilwell, Vivian Dugas, Polly Duncan, Nelda Brabham.

Senior Ball dresses require a lot of fitting before they are ready for the big night. Pretty seniors Betsy Byrd, Peggy DeJean, and Sue Ellen Knight can't resist a final inspection of their dresses.

FUN, WORK AND THRILLS . . .

Flying snow balls and wet clothes were the results of forty minutes of fun in the snow for T.J.'s students.



No moments are as thrilling as those experienced by T.J. fans when forward Carroll Broussard recovered the ball for the Yellow Jackets.

The little bit of extra work that Eddie Anders put in, a week before report cards, barely got him over the line.

. . . AND YOU NAME IT

Many students got a kick out of Mrs. McEwan's "danger sign" last fall until a few dropped their Transmissions —or grades rather Then the signs weren't so funny.

"Tommy Nell . . . Tommy Nell! . . . Hey, Tommy . . ."

"You throw that shotput and your social life is RUINT!"

Jim, Bill, and Fleming can't be called apple-polishers but they made "A" in Elbowgristics.

"Say Cheese, Simp." She did. She also coughed up four thumb tacks at the game.

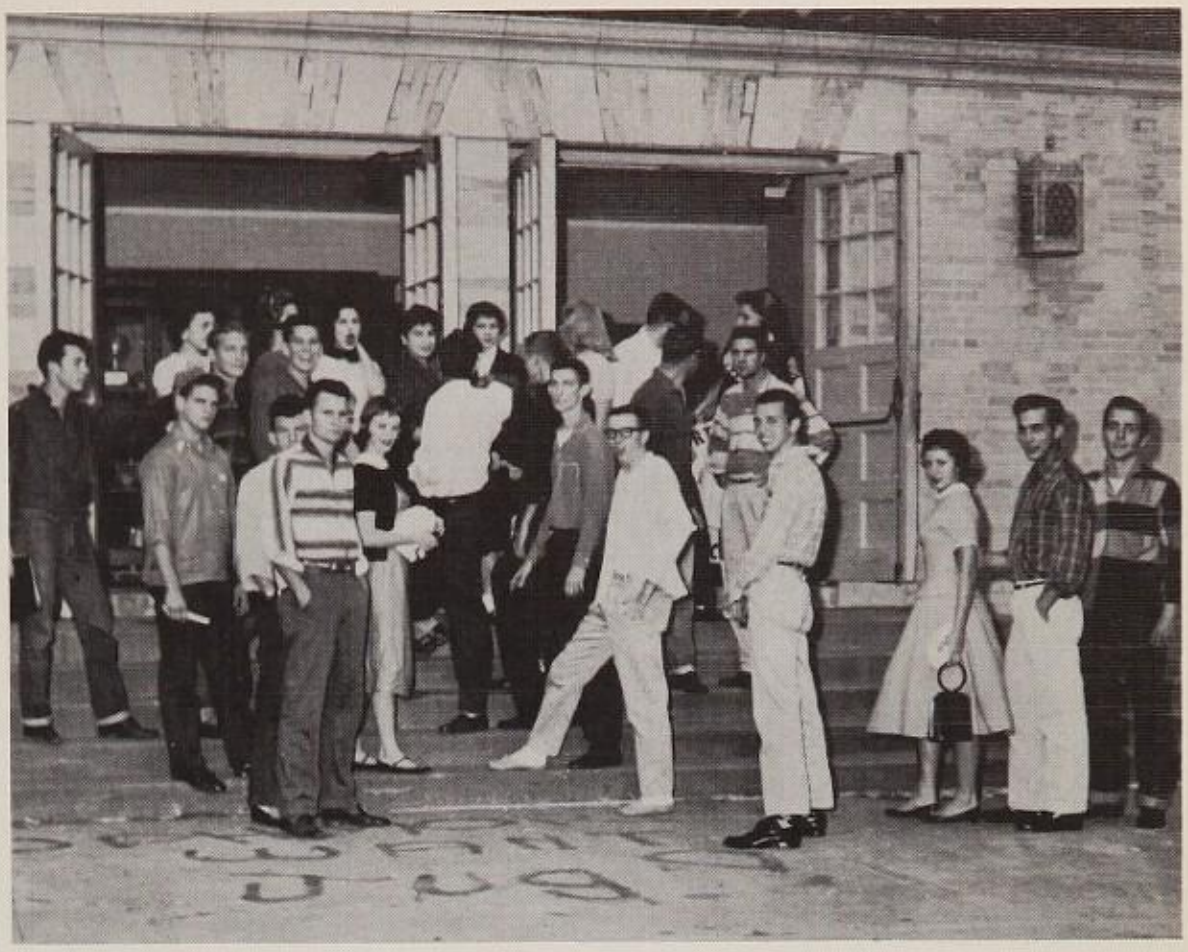
WE SHALL NEVER FORGET

"Anything for the Little Brown Jug," say Mary Allbritton and Martin Arisco as they use Robert Babin as their guinea pig.



The roar of the crowd was intriguing and fascinating to everyone, especially to the Seniors as they enter the Field House to support the Jackets at each pep rally.

These bright faces respond to assembly programs of Friday mornings.

FAD?? Some say yes—some say no—But either way, the shaggy sweater was popular with Betsy Byrd and Tommy Giesen.

"MAY GRADUATION ACTIVITIES"

or

"SHUTTING THE BARN DOOR AFTER THE HORSE HAS FAILED"

"It's downhill now. I've got a "D" cinched."

"Office slip" Matthews is quite comfortable as usual . . ."

Billy "Grease" McEwan was always happy to explain the mysteries of the four-cycle gas engine to interested (not a requirement) classmates.

Now, Tommy Wilten, regardless of his seemingly smug face, is undergoing the ticklish sensation brought about by a crumpled finger. You see, Tommy caught his finger in a sparkplug hole just before the picture was taken. That's bad enough, but while Tom was patiently waiting for "J.C." to finish, Joan started slowly turning the fly wheel, and . . .

Wouldn't you know it? Fifteen minutes after the bell and the Senior chemistry bugs are still at the grind. THIMKING up new hydrocarbon chains, no doubt.

SENIORS PLAN FOR COMING ACTIVITIES

Senior Cabinet members are, first row, left to right: Barras, Honeycutt, Sibley, Hodges, Barrett, Simpson, Brantley, Skillman, Allbriton, Felder, Willoughby, Scott, Carr, Majors, Douglas, Youngblood, and DeJean. Second row: Lindgren, Bartlett, Demler, Litchfield, Davis, Holter, Boyd, Burris, Skaff, Liby, Mathis, Brown, DeCluitt, and Vaughan. Third row: Garrison, Longenberger, Havard, Giesen, Bussey, Manley, Batic, Rowland, Glutz. Fourth row: Webb, Camp-Gillman, Murphy, Hebert, and bell, Teel, and Porter.

Making straight "A's" calls for more study than these carefree smiles might indicate. However, these made the honor roll during the second nine weeks. Seated are: Julu Sloan, Dolly McBride, Barbara McKinley, Anna Ray Scott, and Patricia Boland. Standing are: Suzy Hodges, Carolyn Swartz, Joan McMonagle, Ian Killgore, Linda Ulbrich and Sharon Stansell. Not pictured are: Joy Barron, Linda Douglas, Glynda Lowther, Larry Pardue, Gail Patin, and Judy Rowland.

"How shall we decorate it?" wonder members of the Decoration Committee for the Senior Ball. They are: Kay Vaughan, Molly Liby, Faye Hebert, Shelia McCarthy and Robert Demler.

DIPLOMA IS PRIZED OBJECTIVE

Senior class rings, a crisp new diploma, and memories of happy days will always recall TJ High to the minds of 500 or more members of the graduating class of '58.

Ooops! The camera flash didn't go off on this one, and Texas Day planners had to sit very still —couldn't even laugh at Beth's trying on the hat. They are Mickey Walker, Beth Majors, Pam Manley, and Suzy Hodges. Their planning resulted in one of the best celebrations ever.

Plans for a Class Day that will raise "goose bumps" a mile high when the Class of '58 goes marching in are getting an early rundown by the committee made up of Polly Duncan, Rie Carr, Dottie Honeycutt, Lillie Bartlett, and David Longenberger. That real doll character is "Angel"—just right for autographs.

INSIDE, OUTSIDE, ALL

Homeroom is the business center for all Senior Class activities

Only intelligent seniors would try to start a driverless Model A by pushing it! Seniors in the picture showing more brawn than brains, are Paul Kibbe, Glen Doiron, Annette Sonstebye, Carmen Collazo, Edward Flores, Janice Gilbert and Sara Dominguez.

Proud seniors, Joan Willoughby, Mickey Walker, Nancy Creswell, Mike Slott and Gail Patin receive the treasured jug, an award for raising the most money for the Junior Red Cross Drive for the past three years. Also shown in the picture are Clarence Bray, Jack Swanzy, Judy Heckendorf and Vernon Issac.

A typical Twirp date! Pat Weber and Banker Phares are taking advantage of the one week out of the year when the girls must show the boys a good time. Girls hoisting the main sail are Becky Burris and Charlotte Tahaney. Deck swabbers are Janice Gilbert and Susan Zerkle.

Going to college? These seniors are looking the situation over. Left to right are Betty Balzersen, Carolyn Swartz, Shirley Long, John Earl Walding and Danny Girouard.

A typical journalism class on their best behavior.

SENIORS ARE BUSY

Carroll Broussard, Shirley Durow, and Shelton Comeaux open the auditorium door which led to the regular Monday morning ritual of Chapel.

Research themes are due! Being very studious at the Memorial Library are Rie Carr, Pat Swanzy, Lillie Bartlett, Susan Youngblood, and Eddie Anders.

Wednesday morning finds senior homerooms holding their regular business meetings. Homeroom was the place where the majority of necessary routine matters such as voting and paying for everything from the newspaper to graduation togs took place.

SENIORS ARE BUSY

Costume jewelry is a fad for these senior girls, Carolyn Bigler, Brenda Logan, Barbara Bell, and Margaret LaFleur, on their Saturday shopping expedition.

Off to the show for their usual Friday night date are Walt Sharp and Anna Ray Scott.

Sunday morning saw seniors worshipping in their various churches. Here Bobby Gallion, Judy Arnold, Carolyn Jacobs, and Tommy Hall enter First Baptist Church.

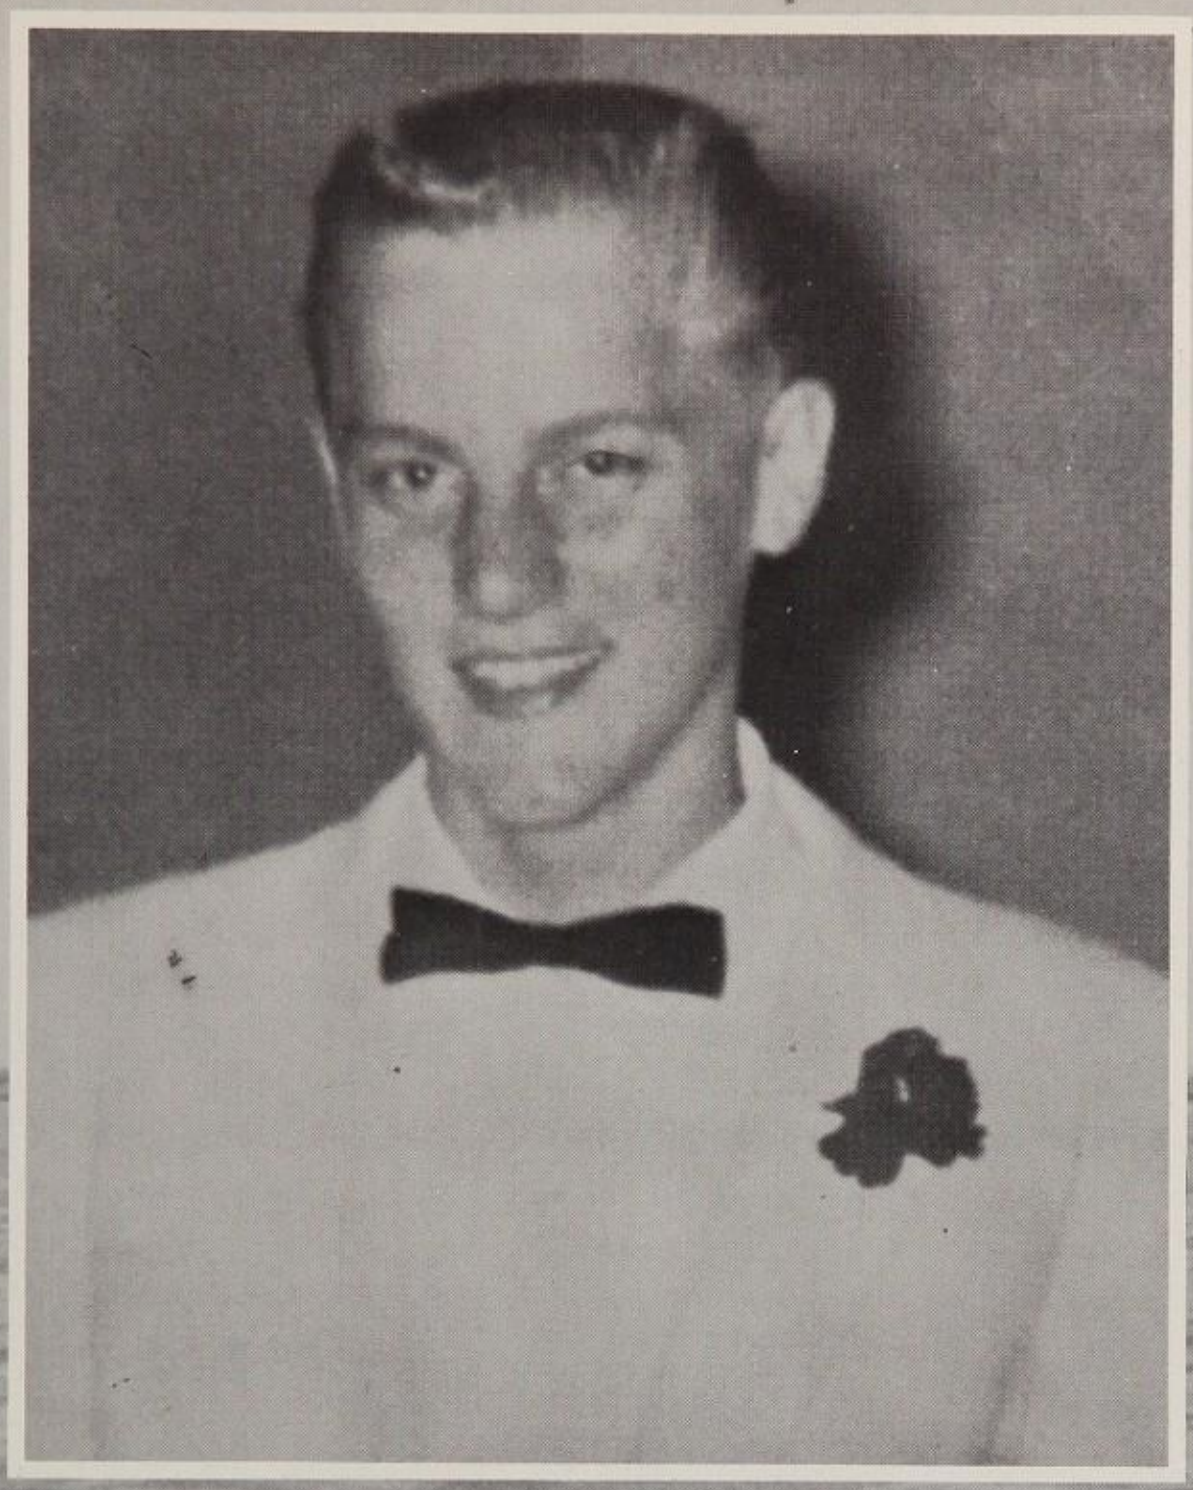
IN MEMORIAM



From all who knew and loved BILL CLARKSON, president-elect of the Junior Class for 1957-1958, we express our sentiment through the pages of this section, dedicated to his memory.

SOPHOMORES

Many new problems will arise in the sophomore class, but Treasurer Patsy McBride, President Clarence Bray, and Secretary Martha Laird will conquer them.

For first-hand data of electoral status our election committee, Gayle Smith, Brian Hewitt, Julie Fuselier, and David Provenzano, is the one to contact. It seems they've always got the "dope"!

Buzz, buzz goes the chatter while Gayle Smith, Monteel Strickland, Cammie Oliver, and Jane Rudd enjoy good food and good company.

SOPHOMORES

Sophomore Jerry Carruth deems senior sister, Beverly, a "big help" as he begins his first year at T.J.

Have smiles—will travel! as the sophomores enjoy Wednesday morning assembly.

THAT'S A SOPHOMORE

EllenMarsh

Cabinet is the voice of the Sophomore Class. It is composed of three representatives from each state. They bring problems to the meeting and go away satisfied with the answers.

"Ouch" is the word many sophomores are heard to say as they begin work on their garments.

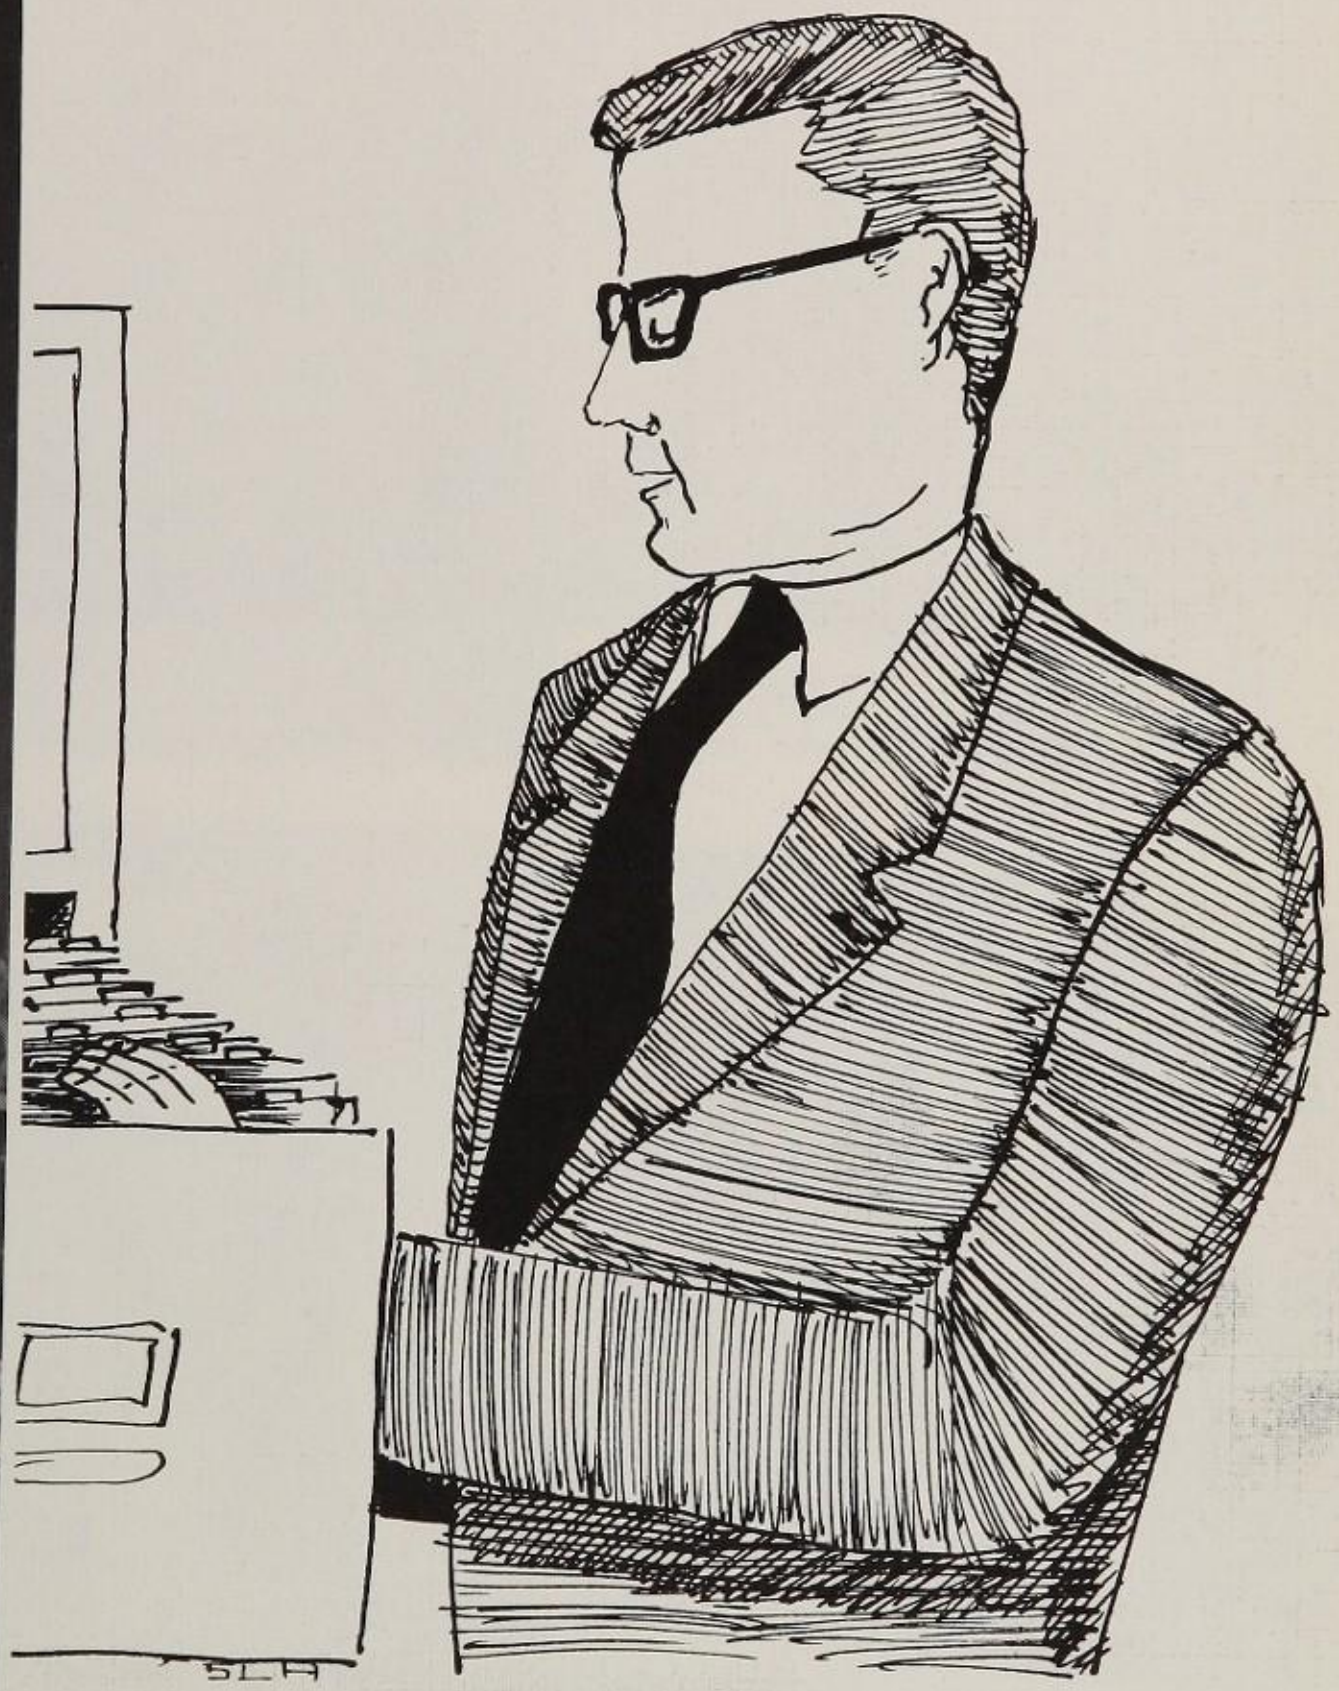
"Yea, Jackets!" yells Pauline Richardson as she competes for cheerleader at T.J.

FOR YOU . . . INSIDE OUT

"There's room for a couple more in here!" exclaimed Karen Clayton as Senior Ann Eisler holds up a catastrophe.

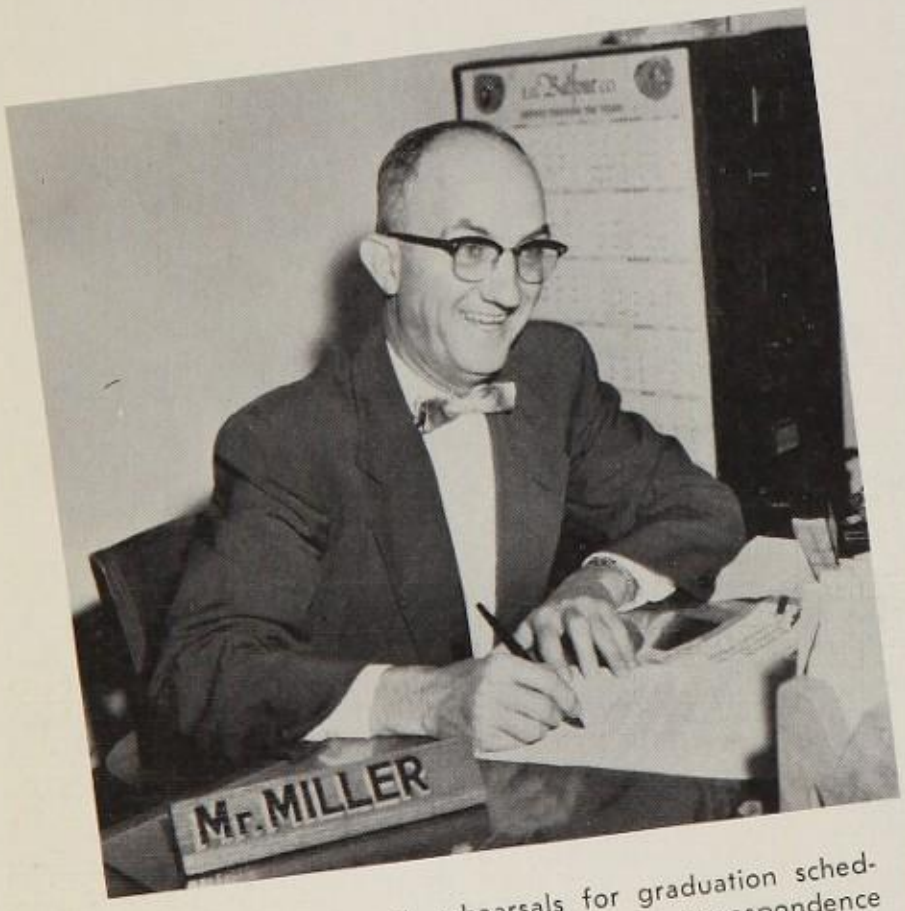
"I told you I had bow legs!" remarked Ginger Aycock and Rita Smith to Carol Simoneaux as they discussed Hussar tryouts.

"All hands to the rescue!" as Sophomores, Mike Gracey and Jimmy Tipton, aid Seniors, Bev Carruth and Lana Vincent, with their car.



FACULTY

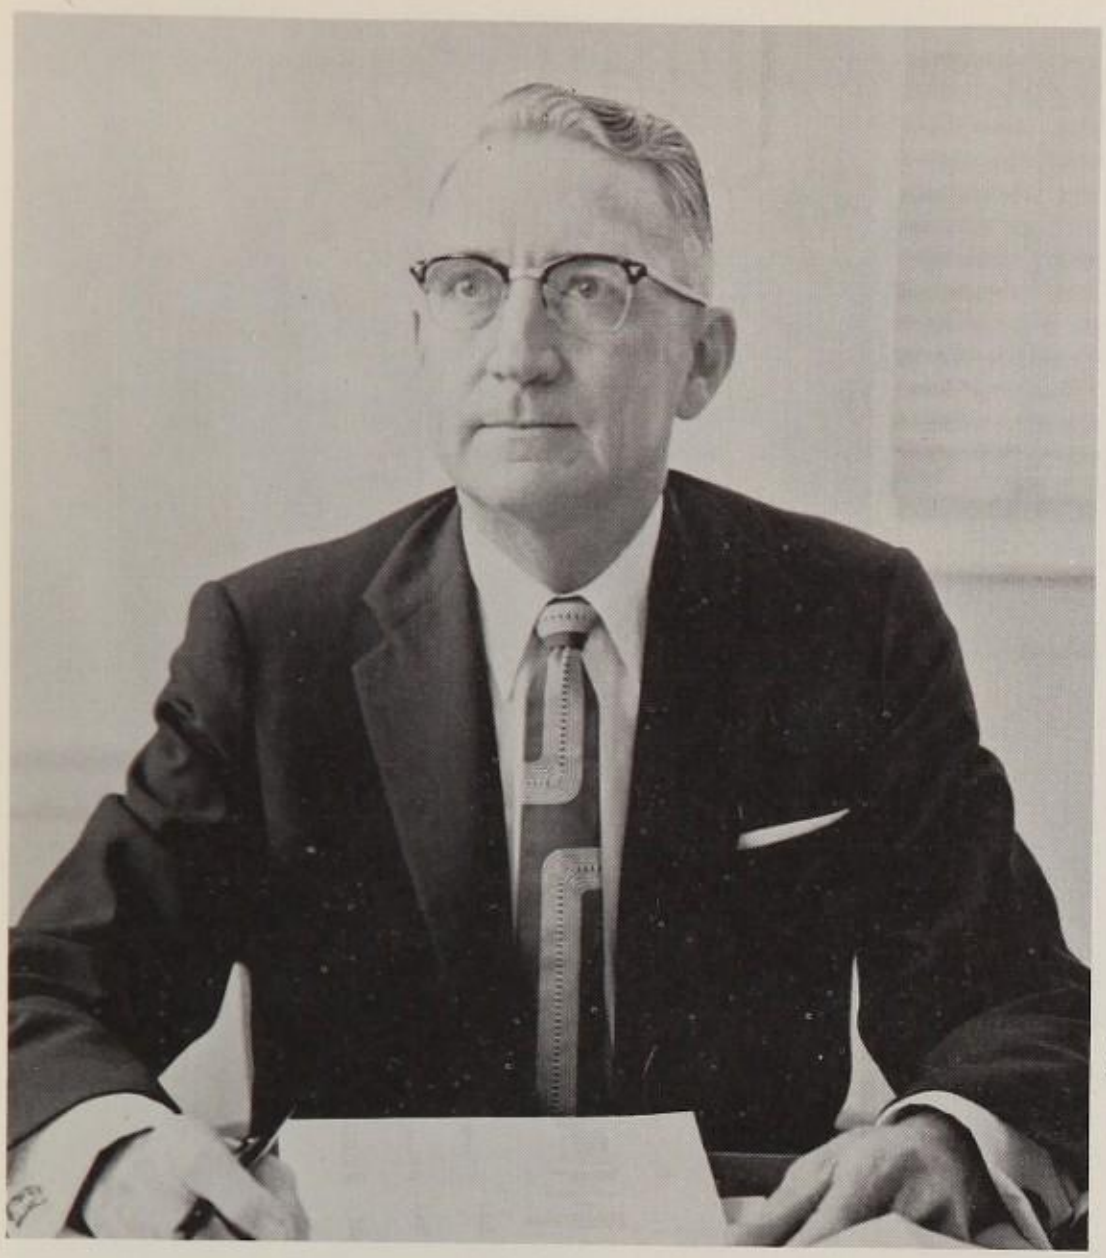
Shown here are members of the P.T.A. Executive Council: Mrs. E. G. Heckendorf, secretary; Mr. David Miller, principal; Mrs. T. E. Sharp, Mrs. B. S. Liby, Mrs. M. I. Summerlin, Mrs. Joe E. Johnson, Mrs. H. S. Malmgren, president; Miss Mary Evelyn Dunn, and Mrs. W. H. Litchfield, treasurer.



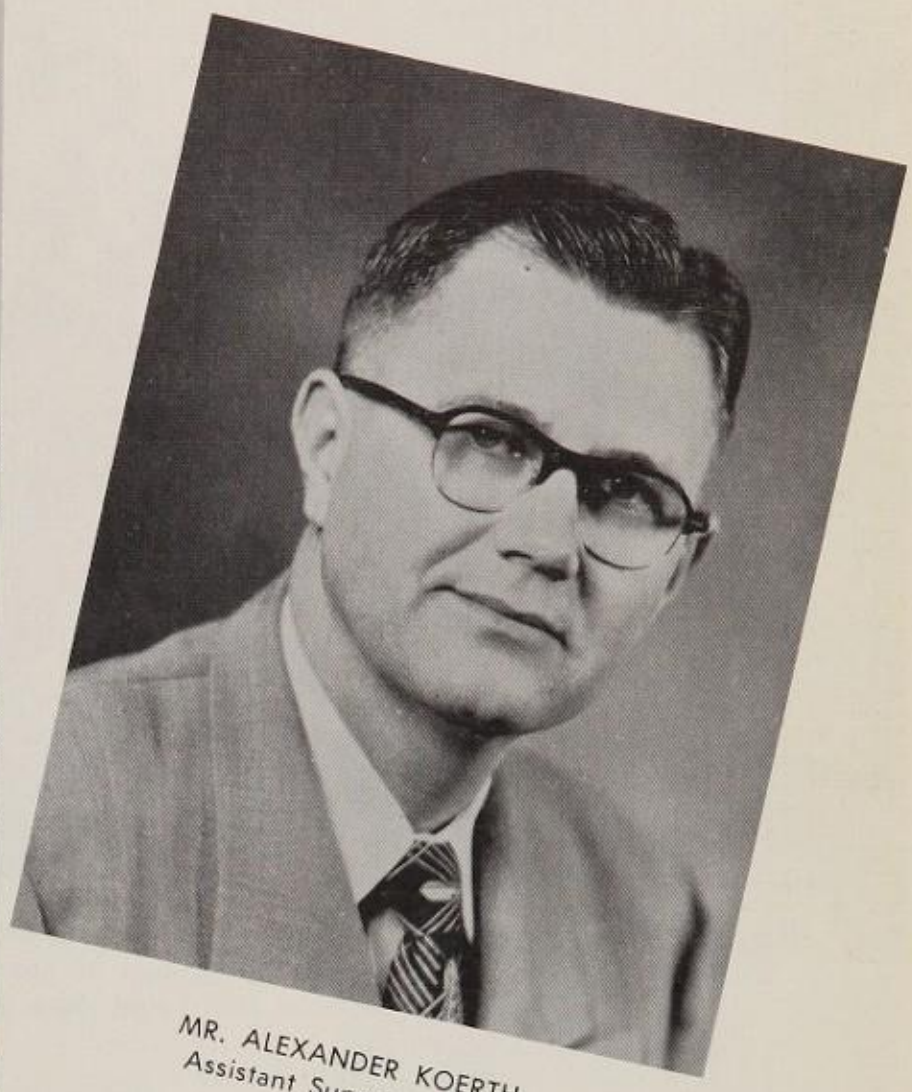
With diplomas signed, rehearsals for graduation scheduled, Principal David Miller winds up correspondence before summer vacation begins.

All T.J. students are well aware of the marvelous job done by Mr. David Miller, principal of T.J. high. Mr. Miller is never too busy to give a friendly smile to students in the halls. Here he collects mail as he begins his day's schedule.

OFFICIALS CONFER ON SCHOOL AFFAIRS



MR. Z. T. FORTESCUE
Superintendent of Port Arthur Schools



MR. ALEXANDER KOERTH
Assistant Superintendent

School leaders have had many hours of conference over the year's work. Just such a conference is taking place here between board members and school officials. They are: Bob Price, M. L. Rosenburg, A. E. Patterson, business manager, Fred Wilson, Dr. R. J. Shields, Donnie Jones, Nelson Haskel, J. T. Cone.

THEIR JOB: HELP TJ RUN SMOOTHLY

So this is how TJ teachers look at a faculty meeting—relaxed and completely at ease. Here they are waiting to see and hear an account of Mrs. Bjerring's world travels. Their meeting featured a tour of the Holy Land, complete with camel rides through the desert.

Giving friendly counsel and advice as well as assessing sterner measures, Mr. James R. Tarter, boys' advisor, handles an extensive program of work.

PROPER ENGLISH IS BASIC

Mrs. Isabella Bjerring shows Mrs. Flonelle Greer, Miss Martha Havens and Miss Doris Lynn Crisp two of the best fire prevention posters done by her English students.

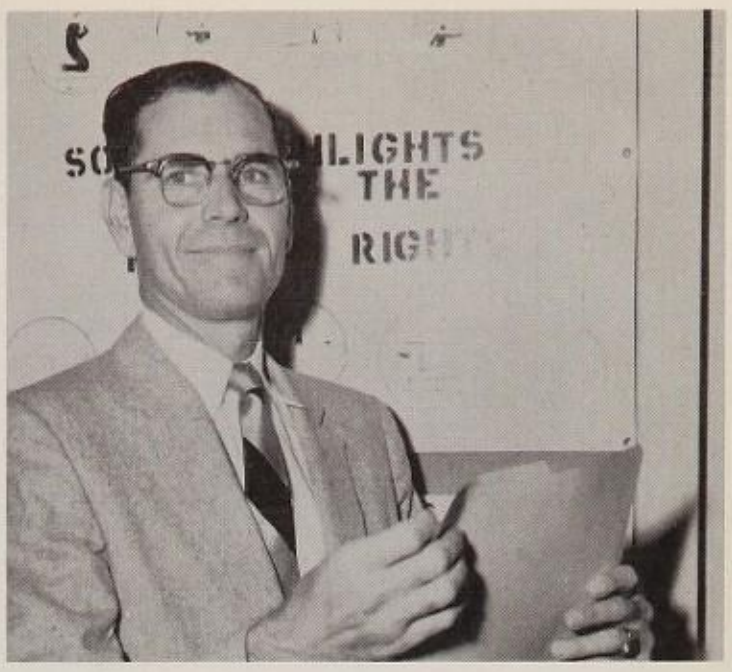
Publicity for "Dino" in the Pilot is the subject for discussion between Miss Marion Bayard, speech and drama teacher, and Mrs. Mike Redman, journalism and English instructor.

Head of the English department Miss Mae Belle Pelton, Mrs. Alma Johnson and Mrs. Bettye Jane Atkins discuss the usage of a noun as defined in this dictionary.

"Do you think this test will be too long?" asks Mr. Kenneth Parker of Miss Ara Golmon, Miss Sara Harrison, Miss Jayne Smith and Miss Margaret Miller.

GOVERNMENT AT HOME AND ABROAD

To prove her point to Miss Mary Eunice Vickers, Miss Mary Evelyn Dunn needed this globe. Miss Dunn has had many interesting stories to tell about her trip to Europe.



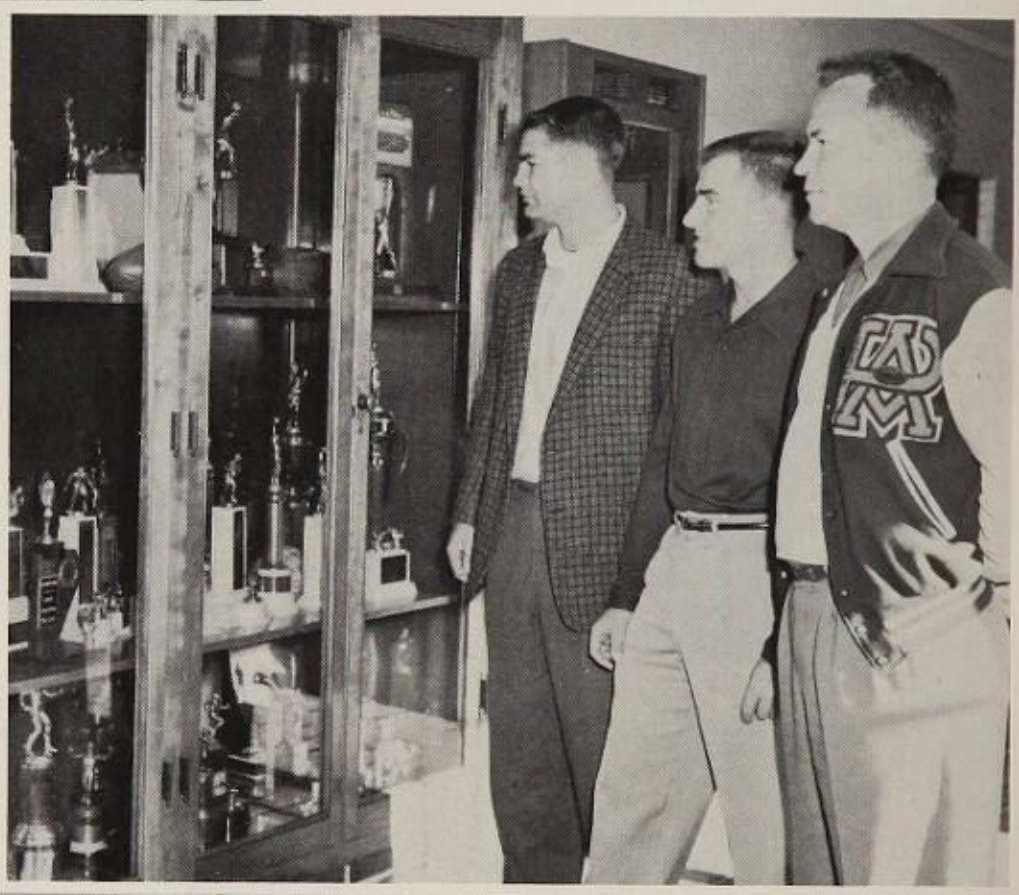
Mr. T. S. Stansell, head of the social studies department, examines notes done by one of his Social Studies I students.

Miss Eleanor Wall and Mrs. Billy Wilson use world maps to help them teach their classes.

Wayne Cornelius, Joseph Kushner, Mrs. Jewel McEwan and Mrs. Reva Westerman study an article of possible interest to their social studies classes.

BOYS' COACHES TEACH "OLD FIGHT"

Head Coach Clarence E. Underwood outlines tactics to be used against Galena Park in the bi-district play-off as coaches Bentley Jones, John Shelton, and Francis Hill watch. The football coaching staff had an unusually busy year as the Yellow Jackets advanced in state competition.



Examining TJ's victories in sports are Coaches: Pete Pense, Ronnie Moye and Bradley Mills.

Industrial Arts Teachers

When it comes to getting a job done Industrial Arts teachers Gene Jackson, Marvin Cichsowsky, Hugh Shaw, Roger Russell, Leland Kay and head of the department W. G. Jones are well qualified. Their classes specialize in "know how" projects.

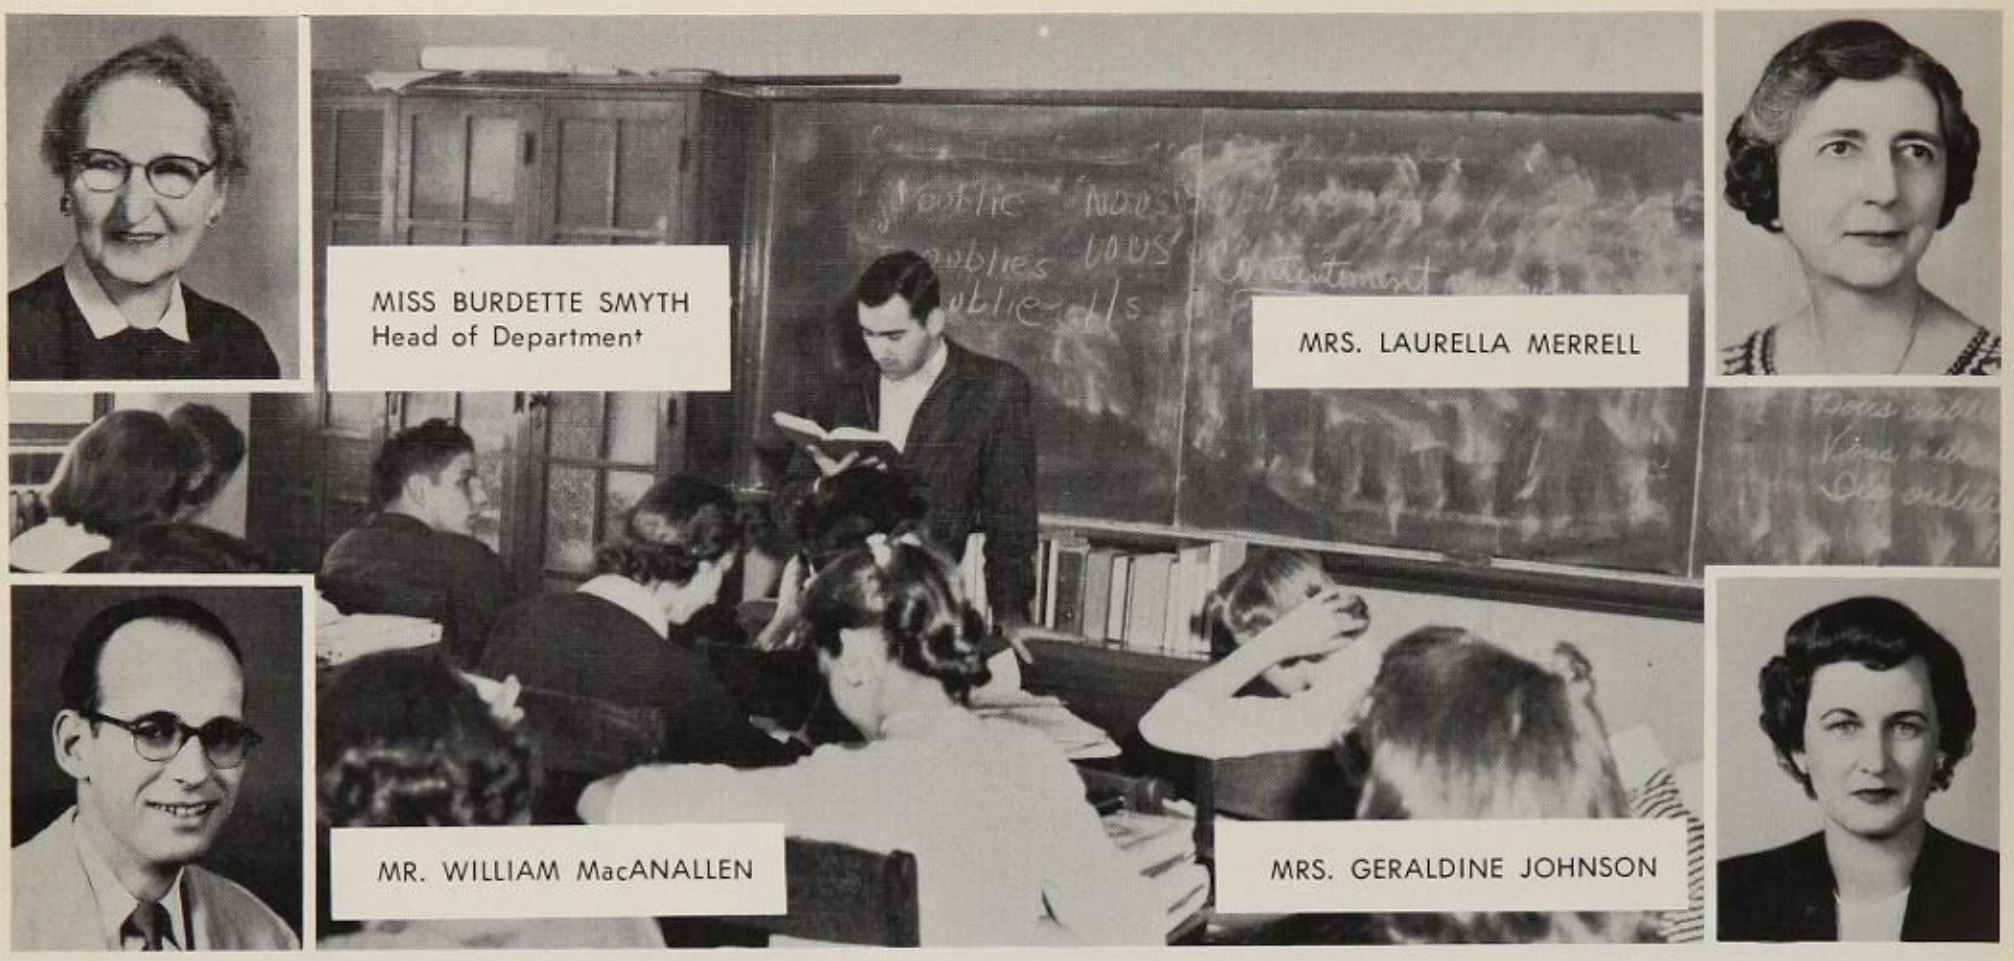
ESPECIALLY FOR THE COEDS

Relaxing in the lounge before their day's work begins are home economics teachers: Mrs. Janis Marie Lindermann, Mrs. Edna Hargus, Miss Amy Lou Smith, and head of the department, Miss Tom Collier.

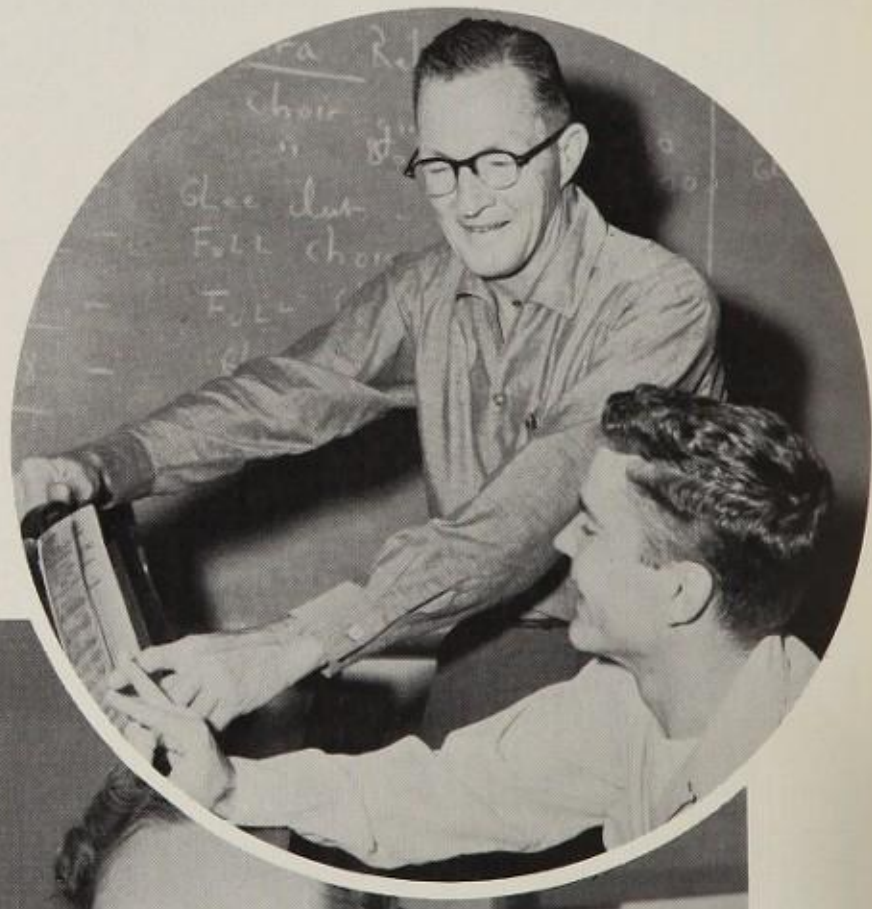
Wonder if those are demerits Mrs. Marjorie Drummond, head of girls' physical education department, and Miss Bertha Hebert are marking on that card?

Girls at TJ know the rules for games inside out when Miss Nancy McClain and Mrs. Lois Wilson are coaches.

VARIETY IS SPICE OF STUDY



Foreign language is a part of the cultural background for many TJ students.



With eagerness and enthusiasm Mr. John Badgett, band director, and Mr. Robert Jordhall, choral director, discuss music suitable for a combined spring concert.

Mrs. Lela Morgan and Mrs. Florence Ohland do a more than just average job of keeping tab on all old and new.

IN THE MATH SPOTLIGHT

"It's like this," said Mrs. Laverna Kiefer as she proved her point to fellow members of the mathematics department: Miss Irene Smith, Miss Edith Benz and Miss Mablynn Hill.

Dear John,
it has been nice having you in class
at times
Best of luck
L. Evans

With mathematics in the national spotlight this year, Mr. W. H. Ward, head of the mathematics department, worked over new plans for teaching the importance of this critical subject.

Part of every teacher's daily chore is grading the ever mounting test papers. Here to acknowledge the fact are: Miss Shannon Williams, Miss Laura Beth Gregory, Mr. James R. Chamblee and Mrs. Nora Gregory.

PATIENCE IS A MUST IN SCIENCE

Alfred Lindeman and Miss Elizabeth, head of the science department, demonstrate to Miss Amy Lou Smith the versatility of this dummy in helping them teach their psychology classes.

Easily proclaimed the most unusual Christmas tree is this one made by lab assistants Melinda Stevenson, George Langton, and David Thompson. Pipes from the shape of the tree with brightly colored bottles serving as the decorations.

Taking time out from their busy teaching schedule, Mrs. Iralene Neve, Mrs. Ellen Chaillot and Mr. John Godwin pause to feed the rare and tropical fish inhabiting this aquarium.

Familiar to all physics students is "Mr. McBee's time machine." Here Mrs. Reva Westerman and Mr. Jack Sell listen as Mr. Charles McBee explains this intricate apparatus.

BUSINESS SKILLS INCREASE IN VALUE

Displaying one of the varied projects made in business education classes are Carolyn Black and Raeleen Cropper.

Departmental affairs come in for discussion among Miss Patsy Jeffers, Mr. P. T. Reynolds, Mr. Joseph Kushner, and Mrs. Dell Hille.

Students who have studied commercial work in high school have a good background for business careers. The department has grown in numbers during the past few years, and each teacher in the department has a full quota of students.

MISS EOLA GUNSTREAM
Head of Department

The water fountain just outside Room 258 is such an attraction for students that Mrs. Mabel Swanzy, Mr. Rex Copeland, and Miss Eola Gunstream stop for a cool drink, too.

WE WILL LONG REMEMBER

"Will it fit?" exclaimed Russell Painton while trying on a tux for the Senior Ball. Robert Demler was also present at the fitting.

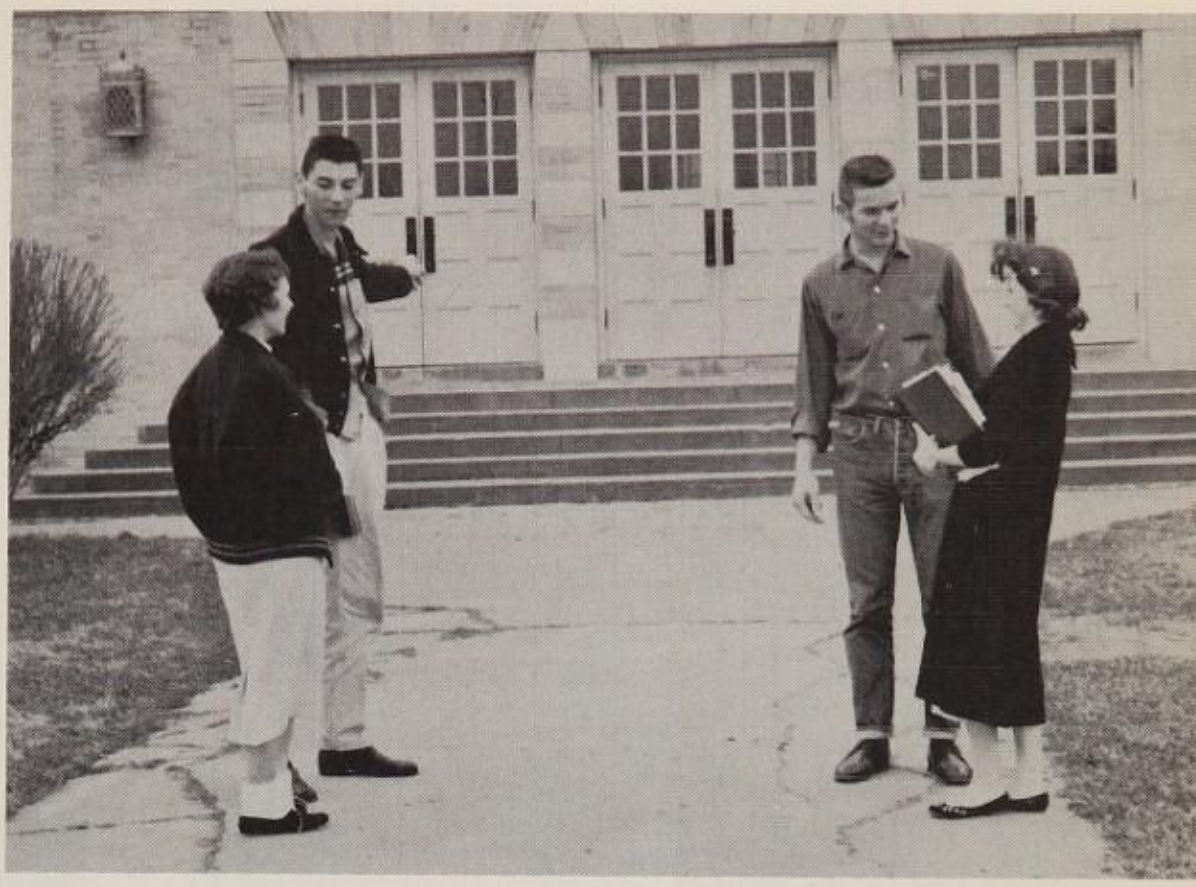
"Oh, I can't believe it," was the first remark after the 1958 Queen, Anna Ray Scott, was informed of her election.

"How will I have it made?" This question races through the mind of every girl that attends the Senior Ball.

Give the mirror a break, girls! This was a familiar sight of senior girls before the Senior Ball arrived.

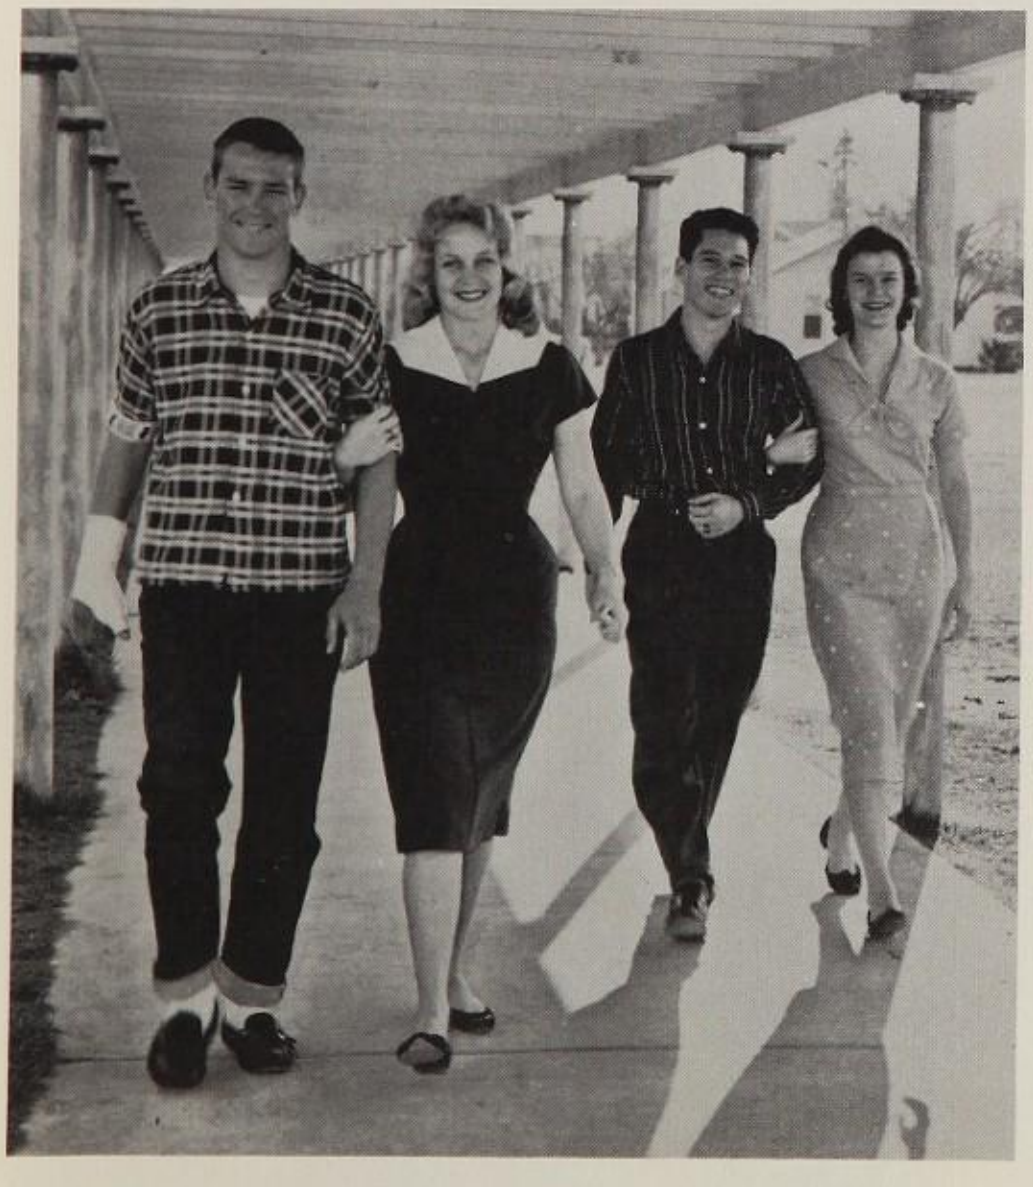
THE SENIOR BALL

A good-night kiss ended a perfect evening.



I'm not about to show up here in silk!

What'd you mean—I gotta wear a tux.



Bright, smiling faces of King Ronnie Stanley, Queen Anna Ray Scott, and Most Popular Boy and Girl, Jeff Hayes and Nancy Creswell, were seen the day of the Senior Ball.

"Will I have enough?" exclaims Dave Simmons as ə and other seniors order corsages for their dates to wear to the Senior Ball. In the picture are: T. Wilton, R. Sthranahan, and B. Litchfield.

S.B.C. GOVERNS ACTIVITIES

Congress is the governing body of our school. With its leaders and the support of the students of Thomas Jefferson Congress performs many outstanding services which help to better our school and community. Some of the yearly projects sponsored by Congress are the food drive, the All-School Chest Drive, teachers tea, and the political elections.

Much routine—but highly necessary—work is done by these S.B.C. officers, Carol Holmes, bulletin scribe; Joy Barron, typist; and Wendell Hebert, parliamentarian.

REPRESENTATIVES TO THE GOODSPORTSMANSHIP LEAGUE

The good Sportsmanship League of District 11-4A, of which Thomas Jefferson is president, met here in October. The chief feature of the visit was a talk by Coach Clarence Underwood.

Goodsportsmanship representatives Faye Hebert, Windel Hebert, and Pat Fisher were selected to represent Thomas Jefferson in Goodsportsmanship League of District 11-4A.

Goodsportsmanship league representatives met with representatives from Orange at midfield of the Orange-Port Arthur game and presented them with a token of friendship from our school. Pictured are: Faye Hebert, Jeff Hayes, and Pat Fisher.

Artists Plan Show

A spring art show has been high on the list of projects planned by the Brush and Palette Club this year. Perhaps the most-noticed work of the artists has been the consistently interesting show cases in the front foyer. Ranging from oil and water colors to tooled metal plaques, the displays have added color and life to the hall. Members of the club work informally during bi-monthly sessions in the Art Room.

"Look This Way, Please"

Working purely for pleasure, members of the Camera Club have had numerous opportunities to make pictures this year. The club received a big boost this year when a former TJ student donated a quantity of photographic materials for members to use this year.

Mrs. Laverna Kiefer, original sponsor of the club and an ardent "shutter bug" enthusiast, has aided member in technical matters. Mr. Roger Russell, art instructor, has given pointers and practical experience in shooting and developing prints, and Mrs. Isabelle Bjerring, world traveler, has given much valuable help with the beautiful slides that she has made.

The club is informal and meetings have been largely devoted to practical demonstrations.

PRINTING CLUB HAS NEW CHARTER

David Eichblatt, a diligent worker in the Printing Club, explains some of the simple procedures of printing before helping the club print basketball programs.

The newly organized Printing Club is sponsored by Mr. Gene Jackson. The main purpose of the club is to try to help promote interest in the graphic arts. This is done through the Printing Club serving as a service club to the other clubs in the school.

Looking over a list of suggestions of how the Printing Club may be of help and service to other clubs in the school are the officers: David Garrett, secretary; Ronald Richard, president, and Victor Calamia, vice president. Mr. Gene Jackson is the club's sponsor.

REPERTOIRE CLUB

The Repertoire Players' officers, C. Wilkerson, E. Felder, and J. Palmer, played an important role in making "Dino" a great success. Not pictured is A. Thompson, also an officer.

MISS MARIAN BAYARD

A lot of hard work, loads of lines to memorize, and flats to paint, but it's all fun for the 100 member Repertoire Players, under the direction of Miss Marian Bayard.

Students interested in drama make up this organization. Members plan and perform varied programs throughout the year. "Dino" was their fall presentation and a series of one-act plays was planned for the spring.

"Dino" was one of the Repertoire Players' most outstanding productions this year. The cast includes, first row: C. Scalco, M. Fredeman, J. Dupuy, B. Sharp, J. Adams, L. Locke. Second row: D. Jacobs, J. Day, M. Harris, J. Potter, C. McDonald. Third row: E. Felder, C. Wilkinson, A. Brabham, B. Lee, K. Wyble, P. Summerlin, A. Ethredge, M. Slott. Fourth row: J. Palmer, J. Brauninger, N. Beauchamp, B. Phares, S. Hodges.

SPONSORS SCHOOL PLAYS

The Repertoire Players include almost everyone in school who has ever walked across the stage. However, these faithful few answered the call for Repertoire Club pictures. They are, first row, left to right: C. Scalco, N. Beachamp, A. Brabham, R. Iverson, C. McDonald, M. McDonald, and J. Richardson.

This is one of the most dramatic scenes of "Dino" where Banker Phares, who plays the part of Dino's father, resorts to violence in knocking his son, Dino (played by Charles Wilkerson) to the floor. The three-act play was presented by the Repertoire Players Nov. 21, 22, and 24. Miss Marion Bayard was the director.

Members of the Repertoire Club include, first row: J. Cunningham, G. Burke, D. Lewis, S. Murray, M. Reid, M. Harris, B. Lee, J. Falcon, M. Barron, M. Coleman, J. Pryor, J. Reynolds. Second row: E. Felder, [illegible]. S. Hodges, J. Palmer, B. Phares, D. Price, J. Mire, D. Moriaty, J. Barron.

D.E. Club Active

The Distributive Education Club, a member of the national and state organization, helps prepare students for their individual careers. The club offers studies in the display of merchandise and the art of pleasing the customer in retail merchandising.

Each year a few members of D.E. are selected to attend the state convention. The club has an annual Christmas party along with other fun-making activities. A banquet in honor of their bosses is the chief social event of the year.

"Practice makes perfect." So think these three young ladies, Pat Sabo, Carolyn Bigler, and Brenda Hill, who are practicing the display of merchandise.

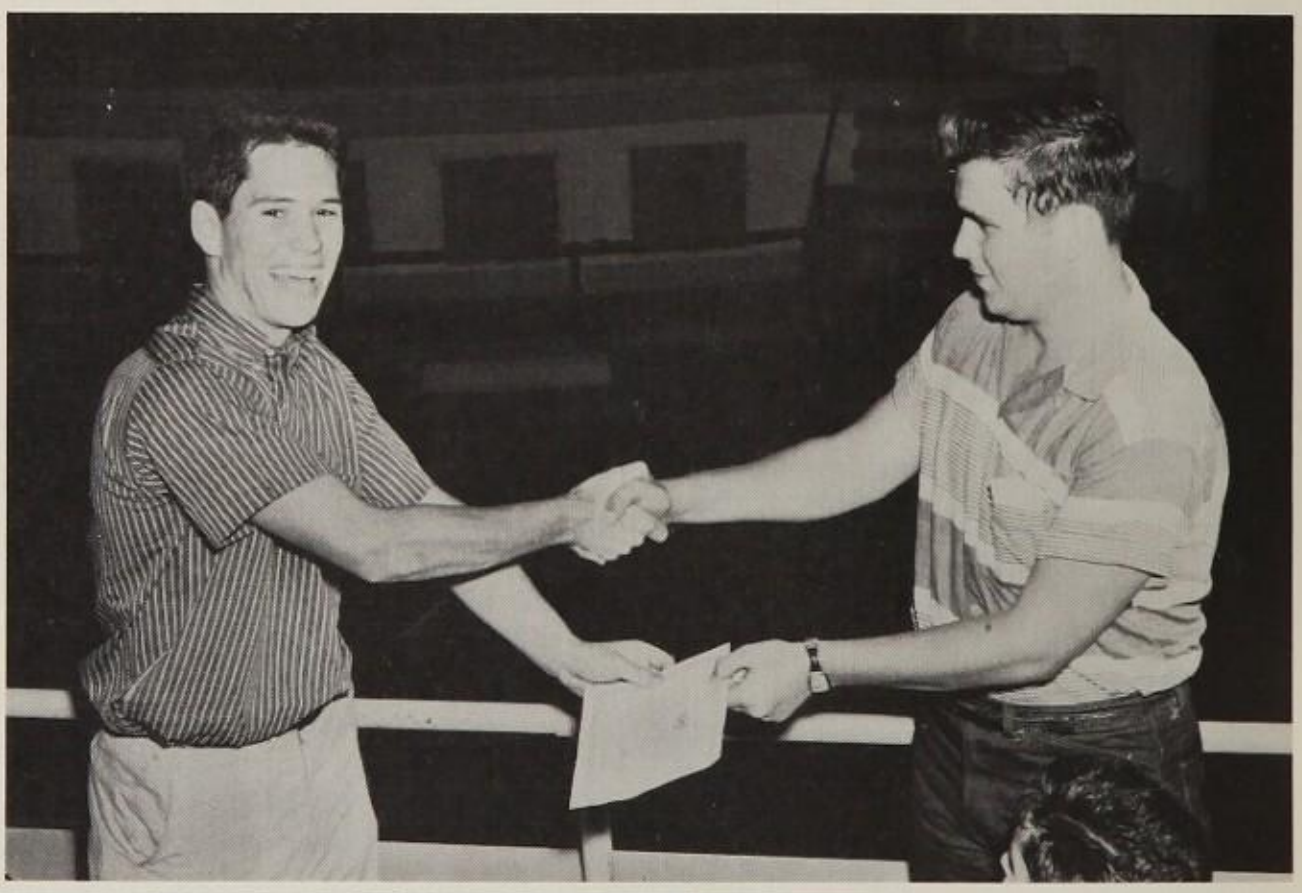
Having a happy time at the annual D.E. Club Christmas party are Rosemary Blanchard, Welborn Jones, Brenda Hill, Clyde Caldwell and Rene Landry.

RADIO CLUB Organizes This Year

Terry Trahan, George Martin, and Willard Youngblood, officers of the Radio Club, discuss the operations of a radio.

Calling All Operators

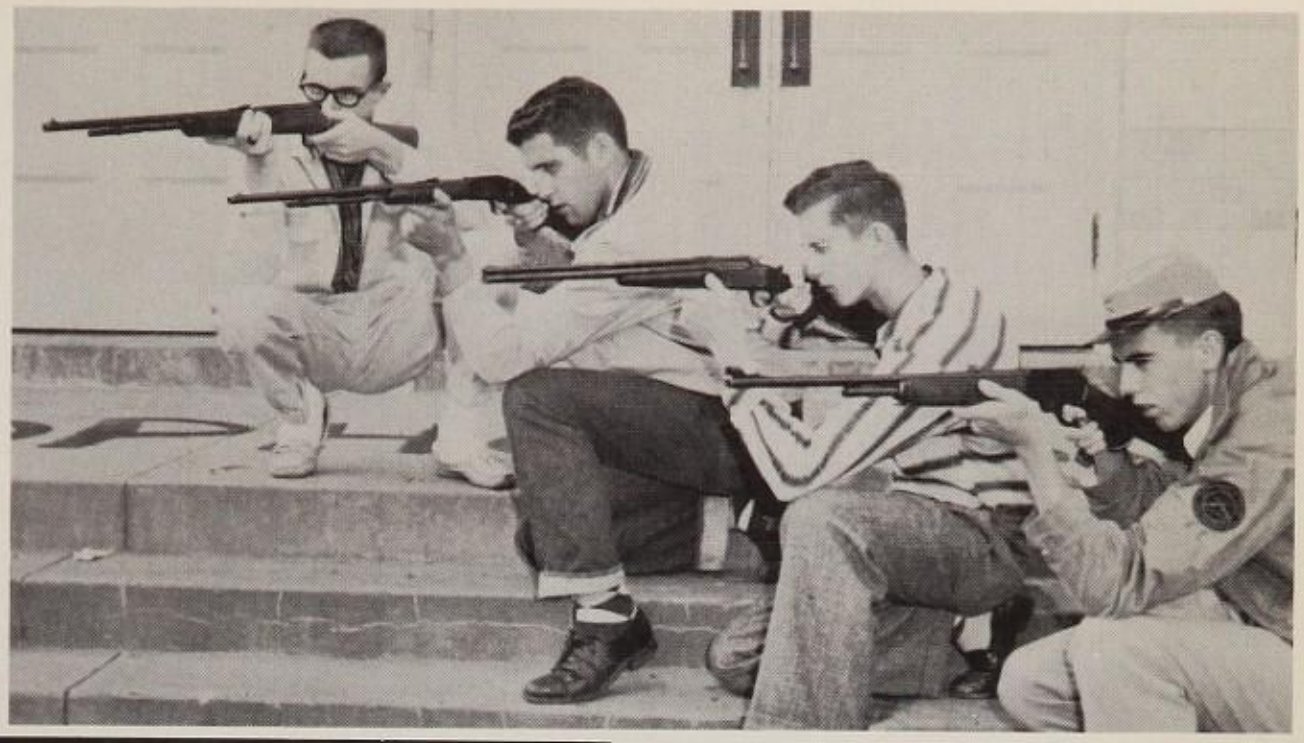
The Radio Club, newly organized with Mr. P. T. Reynolds as sponsor, has held high interest for a group of boys. With individual interest as the chief force, the group met before and after school to learn the operation of radio equipment.



With a smile and a handshake between Jeff Hayes and Willard Youngblood the charter for the Radio Club is granted by Congress.

Terry Trahan, extreme right, demonstrates to other club members the difficult operation of the code machine.

RIFLE CLUB Members Shoot "On Target"



Aiming for the target are the Rifle Club officers, Billy Barrett, secretary, Swiki Anderson, president, David Garrett, parliamentarian, and Bill Garrison, vice president.

The desire of many boy's hearts came to reality the day Swiki Anderson received the charter from Jeff Hayes, making the Rifle Club an official organization.

Composed of boys interested in hunting and firearms, the newly organized Rifle Club received the club charter early this year. The club meets every other Tuesday after school in the auditorium. Mr. Marvin Cichowski is the sponsor. Swiki Anderson is the club president, David Garret, parliamentarian, and Billy Barrett serves as secretary.

Members get experience in marksmanship by going to the National Guard firing range on some Tuesdays. A National Guard officer acts as instructor.

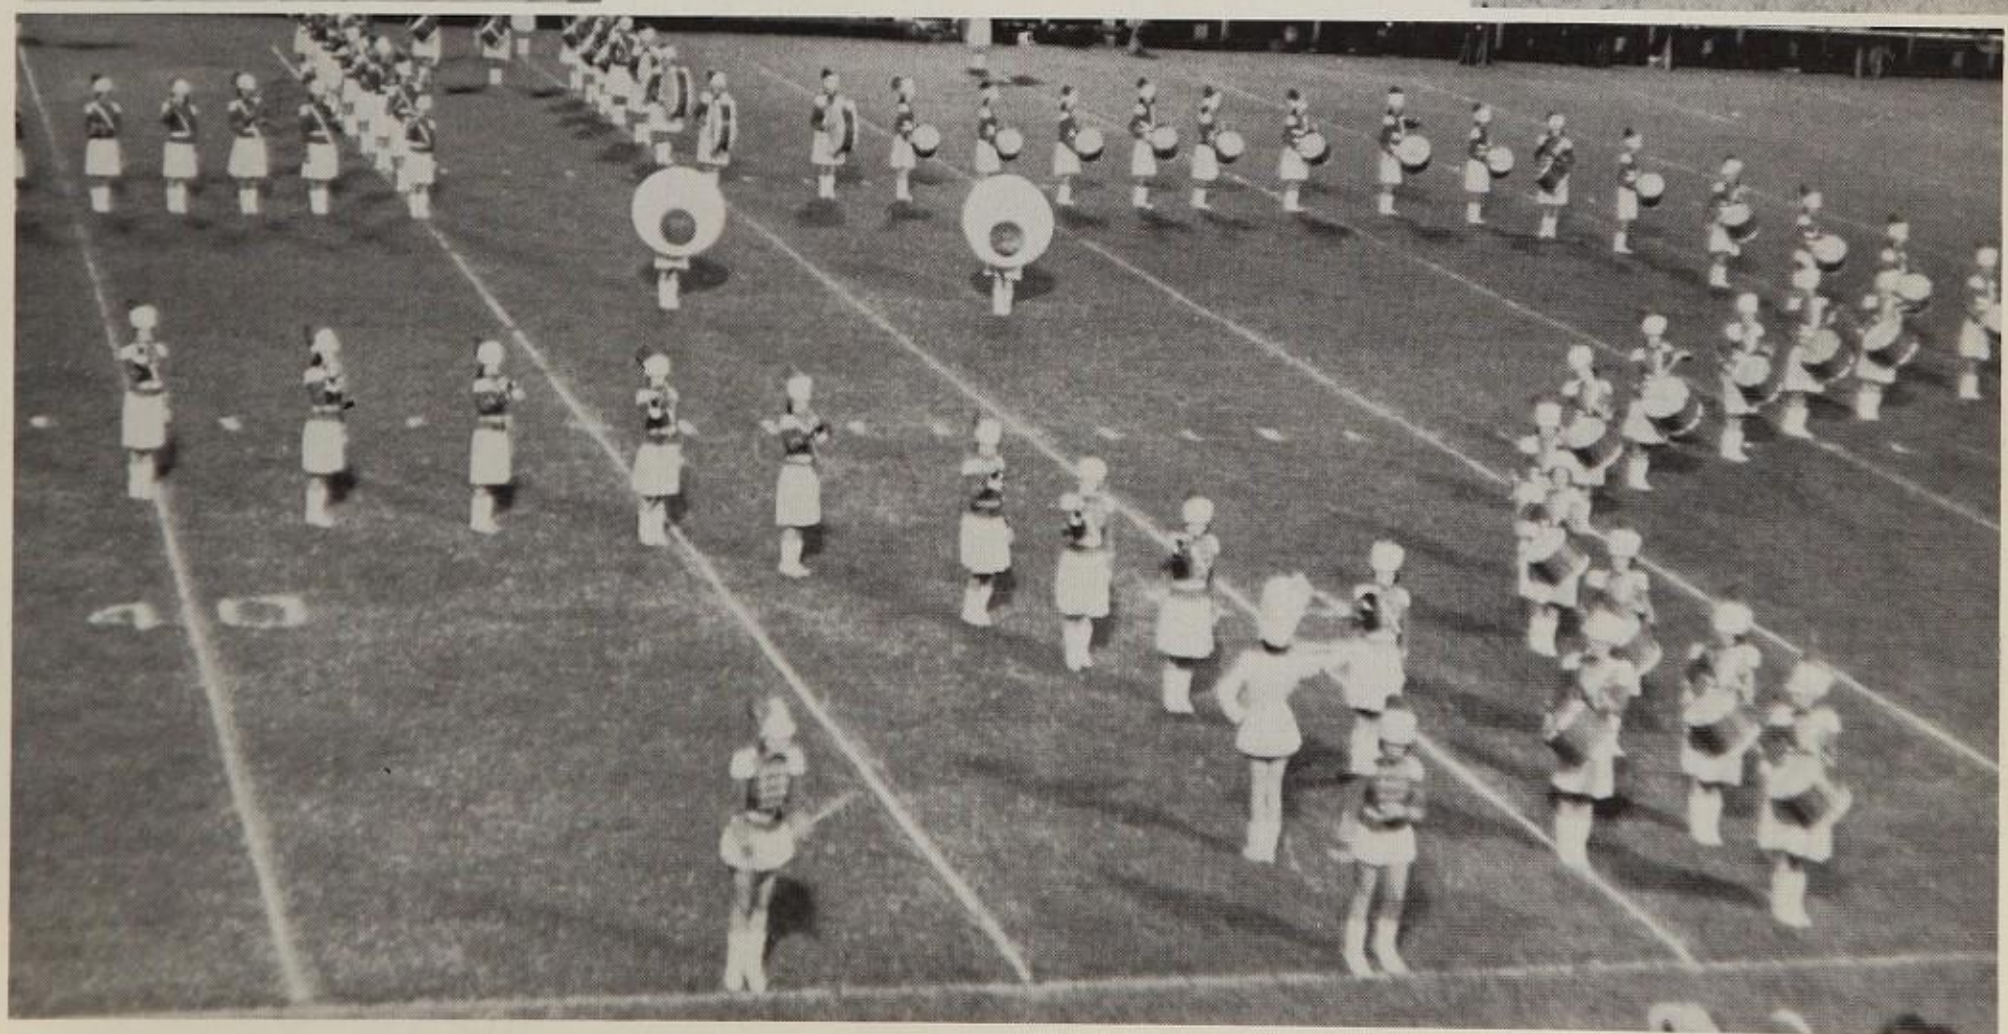
Lora Mae Bussey and Joy Barron, Drum and Bugle Sergeants, take time out for a well earned picture. All of their hard work shows greatly in the precision drills and fabulous parades.



"The Eyes of Texas" were upon our boys as they fought hard in the 0-0 game against the Orange Tigers. The Hussars were right in there to the end.

BIG MOMENTS

The "Shirttail Parade" will be long remembered by this group of Hussars who created extra school spirit at the Bonfire. They yelled, "Burn the Royal Purples," and the command was carried out. Poor little ole Beaumont dummy.

Supposedly cheering our team on to victory is Hussar and Band member Susan Zerkle and Donnie Orr. Well—???

The Sophomore Buglers are learning their songs from Sara Dominguez, a senior. Also not pictured, but still struggling were the Sophomore Drummers.

SPEAKING OF SCHOOL SPIRIT . . .

Is everybody happy? Well, yes. Adding pep and music, the Hussars were quite spectacular at each pep rally. Victory was the cry heard throughout the Field House and with this group of beauties behind our boys, they were sure to try their hardest to win State. The Hussars hold many honors through their participation in and among civic and social affairs at home and in other towns.

Beating of drums, sounds of bugles, it could be none other than TJ's own Red Hussars. Looking up into the stands you will be sure to see the flashing uniforms of red and white and hear the voices full of pep, giving our boys encouragement to win. Don't look now, but do we see them putting the old familiar jinx on the opposition, or is it a hen party?

Well, what have we here? It looks as if the Hussars tangled with some wild tigers. All cheered for a win over the Orange Tigers at this pep rally. The Hussars had their majorettes in there with a cute routine capturing the Tigers as we hoped would happen in the forthcoming game. At each and every game the Hussars came through with a top performance.

Majorettes nad Drum Major offer a big smile as the Jackets win another game for us.

Look at this poor, struggling guy. Man, we sure feel for his having to make music or sounds from that monstrosity. Here's to you, Jimmy.

Combining forces with Port Neches, the band performed maneuvers saluting the different refineries participating in the "Cav-Oil-Cade."

TOP NOTCH PERFORMERS

Big rounds of applause go out to these hard working girls who conquer the art of twirling and fancy stepping. Here we see the smiling faces of Beth Majors, Judy Hatfield, Barbara Myers, Shirley Simpson, and Shirley Logan. At each game or pep rally you could always count on the majorettes to give a spectacular performance. Wow!

Keeping the band in rhythm and tune are Barbara Myers, majorette; Frances Ronshausen, assistant drum major; Suzy Hodges, head color guard; and Carole Holmes, drum major. When it comes to performance these girls are tops. They work together to compose the very best of everything whether parades or football games, even various kinds of programs, you can bet these girls were on the job helping in every way they possibly could. We at T.J. are proud as can be of the great organizations we have.

Well it was a job, but we rounded up the officers of T.J.'s great band . . . First row: B. Majors, S. Hodges, C. Holmes, S. Brantley, and B. Myers. Second row: M. McGuff, F. Ronshausen, and C. MAROON AND GOLD CHOIR

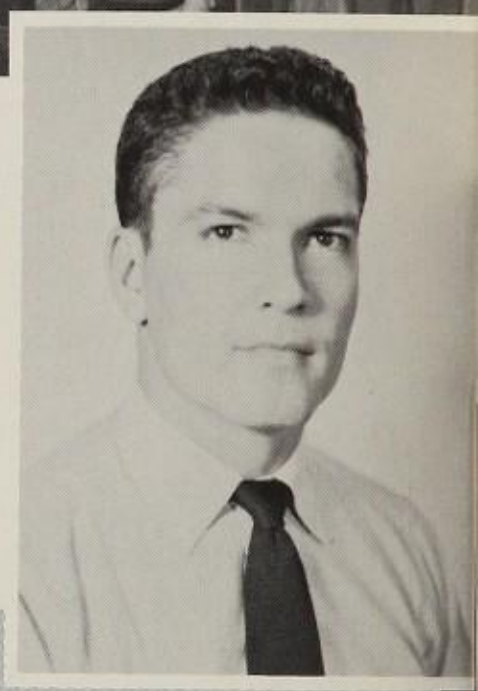
The Thomas Jefferson Choir added color and spice to many school activities with their lively spirituals, romantic ballads, inspiring religious songs. Many members of the Choir won individual awards. The group also won in interscholastic competition.



This year has been a full one for the Maroon and Gold Chorus. Club banquets, church services, school assemblies, baccalaureate, and the graduation ceremony are some of the activities in which the choir has been engaged. Composed of 49 members, and directed by Robert A. Jordahl, the choir has had a successful year.

Singing in the All-State Chorus at the Texas Music Education Association Convention held in Galveston, February 21-23, was a very special honor. The Chorus was composed of the best singers in Texas High Schools. Delegates and alternates from TJ included Katherine Rogers, member; Elaine Felder, alternate; Steve Young, member; Janice Crabtree, alternate, and Wanetta Grimes, alternate.

SPECIAL GROUPS

The Choir officers are selecting music for the coming year. Walter Miller goes over the pieces with Jean Provenzano, Tom Giesen, Susan Zerkle, Faye Lynn Cruise, Gail Leavell, Sharron Stansell, and Elaine Felder.

The sextet is composed of: Judy Reynolds, Kay Marcsh, Faye Lynn Cruise, Margaret Varni, Janice Crabtree, Jean Provanzano. Their accompanist is Janice Crabtree.

The girls' sextet of Thomas Jefferson High School has shown a great deal of spirit and enthusiasm in each performance. Many excellent things have been said about their style of presentation.

Thomas Jefferson is very proud of the Boys' Quartet. Many of their songs are spirituals and fast stepping folk songs, which are presented in a most unusual and exciting style. They have sung at Chapel, school programs, and at many other social events.

The quartet consists of Tom Giesen, Bill Green, Walter Miller, and Donald Braun. The accompanist is Gail Leavell.

The Art staff, composed of Steve Hodges, Sheila McCarthy and Kay Vaughan, considers the drawings for the '58 Jacket.

Associate Editor, Barbara Smith, copy writer, Bill McDonald, and copy editor, Dottie Honeycutt, agree that the '58 Jacket looks great.

Anna Killgore, bookkeeper for the yearbook, and Sandra Riley, typist, are not one bit worried about those bills!

The sale of advertisements for the Yellow Jacket was directed by Mr. P. T. Reynolds. Mr. Reynolds, who teaches bookkeeping, has been in charge of the ads.

YELLOW JACKET STAFF

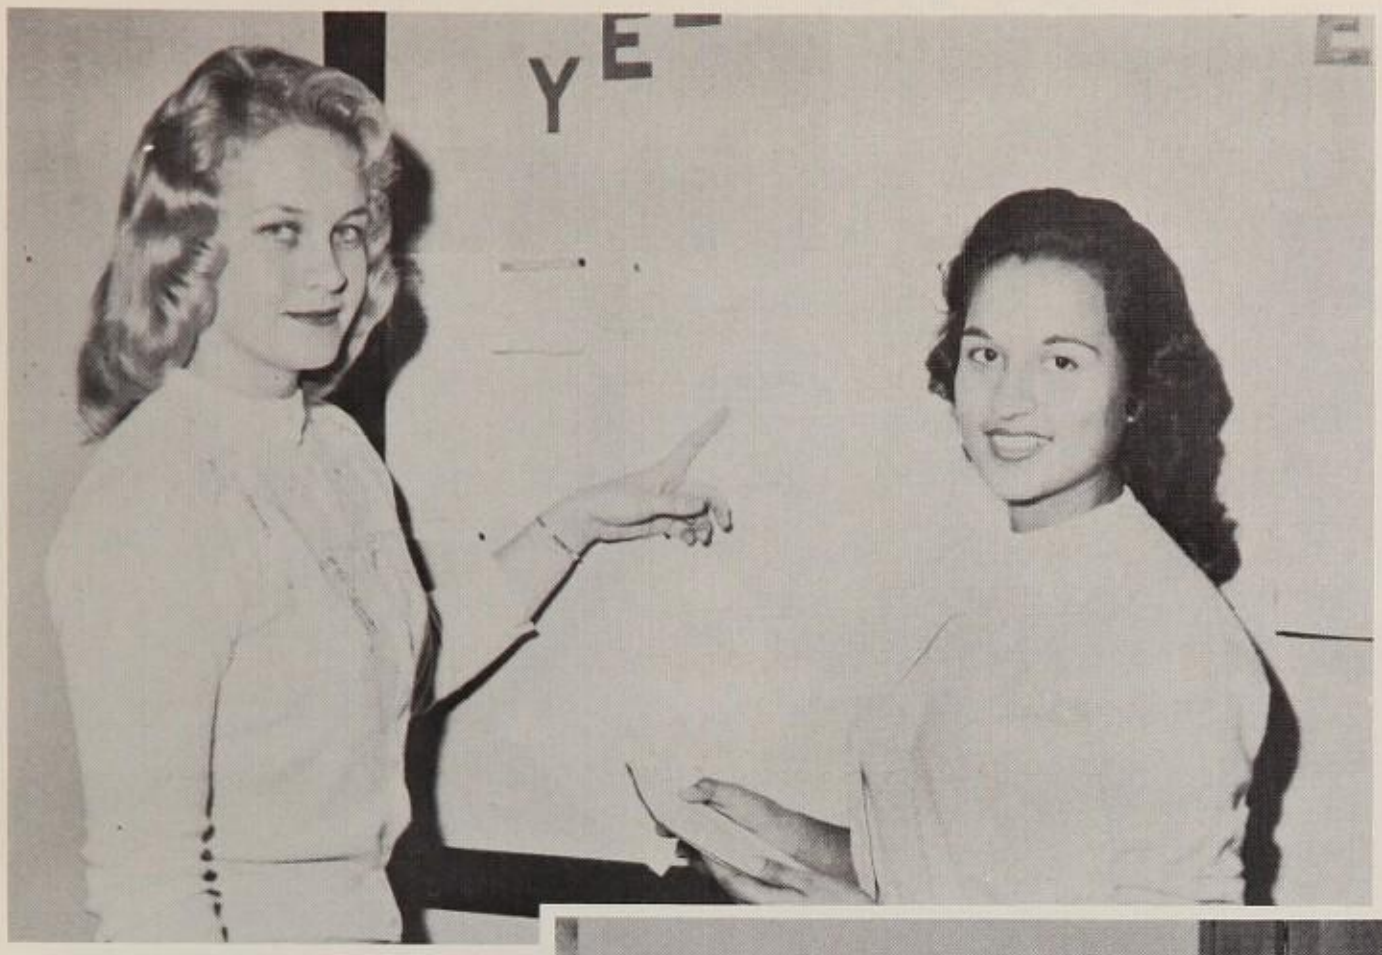
Busily working on layouts for the Club Section are Susan Zerkle, Sybil Daigle, Carolyn Colson and Brenda Hill.

"We're on our way," says Linda Douglas, section editor, as the group begins the forming of their section.

An attractive drawing makes a good ad better agree writers Emma Smith and Rosa McDonald.

Seeing that names and addresses are correct are Monique East, section editor, Barbara Bell and Donna Jones.

BEGINS CURRENT EDITION



Anna Ray Scott and Sara Dominguez appear not at all dismayed by the approaching deadlines of the Girls' Sport Section.

Sorting pictures for the Boys' Sport Section are Jesse Barbosa, Woodrow Cross, section editor, Ronald Wehmeyer, Eddie Anders, Jay Bailey, and Bill McMillian.

Planning for a good Basketball Section are Shelton Comeaux, Mickey O'Grady, Darell Marchand, and Glenn Doiron.

In charge of circulation for the 1957-1958 Yellow Jacket were Milton Woodall and Delmar Fussell. This year's Yellow Jacket will be distributed to 1600 purchasers.

SECTIONS OF YEARBOOK TAKE SHAPE

"Going where the good times are" was the chief objective of many T.J.'s. Seeing that many of their good times appear in this book are special events planners, Sue Lee, Nelda Brabham, Melinda Southerland, Jerry Gower, section editor, and Ruth Stilwell.

"Let's make this section an eyeball stopper" agree journalism students, Melanie Coleman, section editor, Rosalie Lona, Susan Youngblood, and Katy Scott, who are working on a new colorful section of the annual.

Making sure each teacher's picture will appear in the faculty section are Carolove Smith, section editor, Ginger Dill, Barbara Carriere, and Deanna Molaison.

The Favorite Section, which is an important part of the annual, is planned by Sheryl West, Betty Murphy, Sherry Rider, and Nancy Sims, section editor.

THE PILOT

Phil Summerlin, editor of the Pilot and second year journalism student, has given much of his time and effort to make the Pilot a success this year. The pilot has expanded its subscriptions to 1200 and upped the exchange list to more than 100 papers.

Brian Hopkins, sports editor for the Pilot, aided by his assistants, Darlene Heath and Billy Barrett, look over a program for the first 1957-1958 Yellow Jacket football game with East Jefferson.

Clubs and feature stories of the Pilot were directed mainly by Pat Fisher, Ester Thibodeaux, Elaine Felder, Nancy Booth, and Judy Fouts assisted Pat with the Pilot work.

STAFF MEMBERS

Taking time out of regular period class the Pilot Staff reads the latest edition, making their own comments and pointing out their columns to fellow classmates.

Theodore Miller, circulation manager for the Pilot, gets an accurate count assisted by Peggy Nelson, associate editor, and Romeo Ramirez, business manager.

Mrs. Mike Redman, sponsor; Mr. W. G. Jones, print shop director; Mr. Gene Jackson, printer.

TJ'S OFFICIAL NEWS

Part of the fun in putting out the news is being able to select appropriate "cuts" which will satisfy Pilot readers. Donna Ingo, Helen Flores, Emma Flores, Barbara Johnson, Eddie Hendrix, Bessie Haynes, and Pat Hudson are relied upon to do this job.

Looking for suggested assignments to use in the next issue of The Pilot is one of the numerous staff jobs which Cynthia Lumpkin, Esther Thibodeaux, Diann Lewallen, Betty Wooley and Betty LeBance do quite well.

JACKETS WIN OVER EAST JEFFERSON 33-0

SEPTEMBER 13—For the fifth time, a Crescent City representative had its ears pinned back here Friday night.

With brutal force, the Maroon and Gold stormed to a 33 point victory, riding comfortably behind strong line play and the craftsmanship of Quarterback Ronnie Stanley to conquer the invading Warriors in a superb opening night performance.

Stanley, slick as a greased pig, barreled over from one yard out for the Jackets' score.

He also tossed touchdown passes to Ends David Simmons and Jay Hebert. Halfback Gary Dorsey and Anthony Bergeron joined in the six point act with sprints of 2 and 27 yards, and Melvin Borel split the upright three of five times to account for the rest of the Jackets' scoreboard action.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30—A crowd of 14,000 saw the Jackets drained of everything but their fighting hearts.

The Port Arthur Yellow Jackets leading the Baytown Ganders 6-0 at halftime, saw their lead dwindle away. The fans saw two sets of dazzling backs, Lynn Gray and Steve McWilliams, rip off yardage almost at will, rolling up 144 yards in the last half to Port Arthur's 44. The Jackets set up their scoring opportunity on the third down. Baytown halfback Lynn Gary fumbled to Jacket fullback Gerald Hoelzer at the Port Arthur 21. Port Arthur's Quarterback Ronnie Stanley barreled for eight, Hoelzer blasted for three and Doty dashed around left end for nine. Hoelzer scored from the two, but Melvin Borel's placement was blocked.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4—One year ago Friday night at Corpus Christi, the Miller Buccaneers loosened an attack that left the Port Arthur Yellow Jackets bruised, battered and bewildered.

Miller cut loose with sleek, fleet footed backs that couldn't be stopped and the defense was not to be penetrated. They held the Jackets' offensive unit to only six points.

But here Friday night, the Port Arthur Yellow Jackets turned the tables on the Buccaneers and put on one of their best showings of the year.

The Yellow Jackets held the Miller Buccaneers to a shutout and at the end of the game the score was in favor of Port Arthur Yellow Jackets, 14-0.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 11—Pasadena's menacing missile, Bert Coan, wasn't quite up to doing it all here Friday night.

The green ghost Bert Coan, said to be the fastest ball player in the state, ripped off the only Pasadena touchdown runs of 84 and 46 yards. But the Jackets came out on top.

The Port Arthur Yellow Jackets did most of the scoring and most of the defensive work. The Jackets, led by quarterback Ronnie Stanley, underdogs before the game, came to Pasadena knowing they were underdogs. They unwrapped one of the best planned attacks of the year.

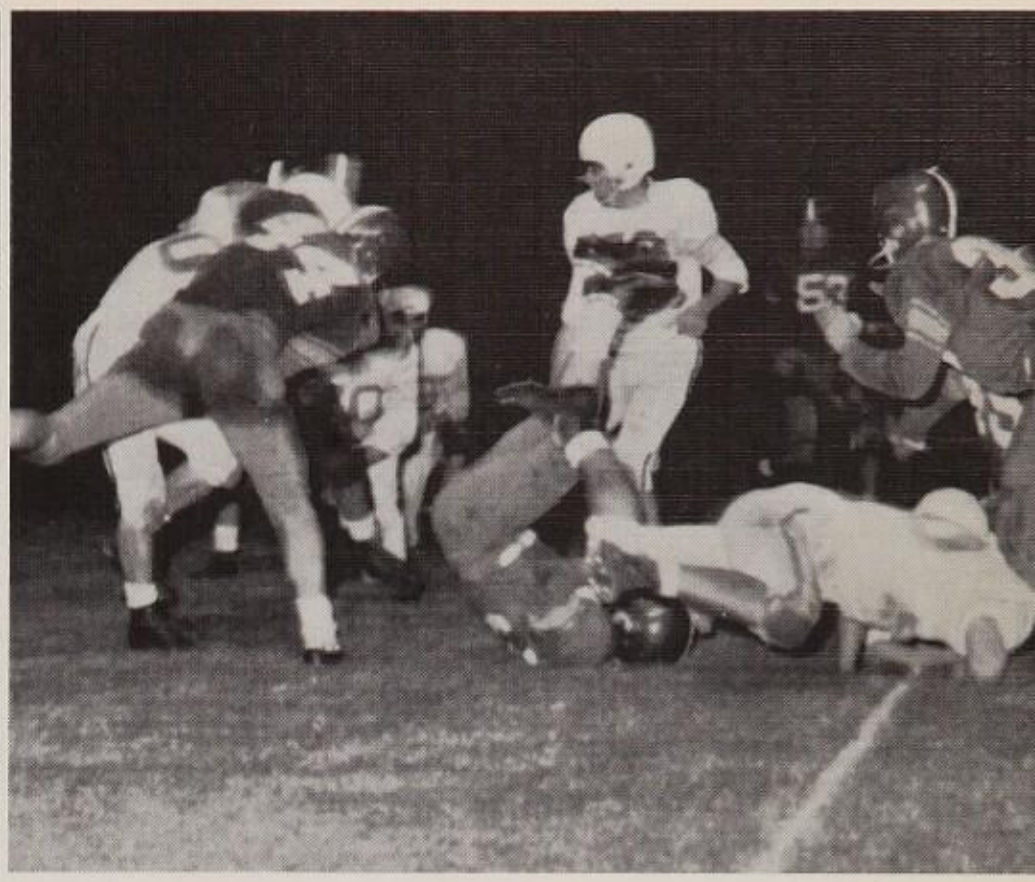
The three touchdowns of the Jackets were made by halfbacks Ronald Doty, who pounded over from the one; halfback Gary Dorsey circled the left flank for the second marker, and Pepper Smith let out with a 26 yard run for the third touchdown.

Walker hauls Coan after short pickup. Walker was outstanding on defense and offense.

Doty pounds Pasadena line for a first down to help the Yellow Jackets win over always powerful Pasadena.

JACKETS UPSET BY PORT NECHES 15-14

Port Neches fullback Romero goes through wide hole on Jacket line opened up by strong Indian line play. Ronald Doty (20) made the tackle but too late to stop the score.



Doty is hit hard after a two-yard gain against the Port Neches Indian strong and very fast line. The Indians were very well keyed up for this game.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18—The Port Arthur Yellow Jackets ran into the strongest team of the season to this date, the fired up Port Neches Indians with a 6-0 record. The Jackets came out strong in the first quarter when they recovered a Port Neches fumble. Stanley then passed to Gary Dorsey for the first score.

The Yellow Jackets had caught the Indians off guard for the last time. Then the Jackets kicked off and forced the Indians to kick on fourth down. The punt rolled to the Jacket one-yard line where the Jackets tried to run it and were trapped behind their own goal.

Port Neches scored their last touchdown to put the score in their favor, 15-14.

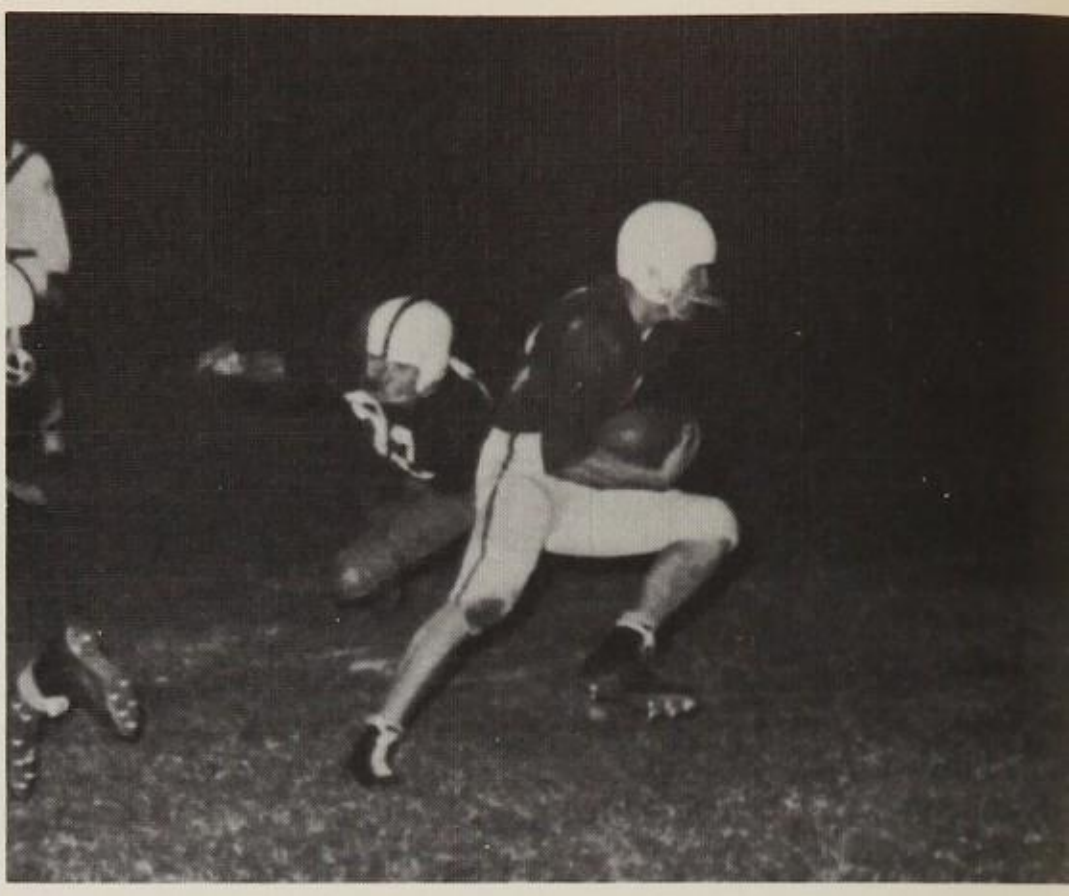
JACKETS DRAW TIE WITH ORANGE 0-0

Hoelzer is hit by Orange blocker, but despite this he makes a jolting tackle. Other Jackets in on the play are (88) Jay Hebert and (79) Robert Suttle.



Quarterback Ronnie Stanley showed his heels to the Orange defenders many times in this game. His blockers sent the defense falling all over the field but the Jackets couldn't score.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25—The football gods wore orange and black Friday night and the frustrated Port Arthur Yellow Jackets, eight penalties, seven fumbles, and 48 minutes after they got here, were fortunate indeed to escape with a scoreless tie.

It was one of those freaks that looks like nothing on the scoreboard, but is as one-sided as a flattened balloon. Port Arthur, playing its finest football of the season to this point, three times. reached the Orange and Black 10, once got to the one, and on seven trips penetrated the Bengal 30.

At the end, though, the blustery 307 yards rushing and another 56 passing, were no more important than Orange's net of 64 yards.

Each time something with a Maroon and Gold hue began rolling, penalties and bobbles interrupted the attack. The game ended in a 0-0 tie.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8—Steamrolling Port Arthur, scattering their point production over four quarters, used the Royal Purples as a stepping stone into one of the most hectic district 11-AAAA finishes on record.

Executing their defensive plays with brilliance, the Jackets barreled to victory on as perfect a team effort as shown in years gone.

While the defense had its moments, Quarterback Ronnie Stanley guided the Maroon and Gold to grind out 309 yards on the ground and make two touchdowns of his own.

Fullback Greg Thompson made a great showing, slashing for 98 yards and contributed the big gainers on each of the first three scoring surges.

Beaumont's forward wall might as well have stayed at home, for all the help they offered.

The yardage came without too much contest as tackles Jay Hebert and Carl Graham, guards Walker and Williams, ends Simmons and Earl Boyanton, along with center Kenneth St. John, spread the carpet time after time. All in all, it was a grade "A" performance and made state look not-so-distant after all.

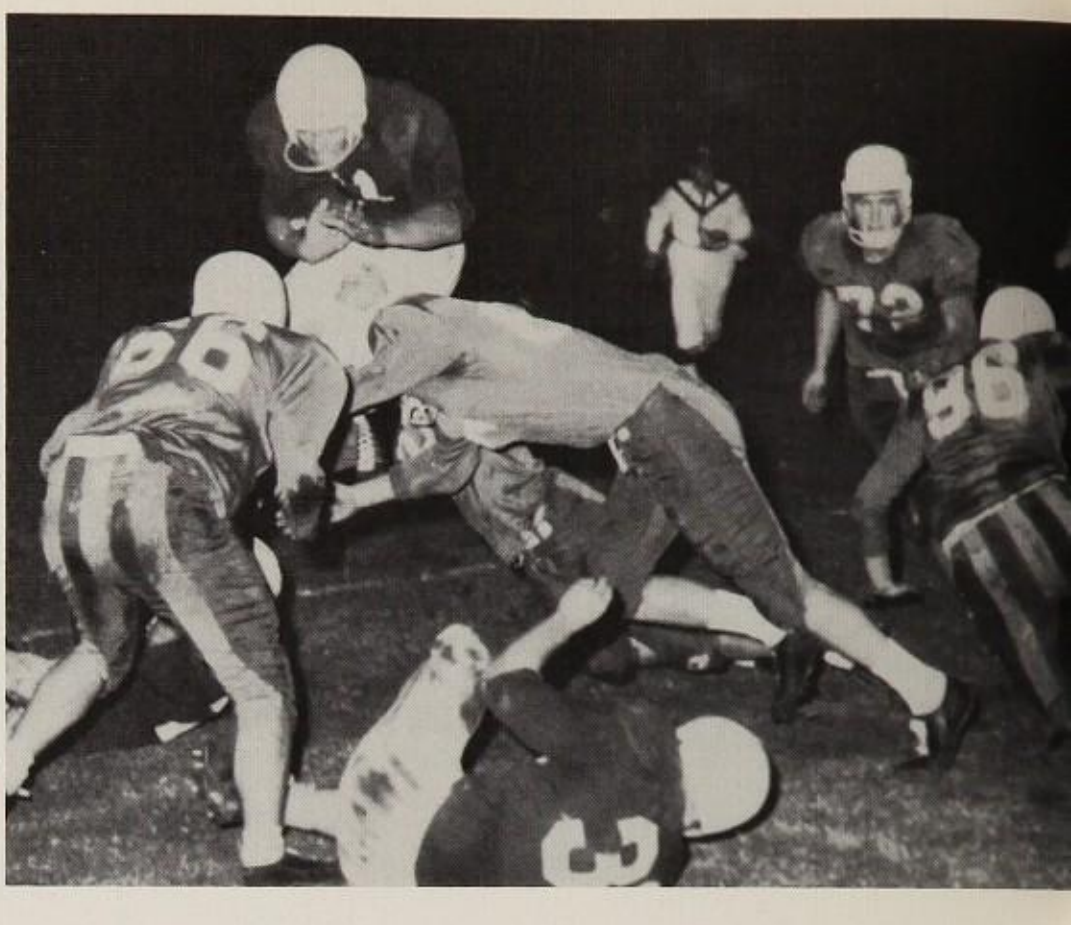
Halfback Ronald Doty cuts right end, goes for nine yards to pick up another first down.

JACKETS DUMP GALVESTON 28-0

Doty circles his right end for large gain in the romp over Ball High of Galveston. Doty made many a good run against Galveston.



Quarterback Ronnie Stanley leaps high, and over a Galveston tackler.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15—The Port Arthur Yellow Jackets added their second win in the last two games by dumping Ball High of Galveston in one of the most impressive victories of the year.

After a victory like this one the District Honors didn't look so far away. Greg Thompson replaced fullback Gerald Hoelzer, after Hoelzer was injured in a earlier game with Port Neches.

Ronald Doty, the fleet-footed Jacket halfback pounded the Galveston line for great gains and two touchdowns. Doty was a big factor in the Yellow Jacket victory over Ball High.

The Jacket line play was tremendous and was another big factor in the Jackets' victory.

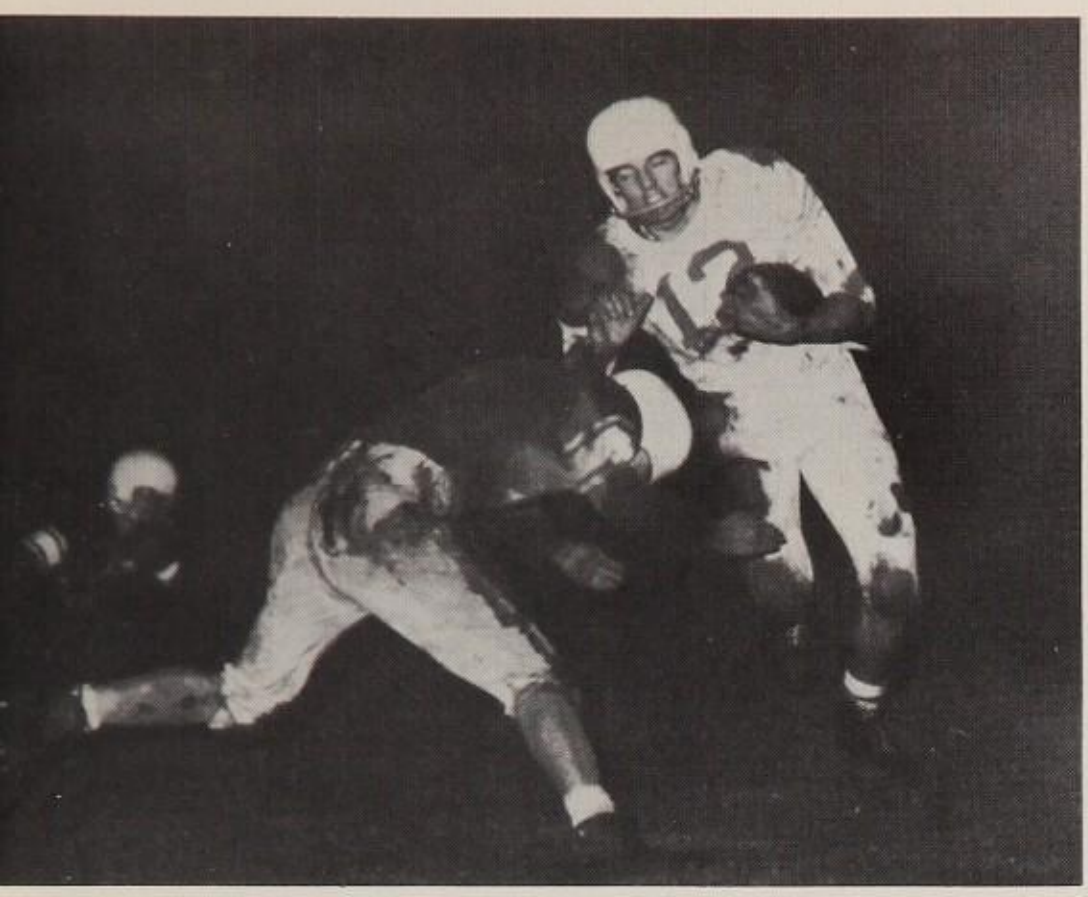
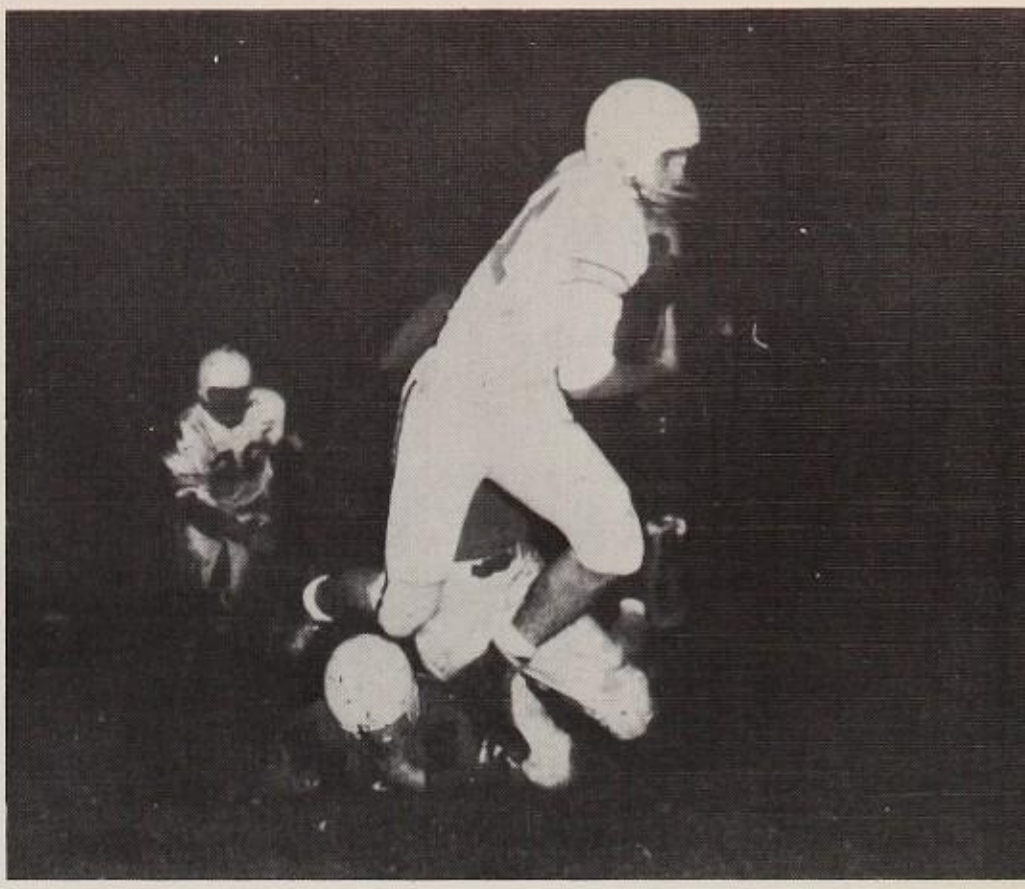
JACKETS BUMP SOUTH PARK FOR DISTRICT 38-6



Quarterback Windell Hebert tries to cut inside Greenie tacklers as he goes on his way to a first down.



Quarterback Windell Hebert leaps into the air and over two Greenie tacklers. Coming up in background is Jay Hebert (88).

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 22—Storming to 407 brilliant yards in the muck and mire of Jacket stadium, Port Arthur smothered the South Park Greenies under a 38-6 avalanche here Friday to make it into the class AAAA playoffs for the first time since 1953.

Quarterback Ronnie Stanley and his able backfield mates, Ronald Doty, Gary Dorsey, and Greg Thompson, had it easy behind the most devastating blocking the Jacket line has unfolded all season.

Stanley collected three touchdowns on one-yard plunges; Dorsey and Doty chimed in with eight-yard scoring efforts; and Hebert got the last on a one-foot caper.

Less than three minutes after the inaugural kickoff Port Arthur had its first touchdown. Another four minutes and it was all even at 6-6, the last hope for South Park to beat Port Arthur this year.

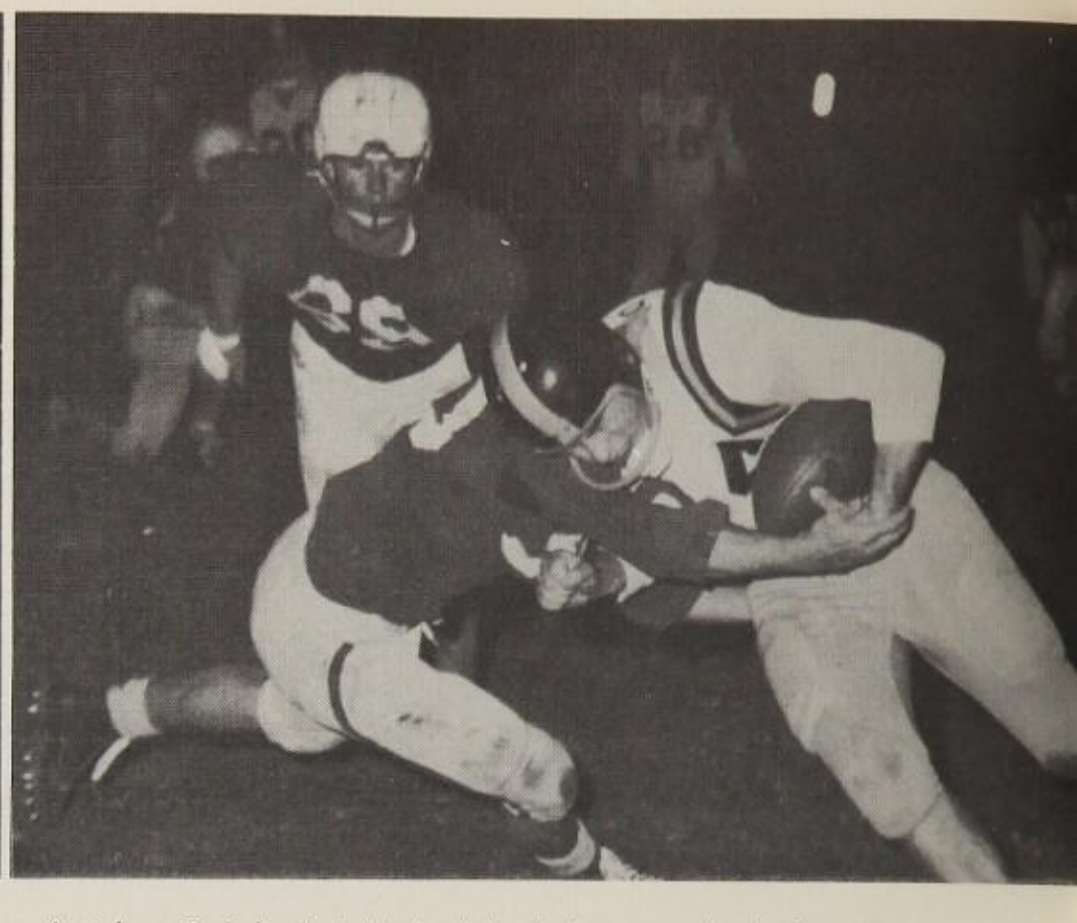
JACKETS TAKE BI-DISTRICT HONORS 14-7

Quarterback Ronnie Stanley finds a hole in the Galena Park defense and plunges for 15 yards before being brought down by the Parker's safety. The field was so muddy that both teams had to change jerseys at the half.

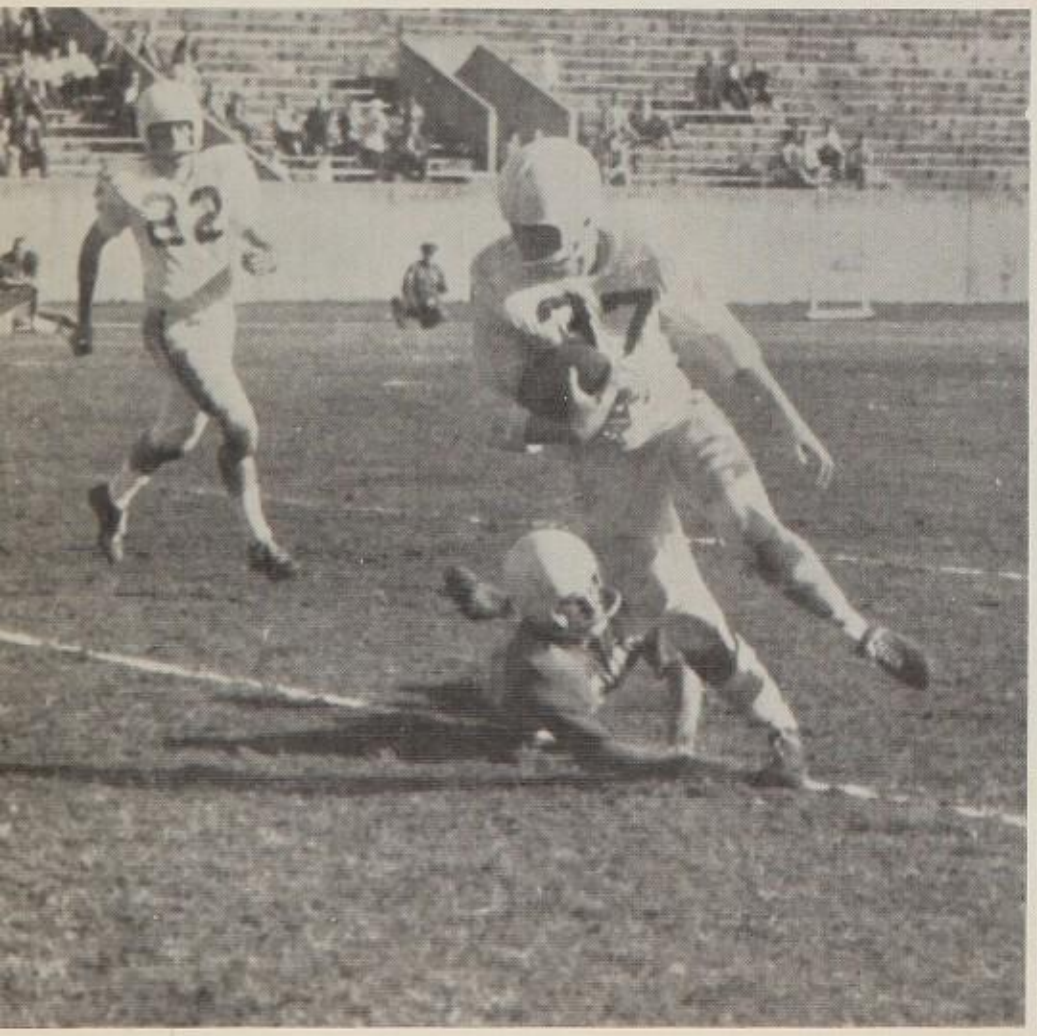


A Galena Park back is hit hard by Jacket cornerback Gary Dorsey, as guard Rufus Williams comes up to assist. Defensive work like this played a big factor in Port Arthur's victory over Galena Park.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30—The Port Arthur Yellow Jackets, underdogs before the game with Galena Park, came out as top-dog with Bi-District honors with the victory over the Galena Park Yellow Jackets.

The Port Arthur Yellow Jackets were so keyed up for this game that there was no other way this game could be played except for a Port Arthur victory.

The team had the full backing of the entire school and city of Port Arthur.



Halfback Gary Dorsey stops Bellaire fullback with a shoe string tackle.

Bellaire halfback tries to find an opening in the Jacket line, but he only finds Gerald Hoelzer (35) and Grant Lyons (66).

JACKETS UPSET BELLAIRE 19-0

Bellaire halfback goes high with tremendous effort to escape Jacket tacklers. David Henry and Melvin Borel make the stop, coming up to assist is (66) Grant Lyons.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7—The Port Arthur Yellow Jackets met with Bellaire Houston, in Houston for the quarter-finals playoffs.

Bellaire, outweighing the Jacket line by 18-20 pounds per man in the backfield, found that size doesn't matter when a team wants to win.

Quarterback Ronnie Stanley sent his D.D.T. combination of Dorsey, Doty, and Thompson through the big, heavy Bellaire line for large gains.

The big Houston line couldn't hold off the fast Jacket attack. The Jacket defense just blew the Bellaire linemen over on their backs and pounded the backfield into the ground.

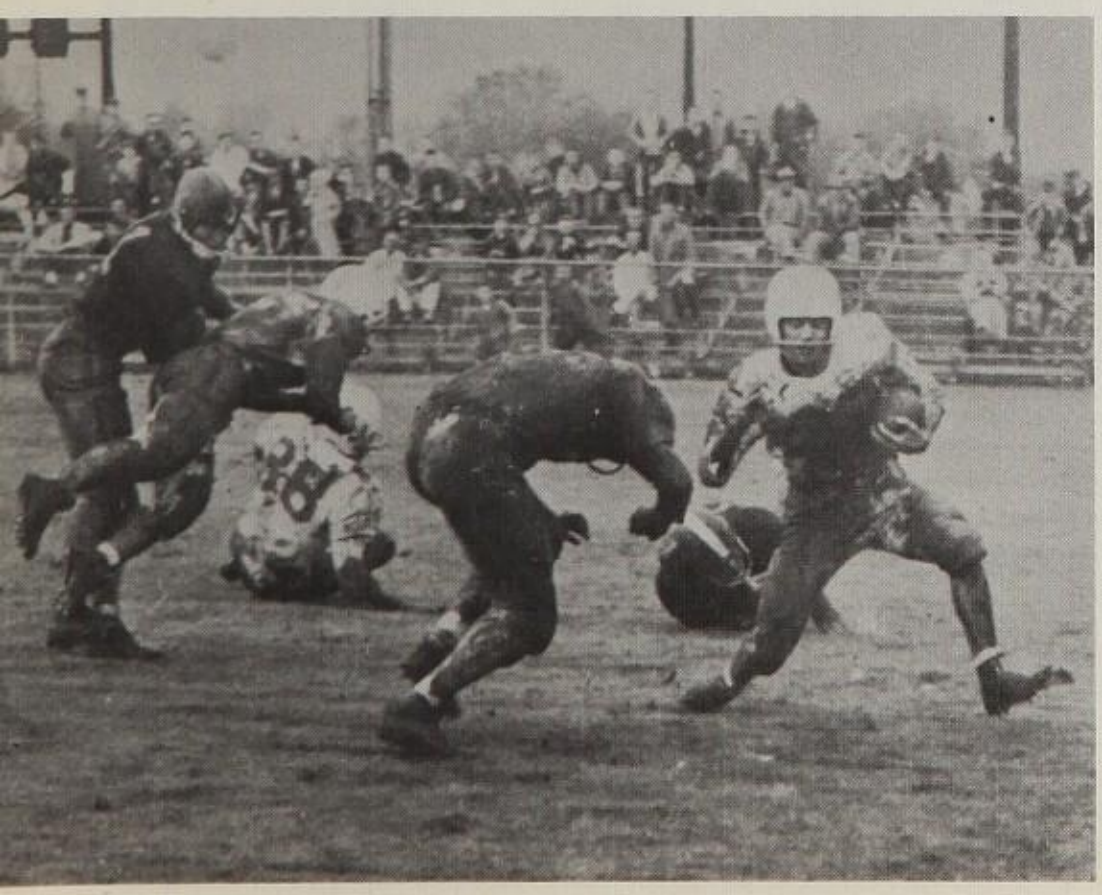
JACKETS WIN OVER AUSTIN 14-6

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 14—The Yellow Jackets met the strong team from Austin with Austin a two-touchdown favorite, but the Jackets didn't know they were underdogs, and they came through with flying colors.

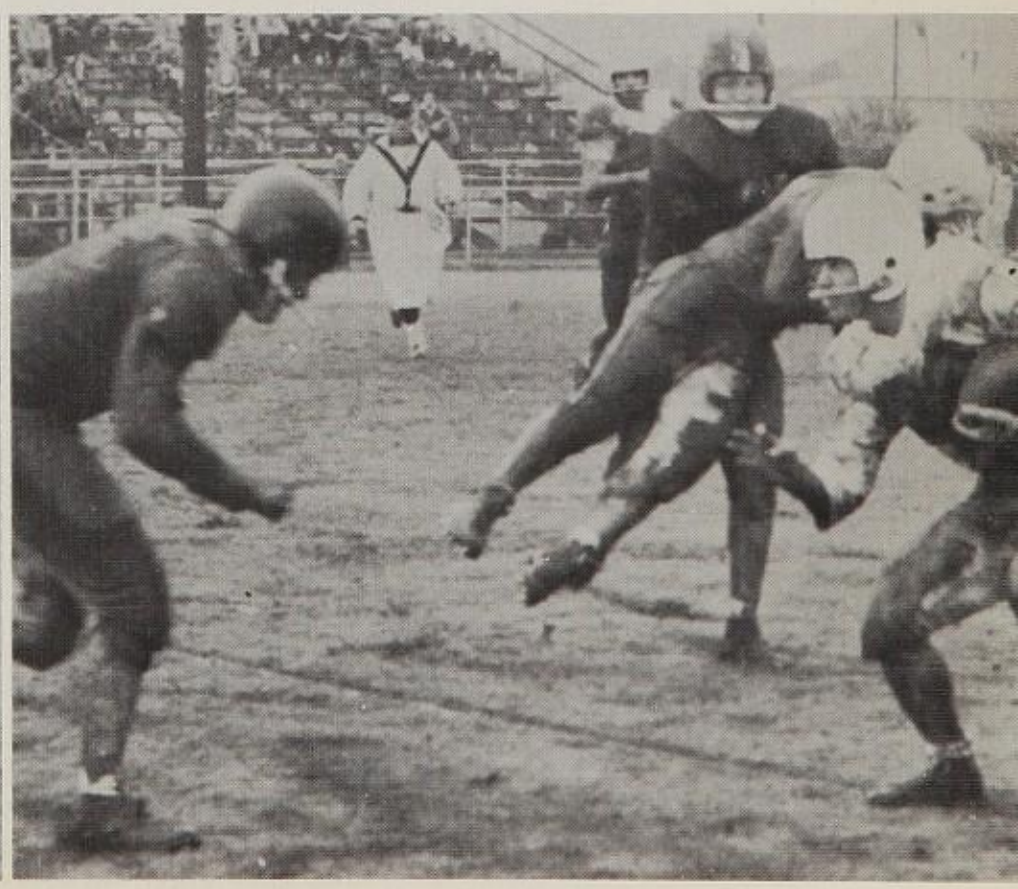
The first Jacket score came in the second half when Quarterback Ronnie Stanley scored from one yard out. The extra point was good.

The second Jacket score was added in the third quarter when Doty scored from the one-yard line. The point after touchdown was good.

Austin's score came on the kick-off right after the first Jacket score. The kick-off was run all the way back for 84 yards by Bobby Nunis.



Halfback Ronald Doty tries to escape Austin tacklers as he circles left end.



Fullback Greg Thompson offers assist to Doty by blocking Austin lineman.

JACKETS DROP STATE TO HIGHLAND PARK 21-9

Halfback Ronald Doty cuts back to mid-field to try to escape Highland Park tackle. Blocking is (89) Carl Graham.

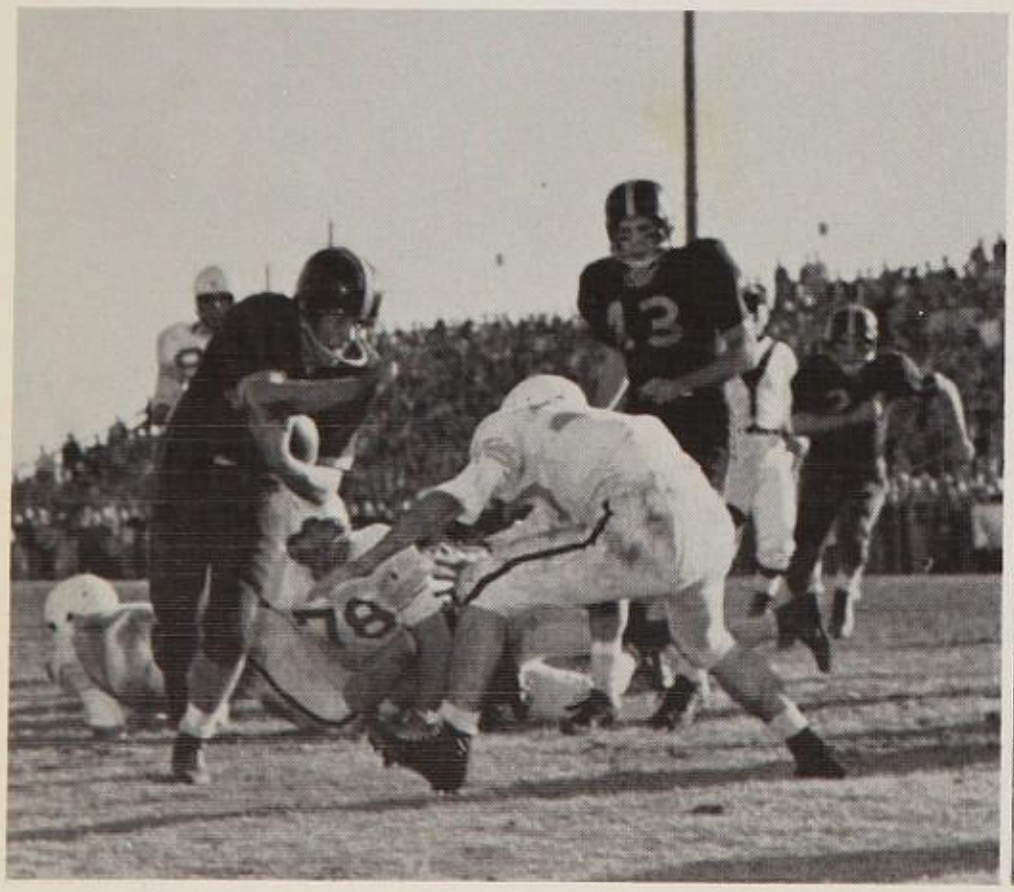
SATURDAY, DECEMBER 21—The Port Arthur Yellow Jackets, who earlier in the season were figured to finish at the bottom in district play, faced the Scotties of Highland Park for the top high school football honors in the state.

The Jackets came on strong in the first half, and wouldn't give the Scotties an inch. The initial Jacket score came in the second quarter, when on the kick-off to start the second quarter, Borel tried an on-side kick. The ball bounced over the head of Jack Collins and into the end zone.

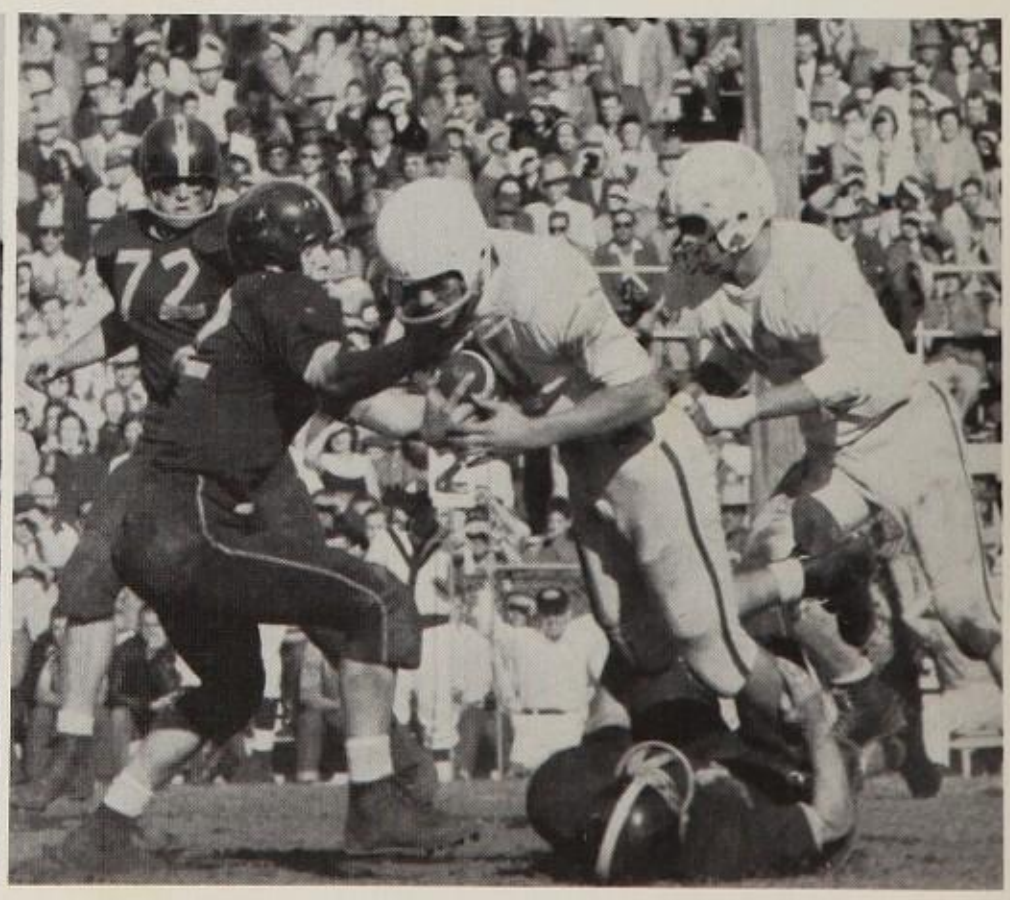
End Stenson Jones picked the ball up, but was hit hard by Mickey Walker and Clarence Bray, the ball fell free, and Bray fell on it for two points.

In about the same way the Jackets added six points for another touchdown and the extra point was good. The score at half time was 9-0 in favor of the Jackets.

The Scotties stormed back in the second half with three touchdowns to win the game with a 21-9 score and the Scots became state AAAA champions.



Scotties fullback Jack Collins runs into trouble as he is hit and stopped by halfback Ronald Doty.



Quarterback Ronnie Stanley is finally stopped after a great gain. Coming up to assist is guard Rufus Williams.

The Port Arthur Yellow Jackets may not have won state, but they did win a victory by proving that a person can't count chickens before they hatch. In the middle of the season, the sports writers of the state and many football fans said, "The Jackets can't possibly finish on top in the district." But on December 21, 1957, the Port Arthur Yellow Jackets played Highland Park of Dallas for the highest honor in the state, and proved that the sports writers were wrong. The people of Port Arthur and the students of Thomas Jefferson have a great team.

COACH RONNIE MOYE

Quarterback Don Daigle is stopped short of a first down against the Orange Tigers.

Defensive star Royce Wolf eludes Orange defenders, gaining much needed yardage.

ALL-STATE QUARTERBACK

RONNIE
STANLEY

Ronnie has proved to be a grade "A" football player and quarterback in the past two years. He has one of the cleverest minds of any football player in the state. Ronnie always comes up with the right play at the right time.

In addition to being nominated for all-state honors, he was elected to the all-district offensive team and collected 63 of a possible 80 points.

ALL-STATE GUARD

MICKEY WALKER

Mickey was chosen as all-state guard by the sports writers of the state. He collected 65 points out of a possible 80. Mickey was also elected for both all-district offensive and defensive teams. His excellent playing was a big factor in the Yellow Jackets' success.

ALL-STATE TACKLE

JOHN HEBERT

John Hebert, all-state and all-district tackle receiving 65 out of 80 votes, was one of the key men in the Jackets' great season this year. John is the type of ball player who knows his job. At the season's start, he played at the defensive end position and occasionally offensive end. In the middle of the season, John was shifted to a tackle slot, and at this post he carried the load of both offensive and defensive tackle. This change gave the Jacket line needed speed.

THEY ALL HAVE A HAND

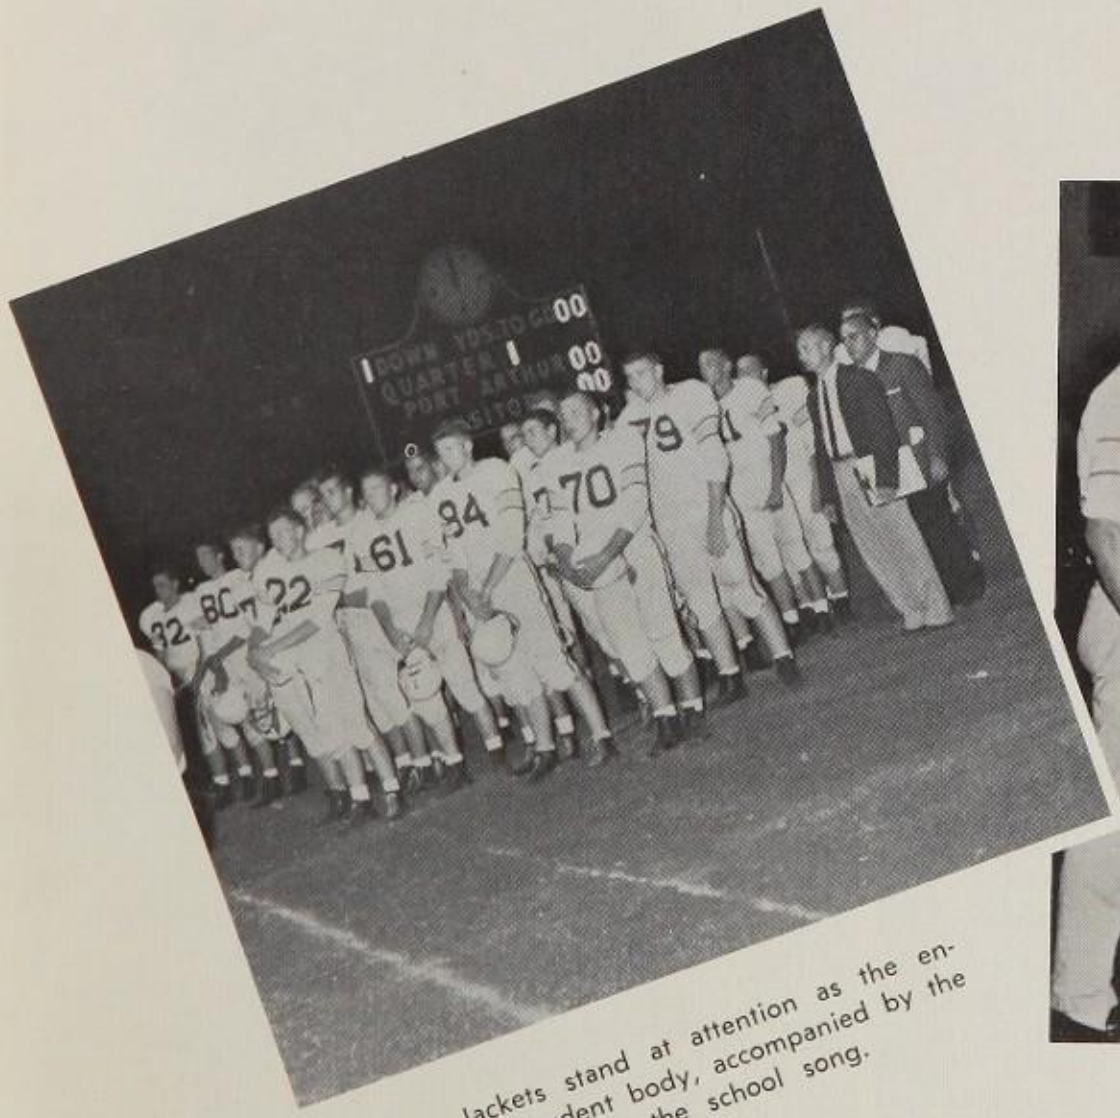
Early morning found the Jackets and their fans full of anxiety and spirit for the Odessa game. Sleepy? Uh-Uh! They are always ready to go!

Jimmy Havard gives the Ole Bass drum a final tune up before halftime.

These drums get mighty heavy, but with Pop and little Brothers' help, Hussars, Helen Carr and Charlotte Pittman, always make it.

ALL THE WAY, BIG TEAM

Anyone could guess why these girls are so happy. They are off to Pasadena to cheer for the Jackets and push them on to victory.



Jackets stand at attention as the entire student body, accompanied by the band, sings the school song.

Jacket supporters look on with sorrow in their hearts at the graveside burial of a Beaumont "Greenie."

PEP RALLIES ADD FUN AND SPIRIT

Pep rallies on Thursday afternoons, the Bonfire pep rally and the early morning pep rally at the airport all added spirit and fun to football season. The Hussars, Band, Cheerleaders and the rest of T.J.'s student body always turned out to cheer the Jackets on. They gave spirit to the student body as well as to the team.

IMPORTANT MOMENTS THAT WILL LAST FOREVER

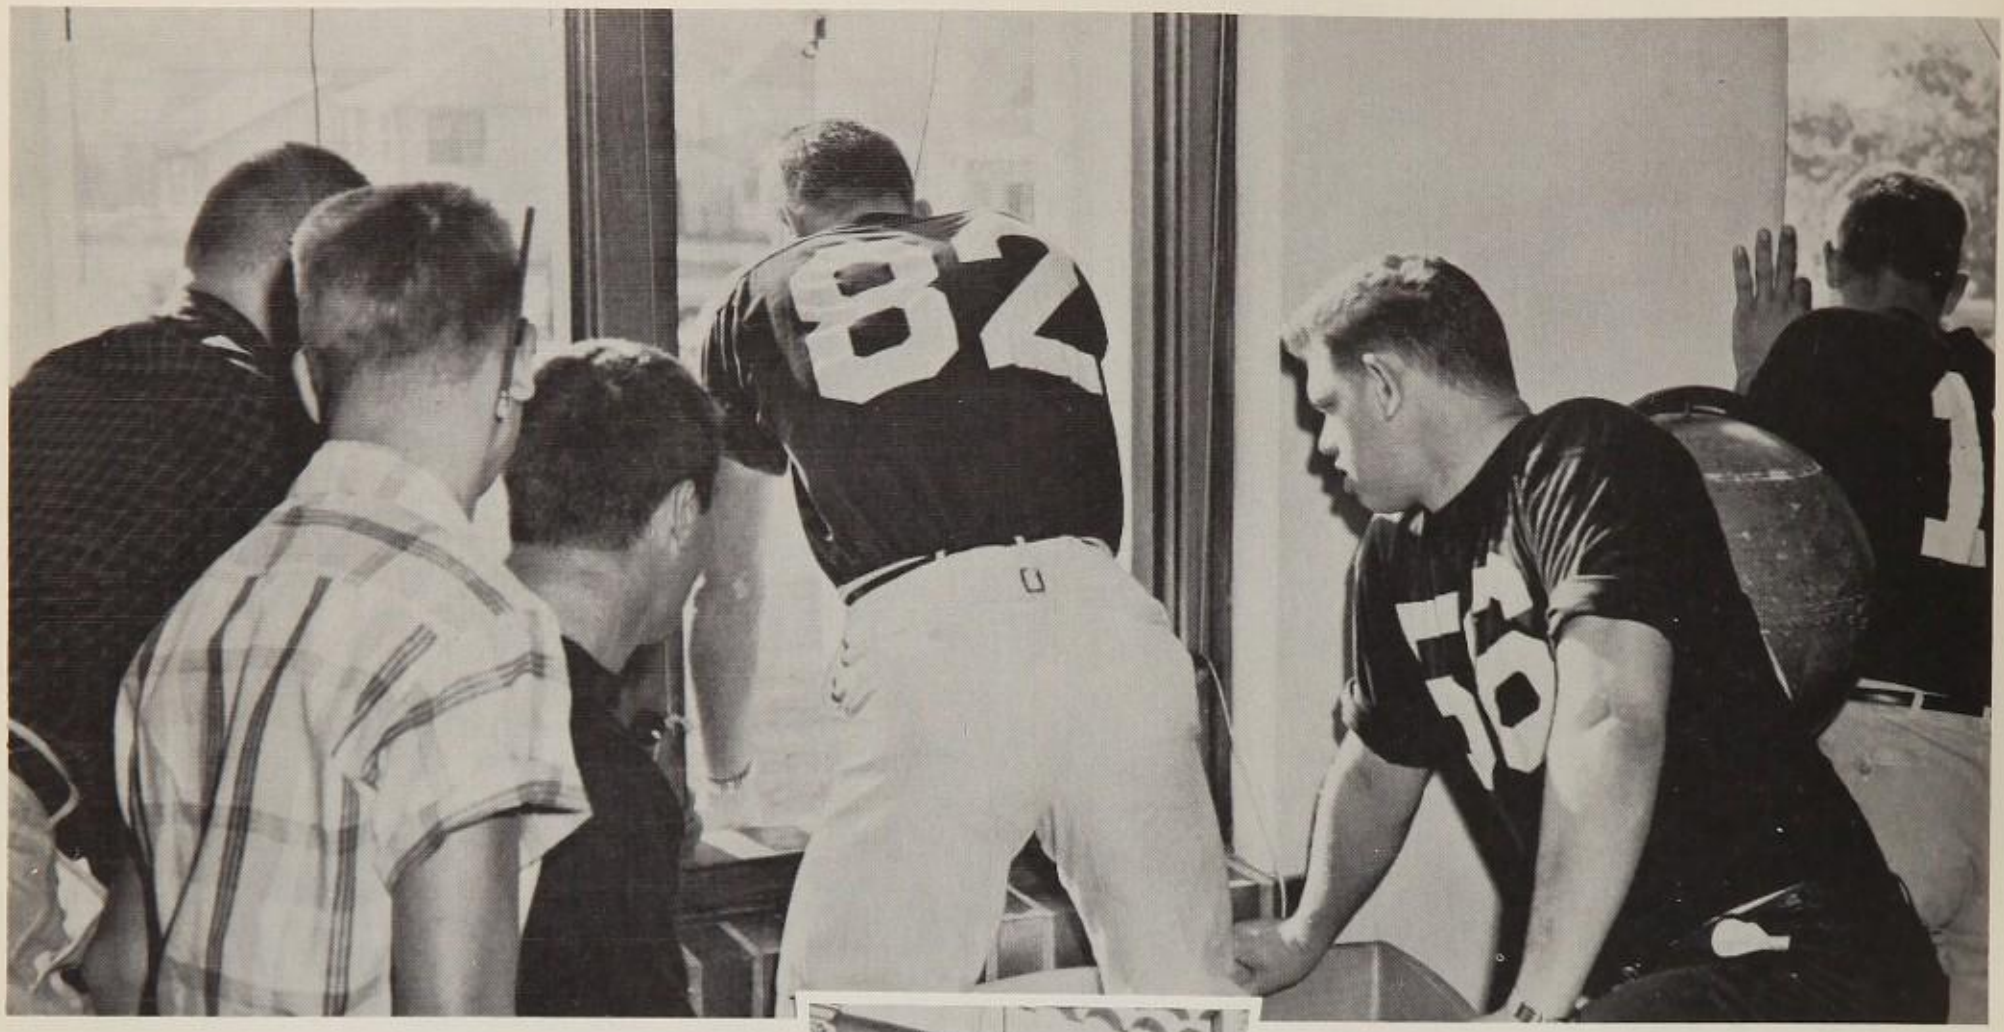
"When the years of life o'er take us, Still our dreams will never die,"

"I can't believe it," exclaimed Patsy Gerbens, 1957 CavOlLcade Queen. Patsy and the Court were honored at the Jacket-Port Neches game.

Winning tactics, explained by Coach Underwood, is the main activity at half-time. This scene took place during the Jacket-South Park fray.

Many Jacket fans turn out to see the fate of a certain Beaumont "purple."

"ALWAYS FULL OF SPIRIT"



Seniors Dick Cantrell, John Palmer, Mickey Walker, Dennis Dorman, and Ronnie Stanley look on as David Simmons gives the ole "Corpus Dummy" a bad time with a noose.

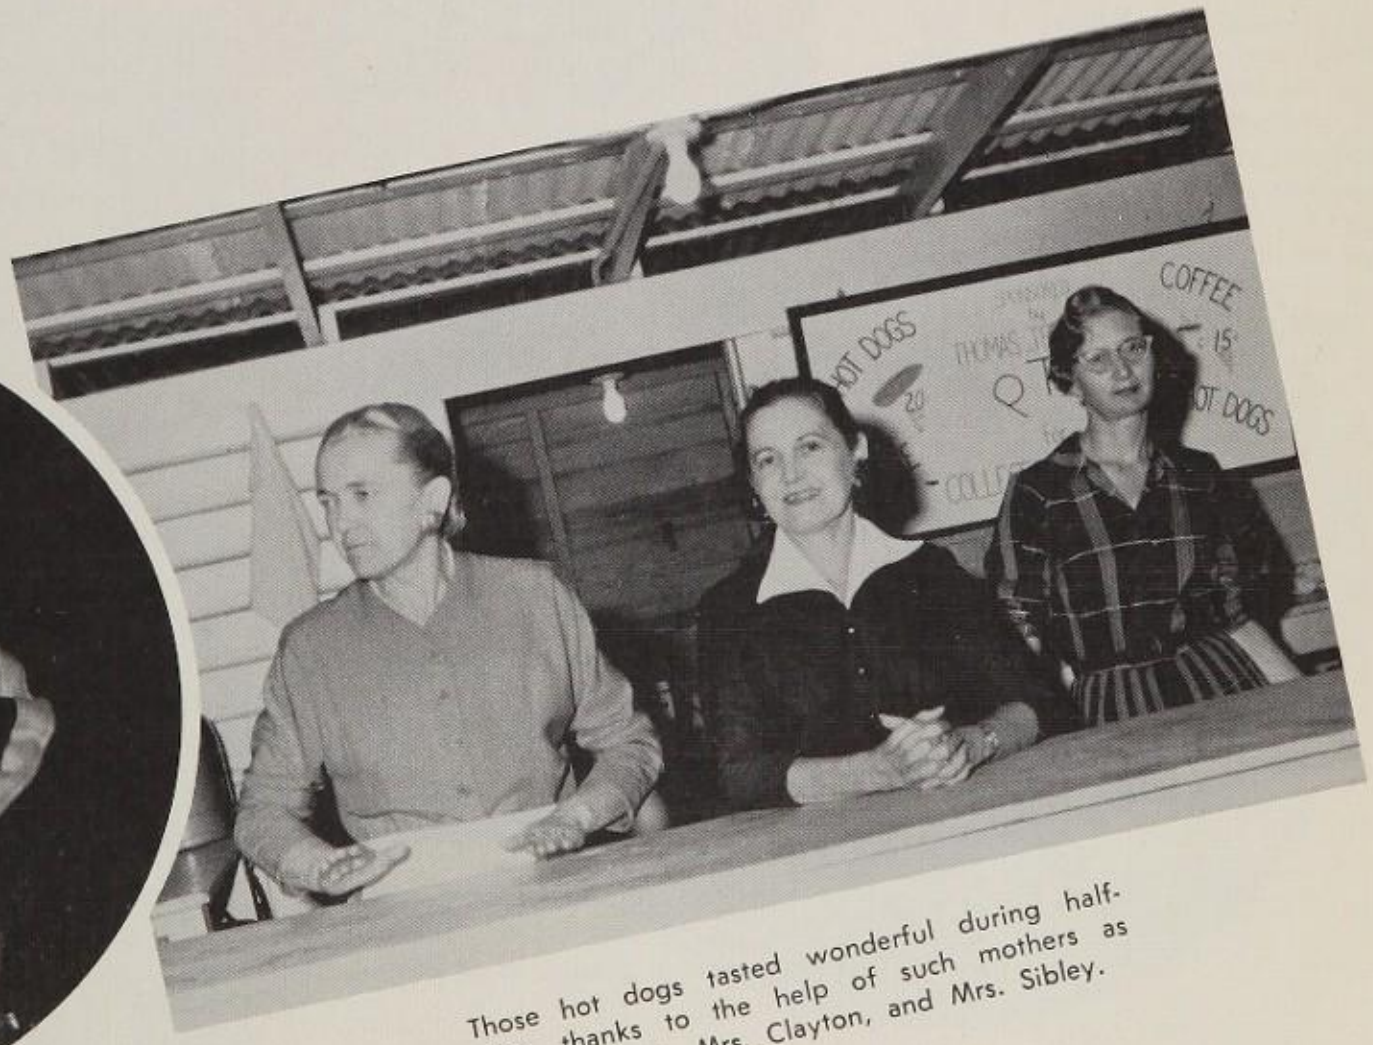
Yea, Jackets! TJ's annual shirttail parade is a real "bangup" job, as the Jacket fans and cheerleaders yell their hearts out.

FUN, FOOD, AND FOOTBALL

Hussar majorettes are shown performing one of their specialty numbers, a dancing-twirling routine to St. Louis Blues.

Pat Fisher, Delmar Fussell and Faye Hebert, members of the Good Sportsmanship League, present a gift to South Park High at the South Park-Jacket game.

Jerry Matthews brings along her pet skunk, Curdark, to help cheer the Jackets on to victory at the South Park game.



Those hot dogs tasted wonderful during halftime, thanks to the help of such mothers as Mrs. Fredeman, Mrs. Clayton, and Mrs. Sibley.

FOOTBALL SEASON AND HAPPY MEMORIES COMBINE

In spite of the happy smiles, seniors Melanie Coleman, Kay Vaughan and Kathy Scott, like other Hussars, are really going to miss the fun and happy experiences of the Corps and football season. This was the week TJ was hit by the flu. Hussars and Band could not perform at half-time, one of the unhappy memories. Hussars marching at a fast cadence of 360 steps per minute, and the Band performing intricate maneuvers, added color to the season.

Shirley Simpson, 1958 Yellow Jacket football sweetheart, sports a big smile as she examines one of the footballs that was used in this season's playoffs.

Do you recognize the boys in the picture? They're, for once, minus the football apparatus, the tri-captains of this year's football team. From left to right are: I. Schwing, Underwood, D. Simmons, B. Wilson, R. Stanley, M. Walker, C. Domingue.

WE'RE BEHIND YOU, JACKETS!

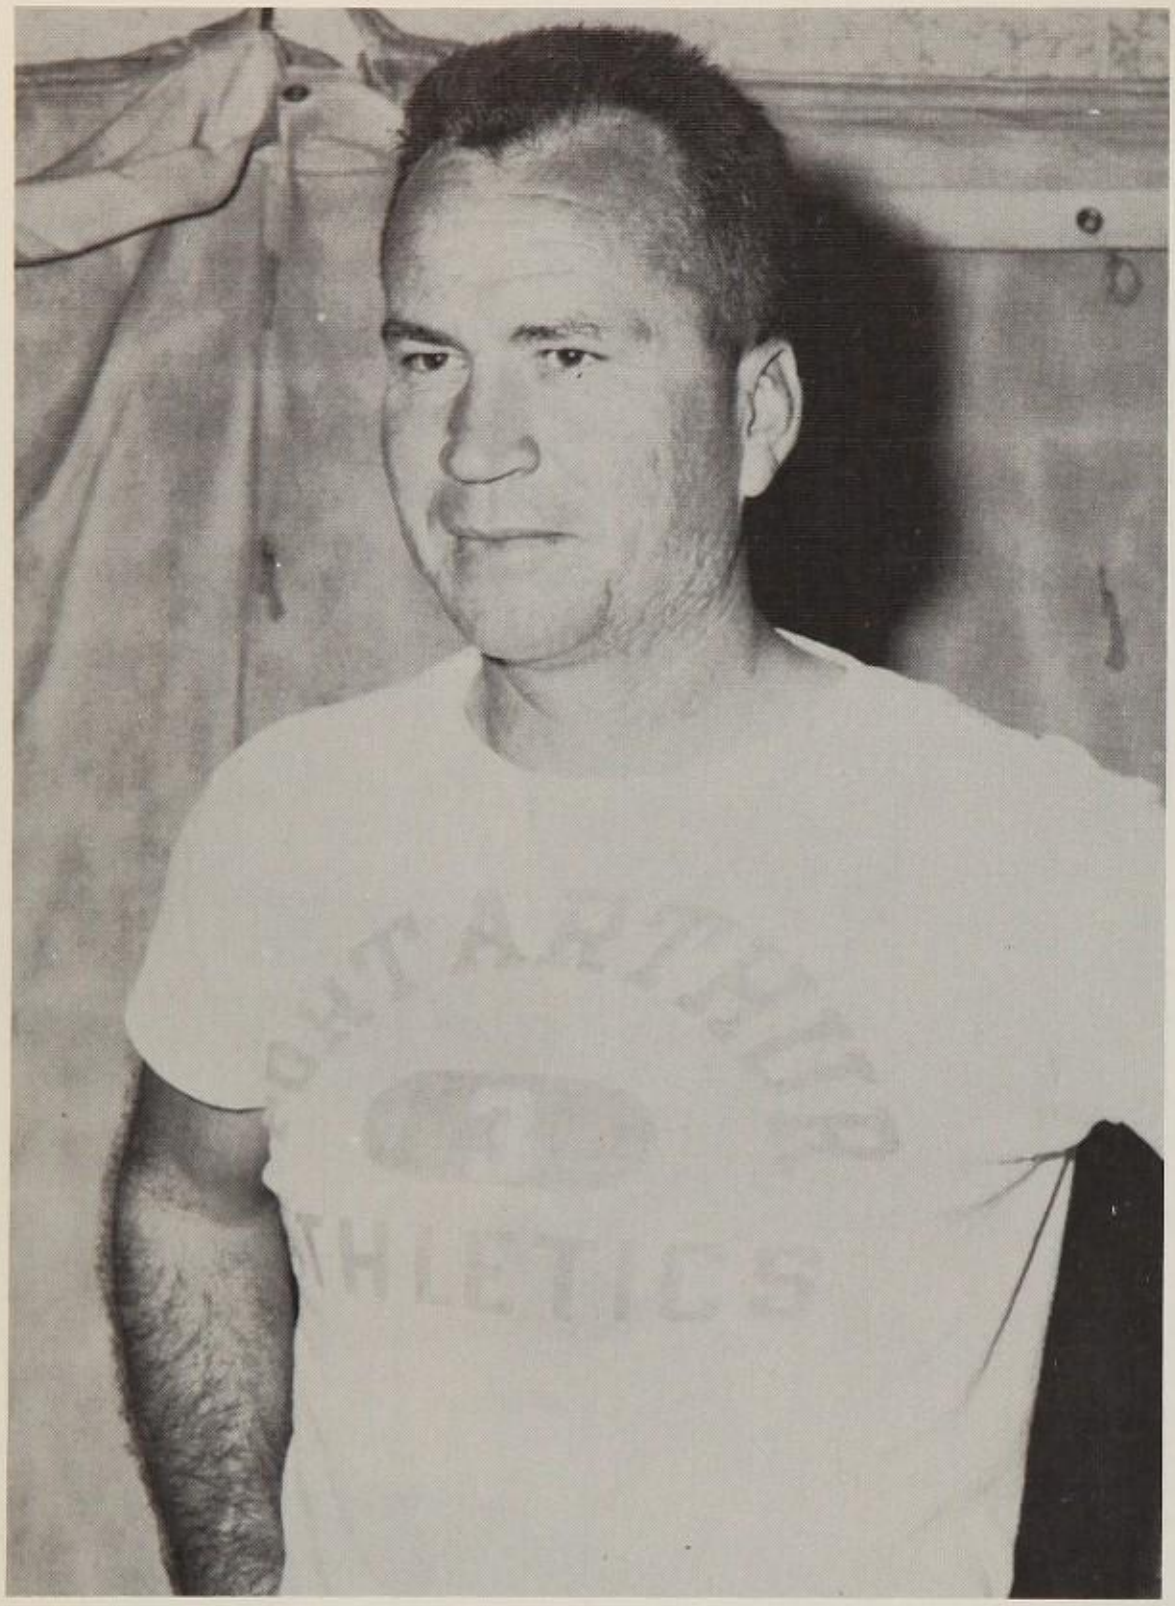
Many of TJ's fans might very very well go to the games just to see pretty Band majorettes.

Shirley Logan, Shirley Simpson, Barbara Meyers, Judy Hatfield, and Beth Majors.

Hussars strike up a happy note, adding variety and school spirit to the bonfire.

Not even the cold weather can dull the bright smiles of cheerleaders Dolly McBride, Gerald Jordan, and Jerry Matthews.

JACKETS BAG DISTRICT . . .



Coach Pete Pense started early with high hopes of winning a second state championship.

The Yellow Jacket Basketball Team, defending state champions in Class 4-A, started the 1957-58 campaign in high spirits—but minus four starters from the championship quintet. Coach Pete Pense had the task of keeping the Maroon and Gold at the top of the Class 4-A powers.

The Jackets compiled a record of 23 wins and 3 losses in pre-conference competition as they won the coveted Dallas Cotton Bowl High School Basketball Tournament and placed second in the Pasadena and Houston Tournaments. The Jackets were beaten in the latter two tournaments by Bellaire of Houston.

As this annual goes to press the Jackets are preparing for the Regional Tournaments.

Obstacles in the Jacket's march to a second state crown will be Milby of Houston, Pasadena, and mighty Bellaire of Houston, who twice derailed the Jackets.

STEVE OWENS
Manager

WAYNE SAUNDERS
Manager

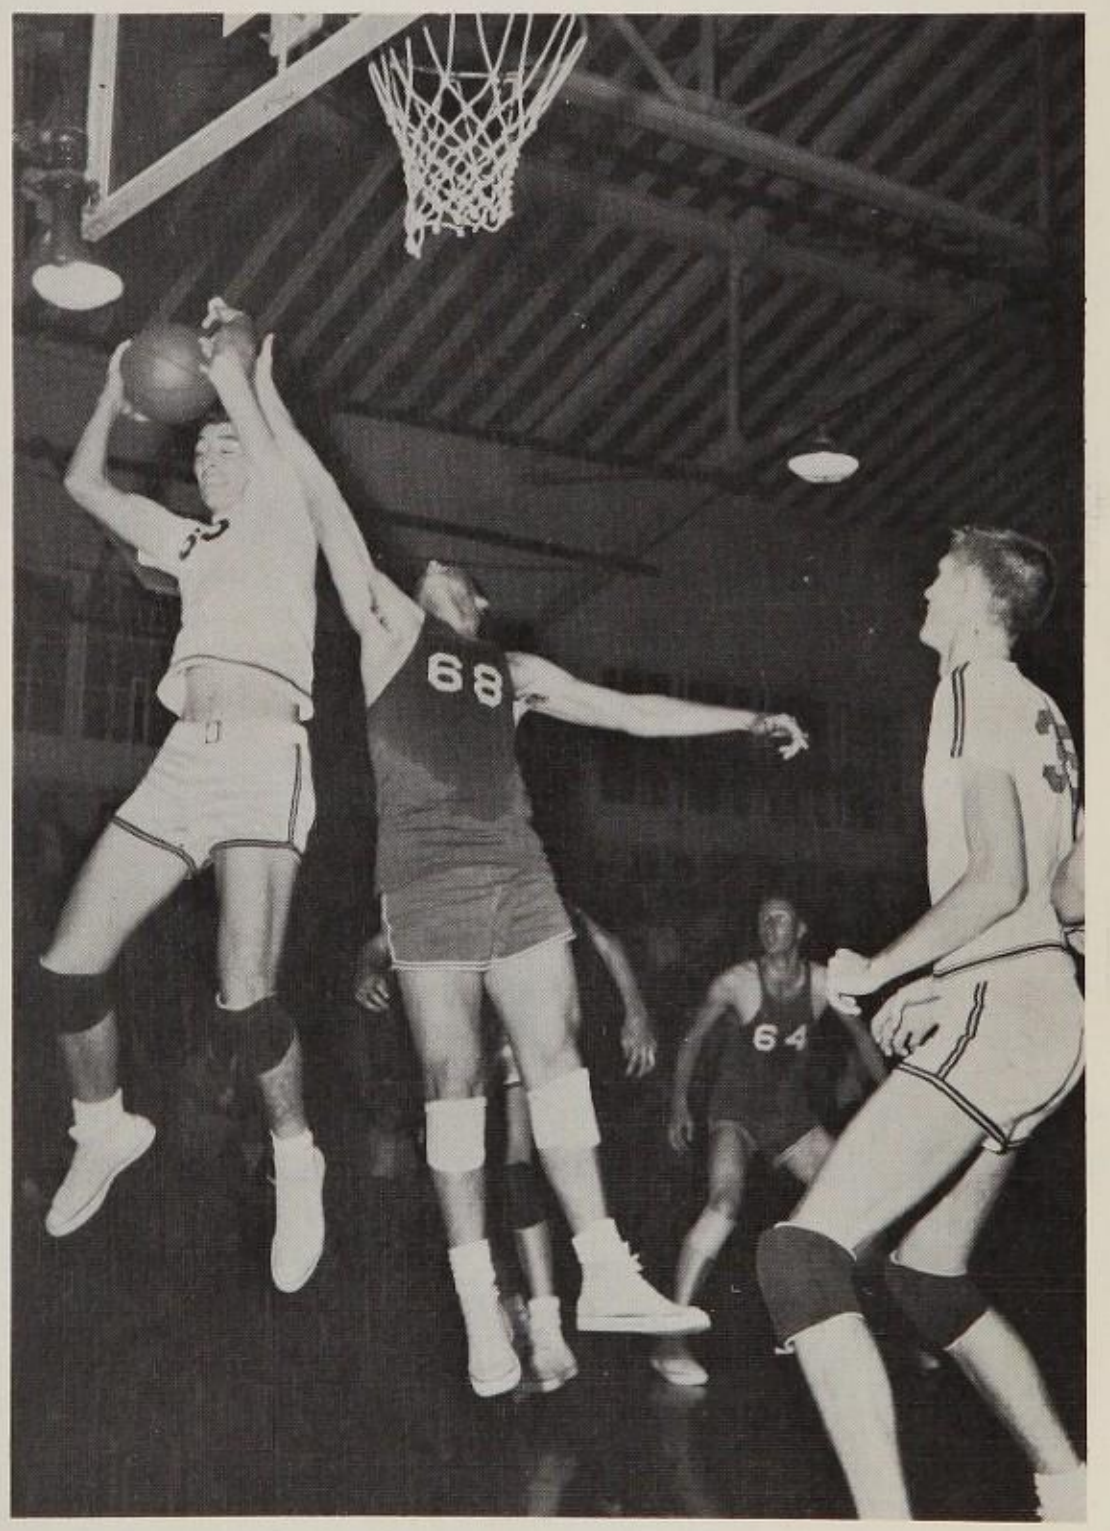
The Port Arthur Yellow Jackets continued their rivalry against Buna by beating them 49-39 in the first of the yearly 2-game series January 3.

The spirited first quarter showed Port Arthur holding a slim 15-14 lead. But with some fine defensive work the Jackets held Buna to two points in the second stanza, enabling Port Arthur to hold a 27-16 half-time lead.

In the third the Cougars battled back gamely, but the Jackets still managed to outscore them by 11-10.

Trailing by 10 points with one minute gone in the fourth period, Buna's last effort was in vain as the Maroon's fought shaky 45-39 win.

Playing his usual fine game was Port Arthur's Carroll Broussard, who led the Jackets with 17 points. Trailing Broussard was Brooks Porter with 11.



Carroll Broussard showed why he was All-State material as he comes down with a rebound against Buna.

JACKETS EDGE PURPLES 48-24

The Port Arthur Yellow Jackets opened district wars with a 48-24 victory over Beaumont's Royal Purples in the Jacket Field House.

Not until the last of the third quarter did Port Arthur start pulling ahead as Beaumont played a slowed down attack.

Port Arthur quickly set the pace, however, in the final stanza, as the Jackets started fast-breaking when the Purples started pressing. Picking up 19 points in the final period, Port Arthur made up for lost time as only 8 and 9 points were scored in the first two quarters, respectively.

Leading the Jacket attack was Carroll Broussard with 18 and Brooks Porter getting 12 with the help of 10 free throws.

Proving that the Jackets were tough on the boards is shown as Walt Sharp, a high jumping Jacket, pulls a ball out of the air.

The Yellow Jacket varsity demonstrates to the juniors in an assembly program, the principles of good basketball and sportsmanship. Here Walt Sharp lays up a shot during a warm-up maneuver.

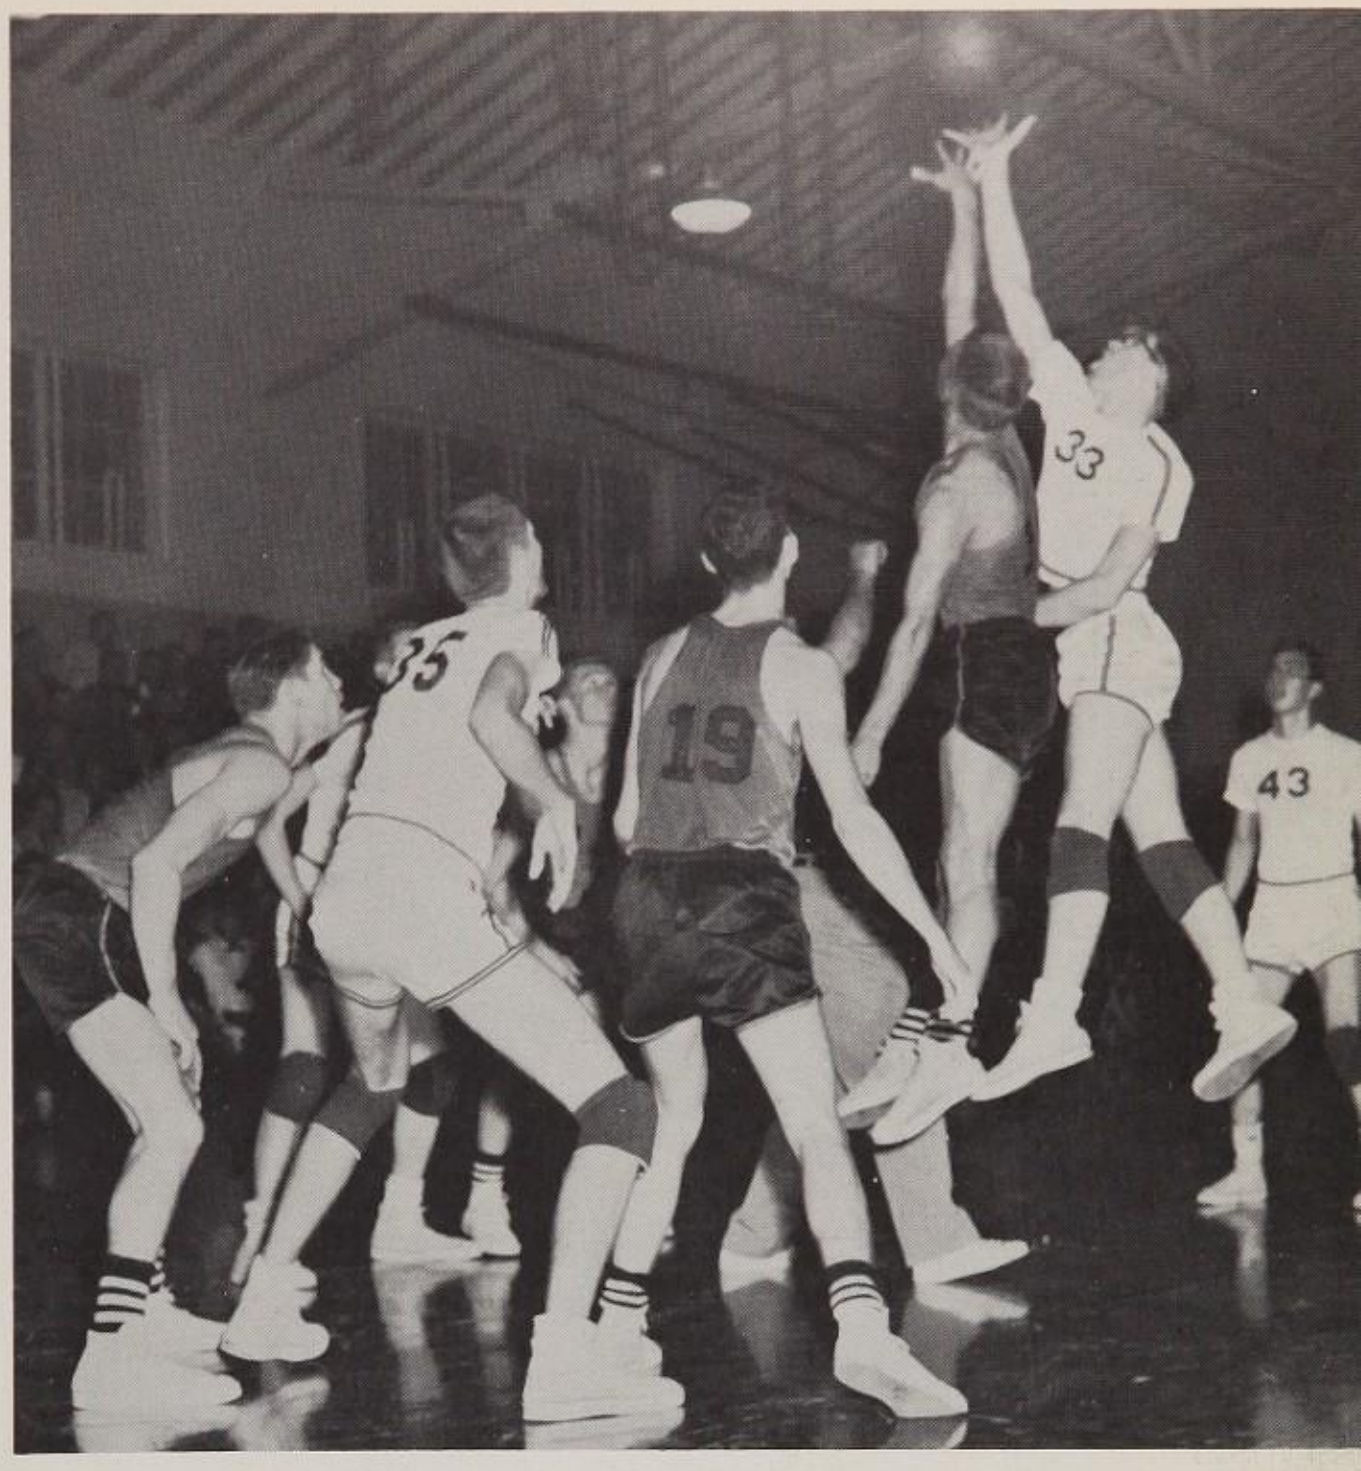
JACKETS TAME TIGERS 70-38

Coach Pete Pense's hardwoodmen made it two wins in two starts against District 11-AAAA competition as the Yellow Jackets sliced the Orange Tigers 70-38 before a crowd that packed every inch of the Field House.

The victory put the Jackets on top of the heap with Orange holding on with a 2-1 record.

Although the Tigers started with a spirited zone defense, the Maroons didn't have much trouble finding the range to the meshes.

Twenty-four and 16 points respectively were put through the nets by the Jacket tall men, Carroll Broussard and Brooks Porter, as Sonny McCartney found the range from the outside to add 14 more points to the scoreboard. Walt Sharp and Gilbert Castro kept the Tigers alert with fine ball handling.



Donald Campbell seems to have the upper hand as he goes up high on a jump ball.

Giving their last efforts in hopes for another successful Maroon and Gold season are seniors Gilbert Castro, Shelton Comeaux, Brooks Porter, Carroll Broussard, Donald Campbell, and Walt Sharp.

REVIEW OF

Highlighting the 1957-58 season was a talk by Coach Pense in the Field House during assembly.

The coach explained rules and regulations which govern the game of basketball. With the aid of the varsity squad, Coach Pense pointed out different infractions which may come up during a game and how they apply.

Other aspects of the game demonstrated by the Jackets were the various offenses used by the Jackets in play against other teams' defenses.

Mentioned in the program was the importance of sportsmanlike conduct which applies not only to players, but to the spectators as well.

The Jackets concluded the program with pre-game warmup drills.

As playoff time drew near Coach Pense reviewed last year's trophy with thoughts toward a second state title. Looking on are S. McCartney, W. Sharp, C. Broussard, S. Comeaux.

"Aw—" is all to be said by Brooks Porter and Walt Sharp as they watch teammate Shelton Comeaux retrieve a rebound.

Easy does it, Walt.

Sticky tongues,
Dry lungs,
Yeoow!
Who's winning anyhow?

JACKETS TAKE REGIONAL

It takes work like this . . .

PORT ARTHUR 63—PASADENA 47

Riding the 26-point production of All-Stater Carroll Broussard and the 15-point production of Brooks Porter, the Port Arthur Yellow Jackets stopped Pasadena's Eagles 63-47 in Rice Gym to begin state playoffs.

Pasadena, a two-time victim of Port Arthur in early season, fought desperately as the Jackets built a quick lead authorized by the shooting of Broussard, aided by three outside shots by Shelton Comeaux when the Pasadena defense slacked on the post.

Leading 28-19 at the half, Port Arthur continued the assault in the final two periods.

Comeaux and Walt Sharp ended with 9 and 7 points respectively as scrappy Gilbert Castro did a lion's share of the ball handling to spur the Jackets on.

With this victory, Coach Pete Pense, the man with the clipboard, returned his hoopsters to the Shamrock-Hilton to rest up for the crucial game against mighty Bellaire.

PORT ARTHUR 54—BELLAIRE 49

The Yellow Jackets were Austin bound after they copped the regional championship from Bellaire Cardinals 54-49 in a thrilling victory.

The first half saw the Jackets and Cardinals fight it out nearly neck and neck, with the Jackets holding a 26-25 halftime lead.

In the third quarter the Jackets applied the pressure and shot ahead by 10 points at one time.

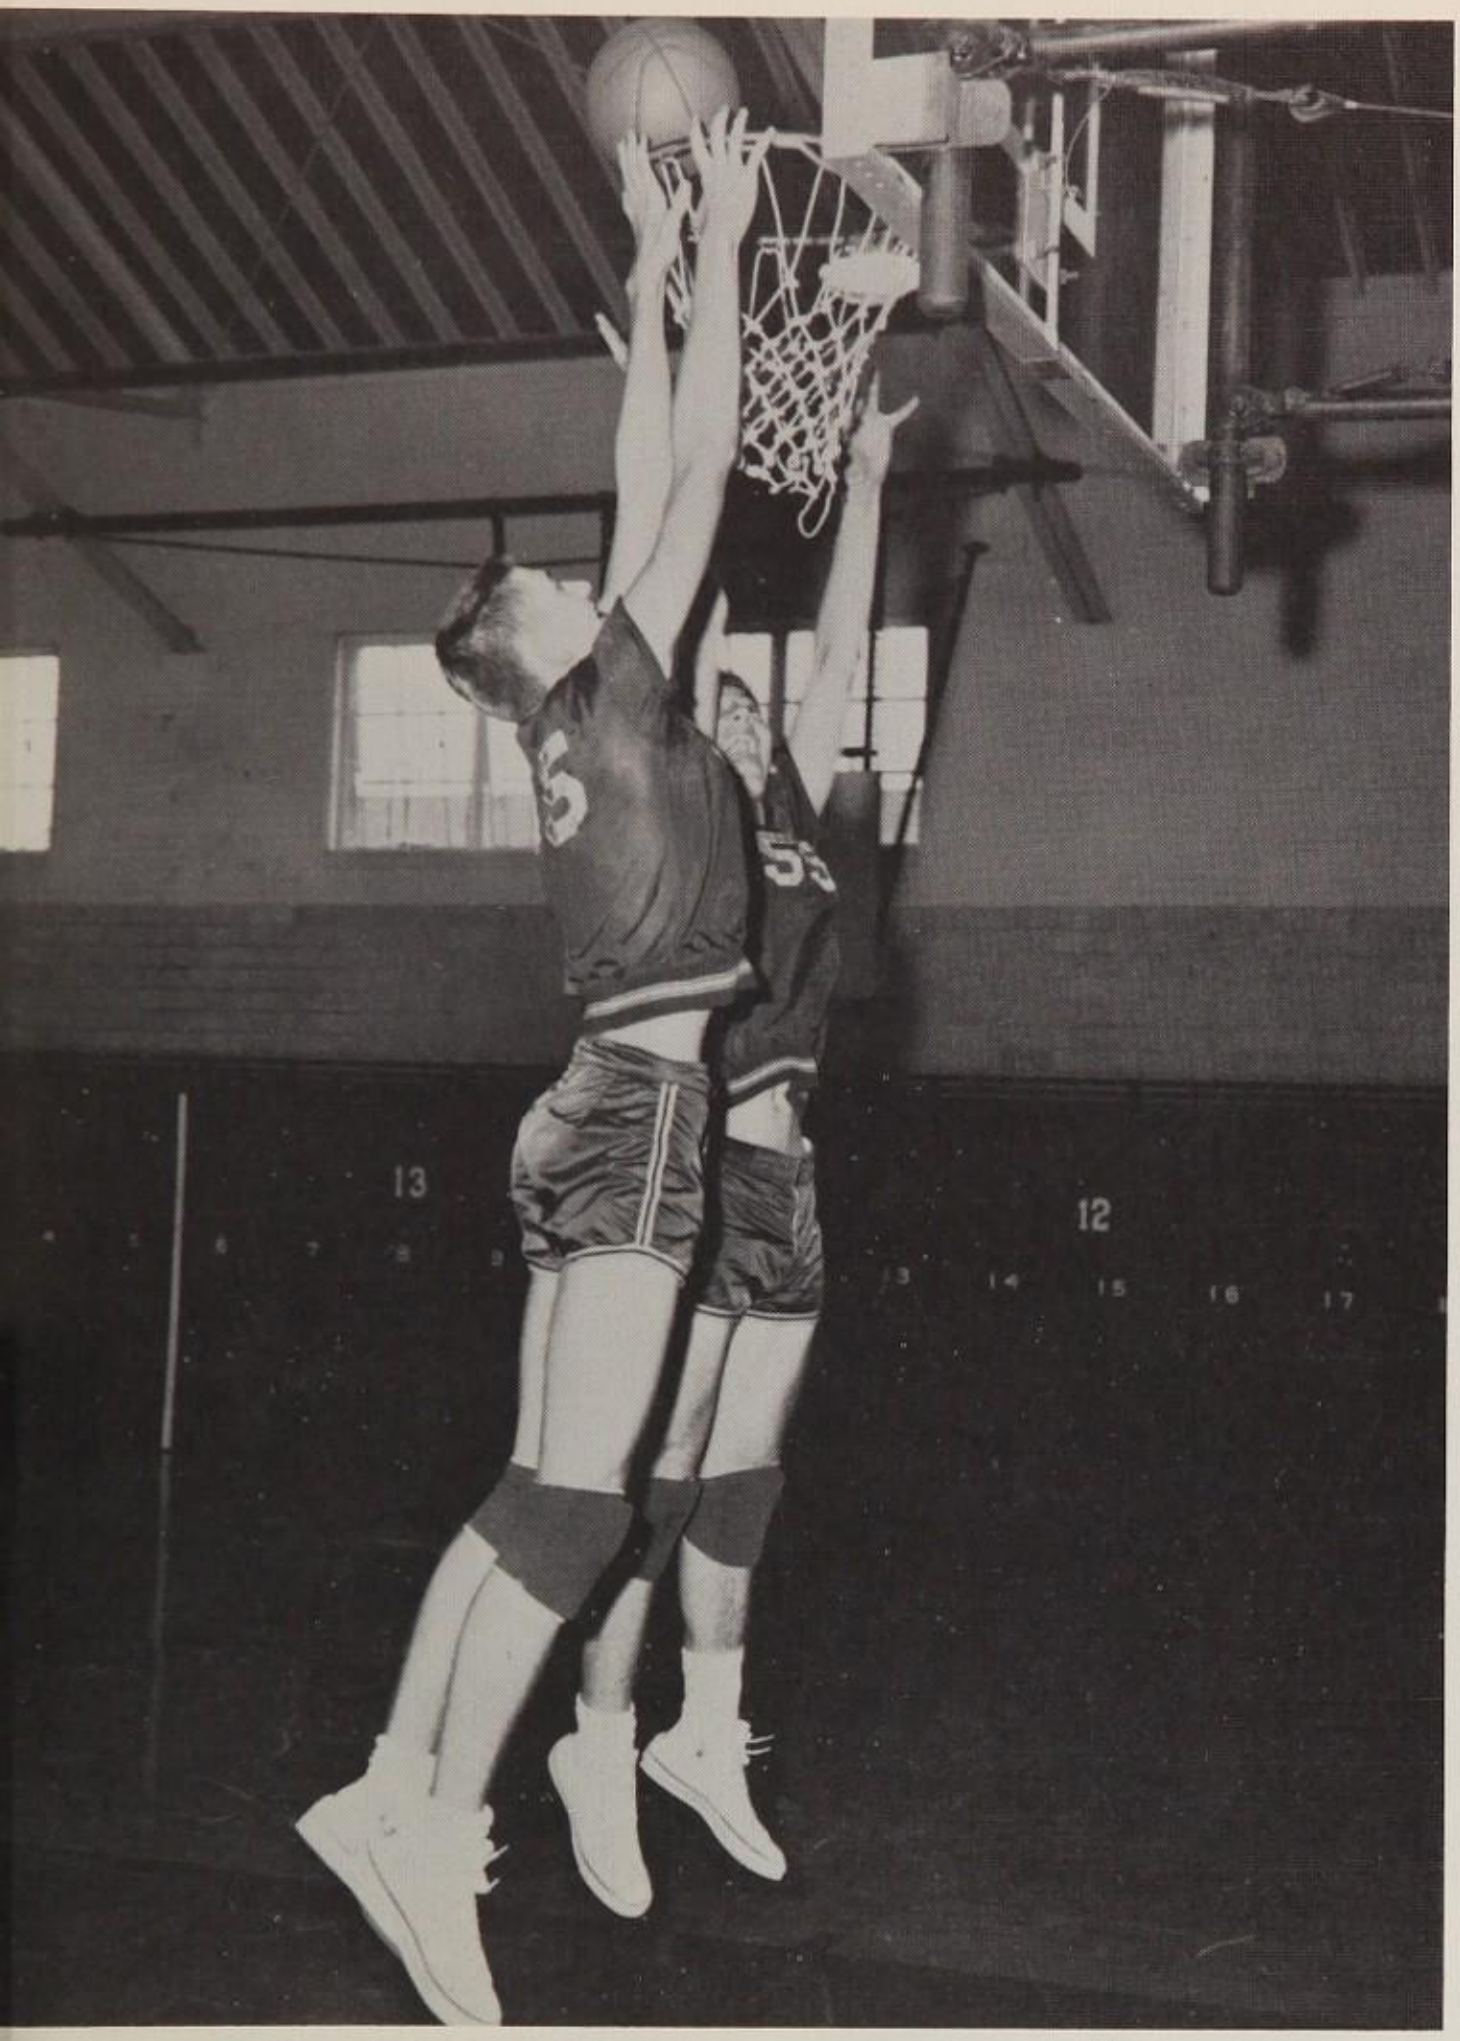
Brooks Porter and Carroll Broussard had four fouls apiece for a greater part of the fourth quarter. Tom Pennick, who was on the sidelines with four fouls rejoined his mates and the Cardinals were knocking on the Jacket door.

The Cardinals, in an effort to get the ball, fouled the Jackets in the closing seconds to drop 5 points behind their Port Arthur opponents. Although Jim Hammond had 26 points for the Cardinals, 20, 16, and 15 points respectively were made by All-State Carroll Broussard, Walt Sharp, and Brooks Porter to overshadow the Cardinals.

The MIGHTY MAROONS used no substitutes as Carroll Broussard and Brooks Porter tended the goals with floor general Gilbert Castro, Walt Sharp and Shelton Comeaux taking care of the ball outside.

To win REGIONAL.

RISK TITLE MARCH 7-8



Port Arthur fans made a grand showing as they cheered for the Jackets at a giant-sized pep rally before the team left for state play-offs Thursday, March 6, 1958. First opponents for the AAAA Champs were the Austin Maroons.

Honors galore followed the success of the Yellow Jacket Cagers. Four boys were named to the All-District team by Port Arthur News sportswriters — Brooks Porter, Carroll Broussard, Walt Sharp, and Gilbert Castro. Regional honors went to Brooks and Carroll, with their choice by sportswriters unanimous following the victory over Bellaire.

Carroll was named to the All-State Team during the week preceding the finals in Austin.

YEA, JACKETS!!!

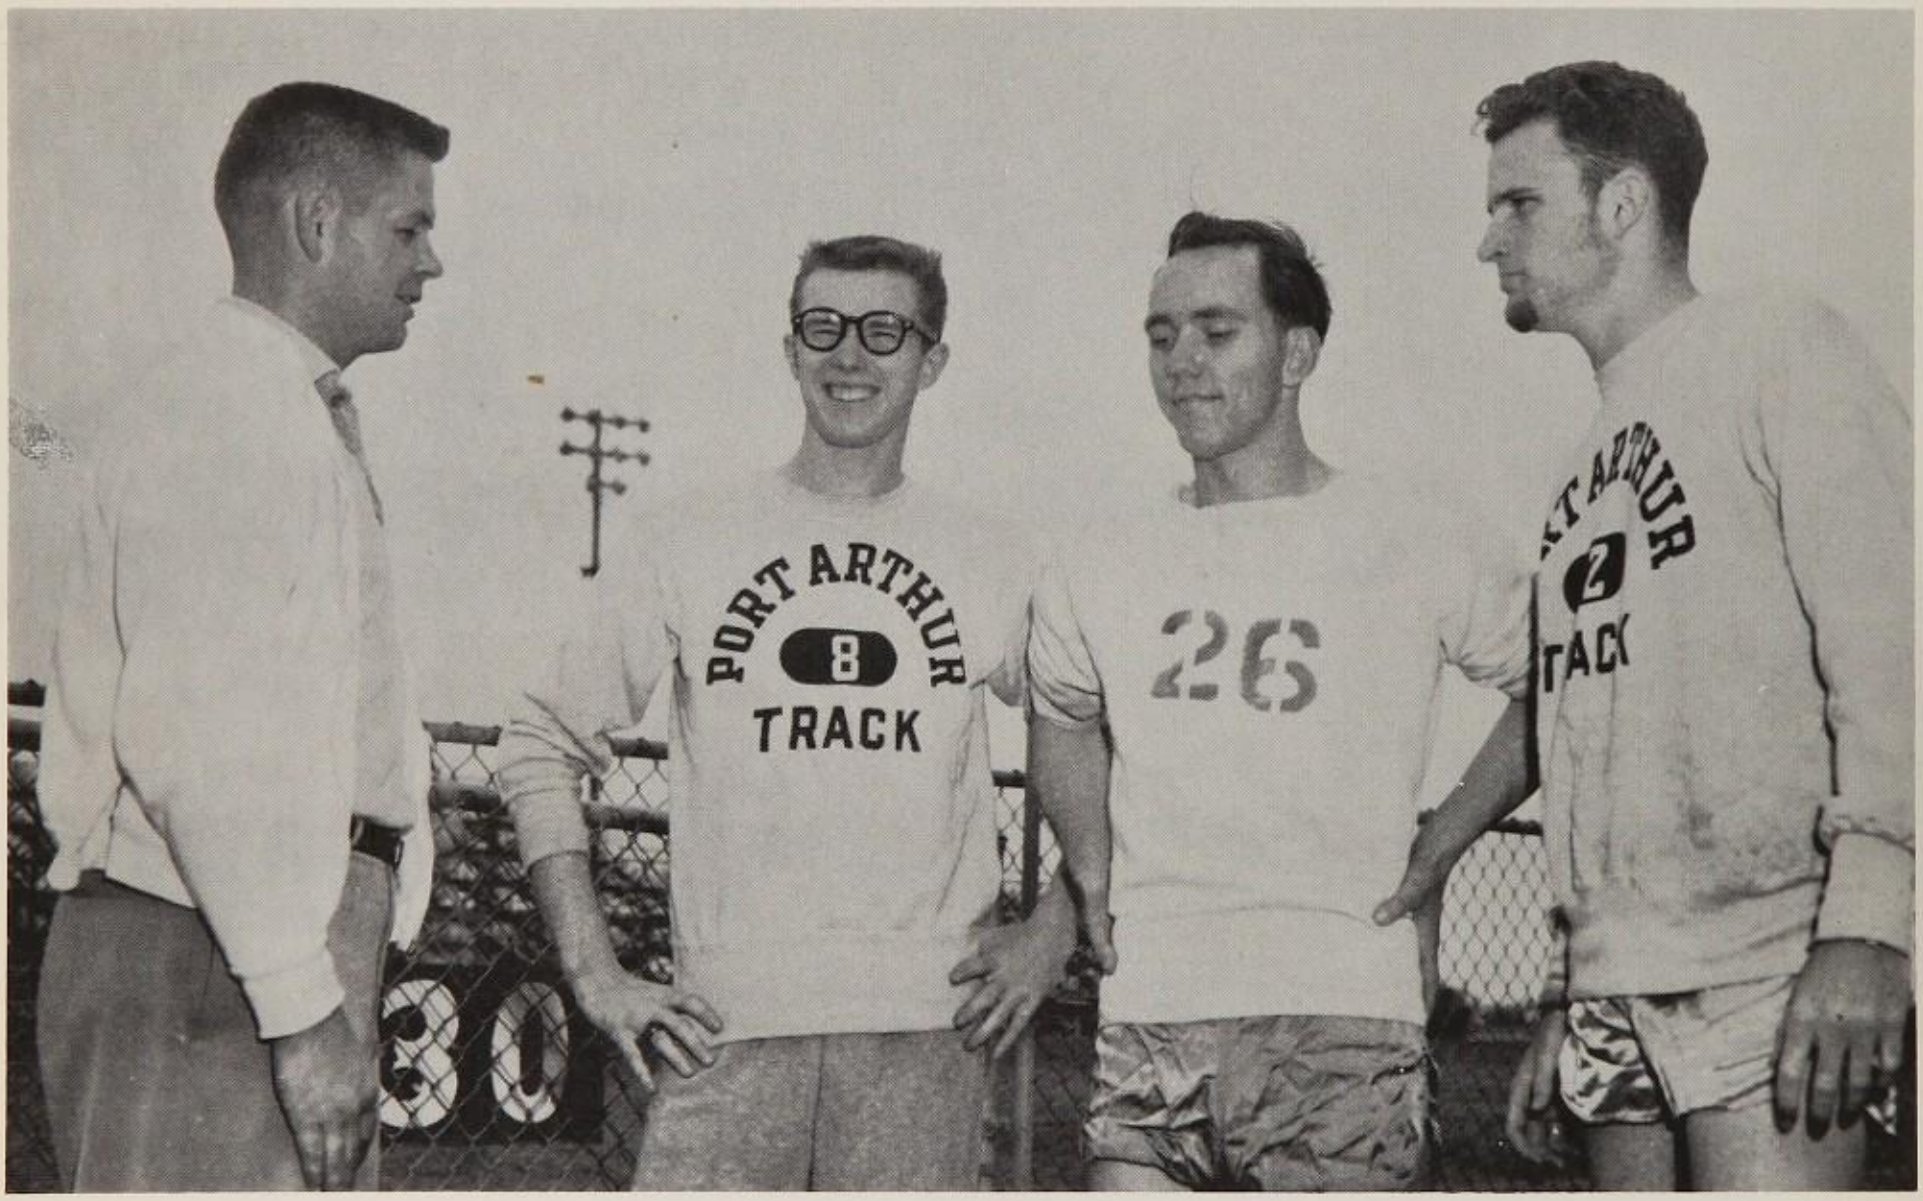
SHOOT LIKE THIS IN AUSTIN!!!

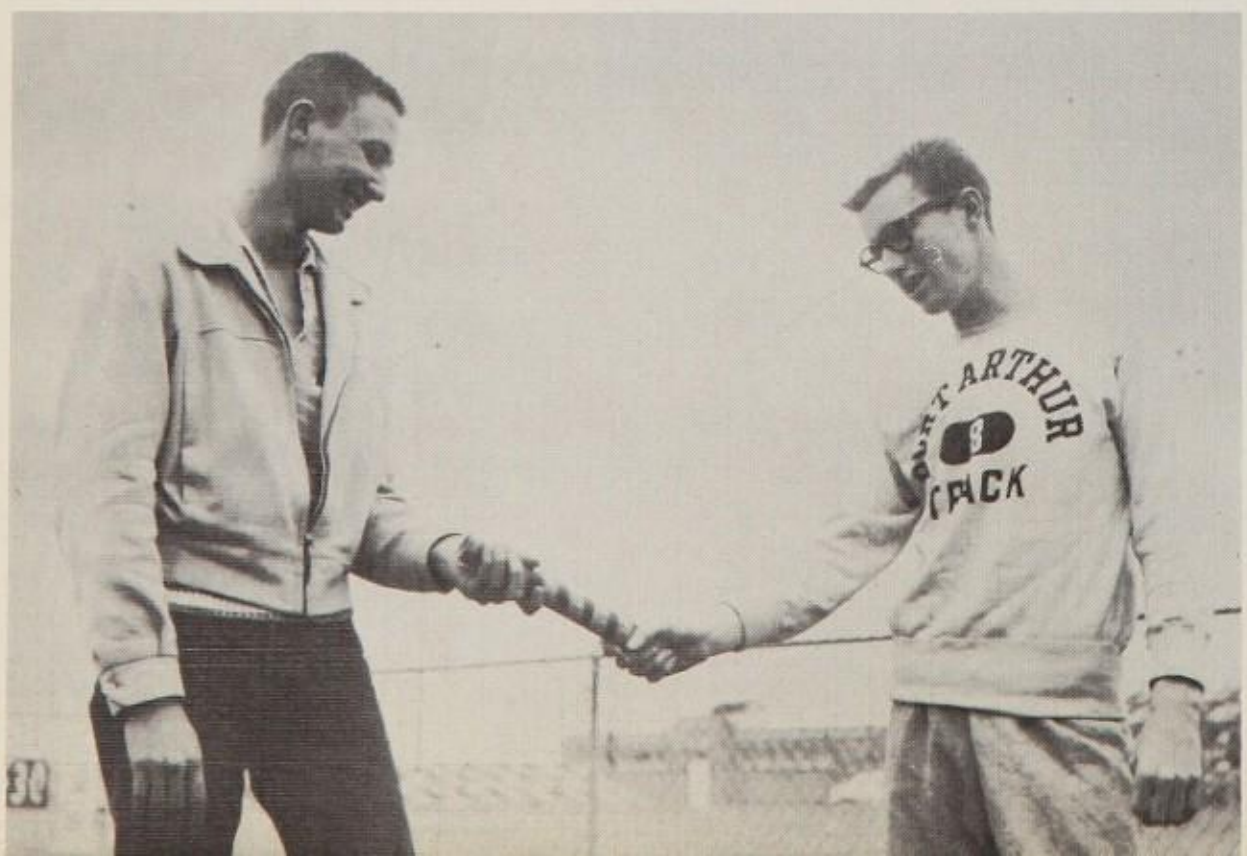
AROUND THE CINDER PATH

One look at these pages and a person could guess without knowing, that the Port Arthur Yellow Jacket Track Team is loaded wtih strong, capable men.

The rain has been a big problem through the season and has held the track team to limited workouts before the season started.

The team with Coach Francis Hill at the helm has Bill Britt, Billy Barrett, Raymond Strother, Jimmy Morgan, Glen Schadke, Walter Miller, as returning lettermen, plus seniors Bill McMillan, Gary Dorsey, Melvin Borel, Alvin Etheridge, and Juniors James Hall, Garland Wright, Allen Temple, Lee Patela, Marvin Neel.

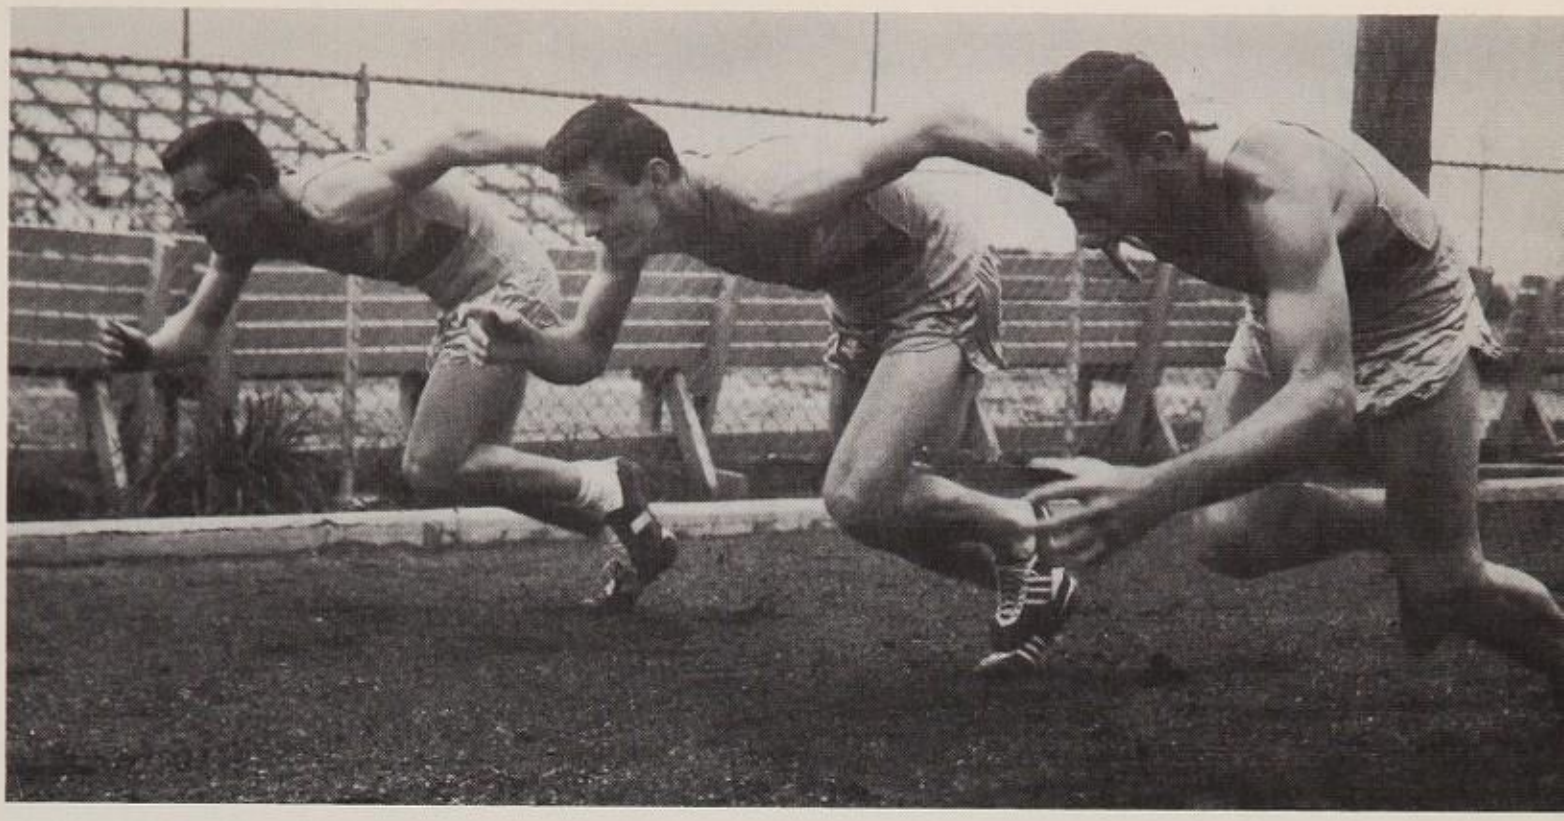




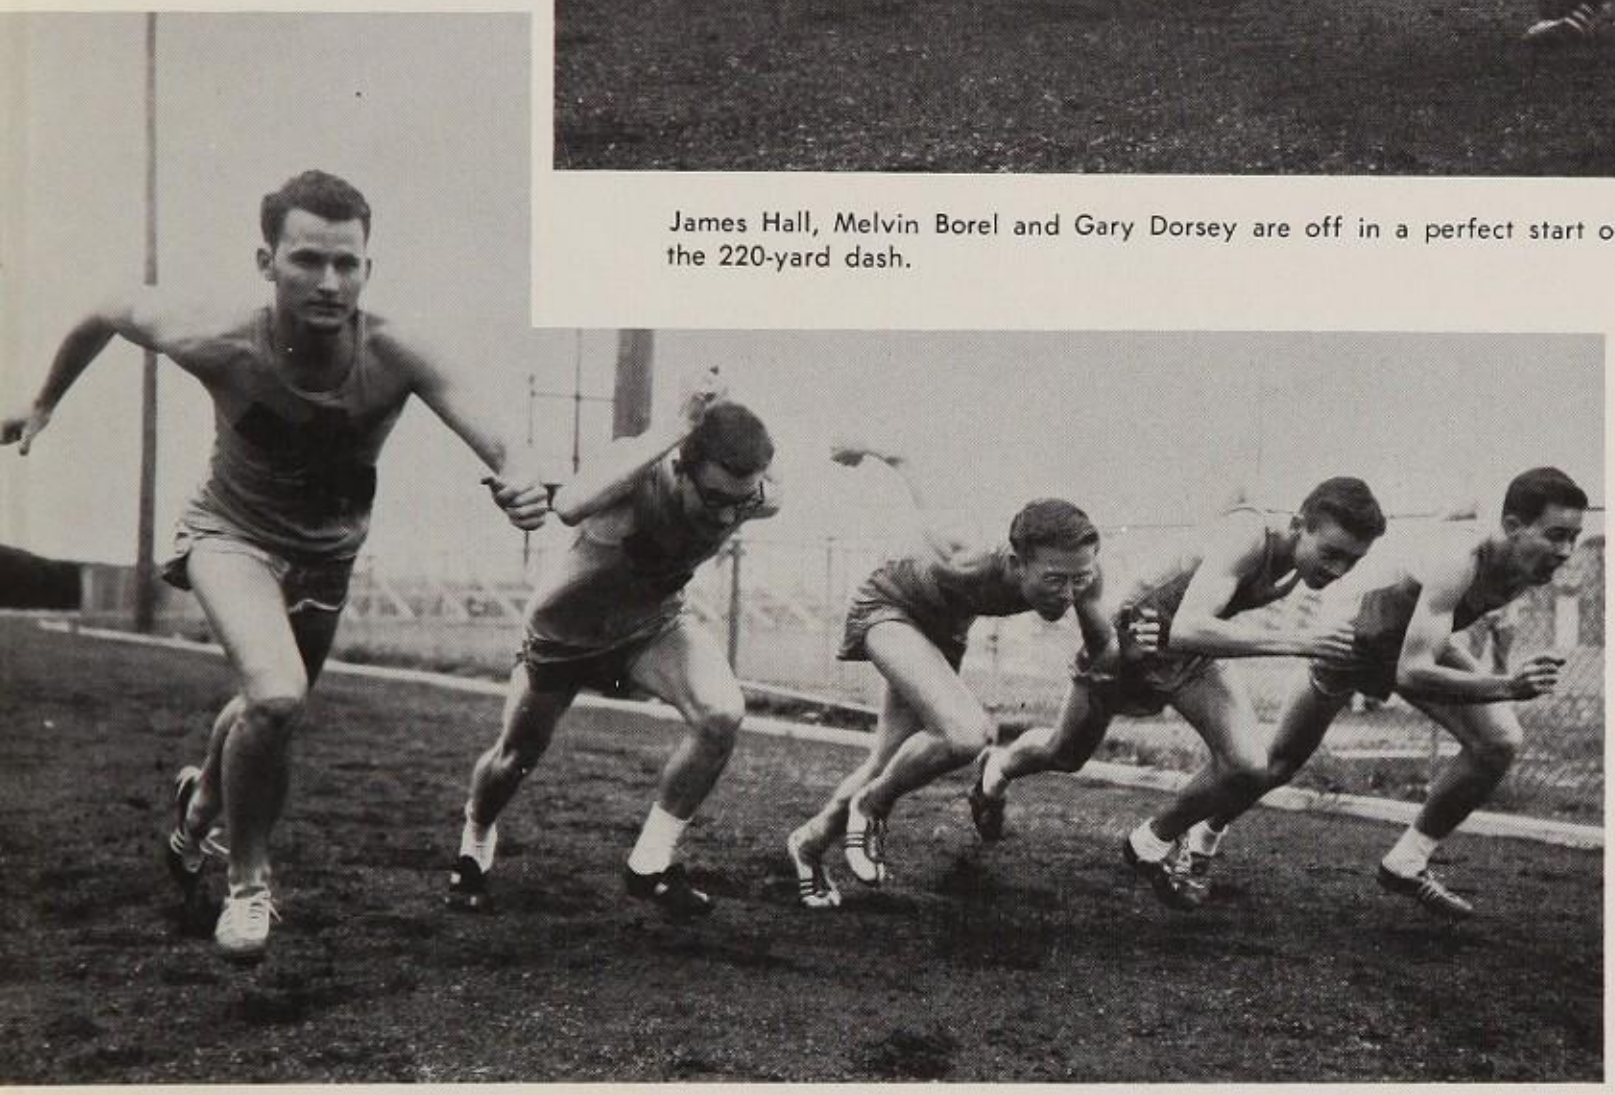
Coach Hill and tri-captains Billy Barrett, Raymond Strother, and Bill Britt talk over prospects for the coming season. Rain hampered the team throughout the regular season.

Relay workouts were hard and long. Manager Billy Litchfield gives Billy Barrett the baton as the relay teams get ready for another strenuous workout.

T.J.'S SPEEDSTERS



James Hall, Melvin Borel and Gary Dorsey are off in a perfect start of the 100-yard dash. They also run the 220-yard dash.

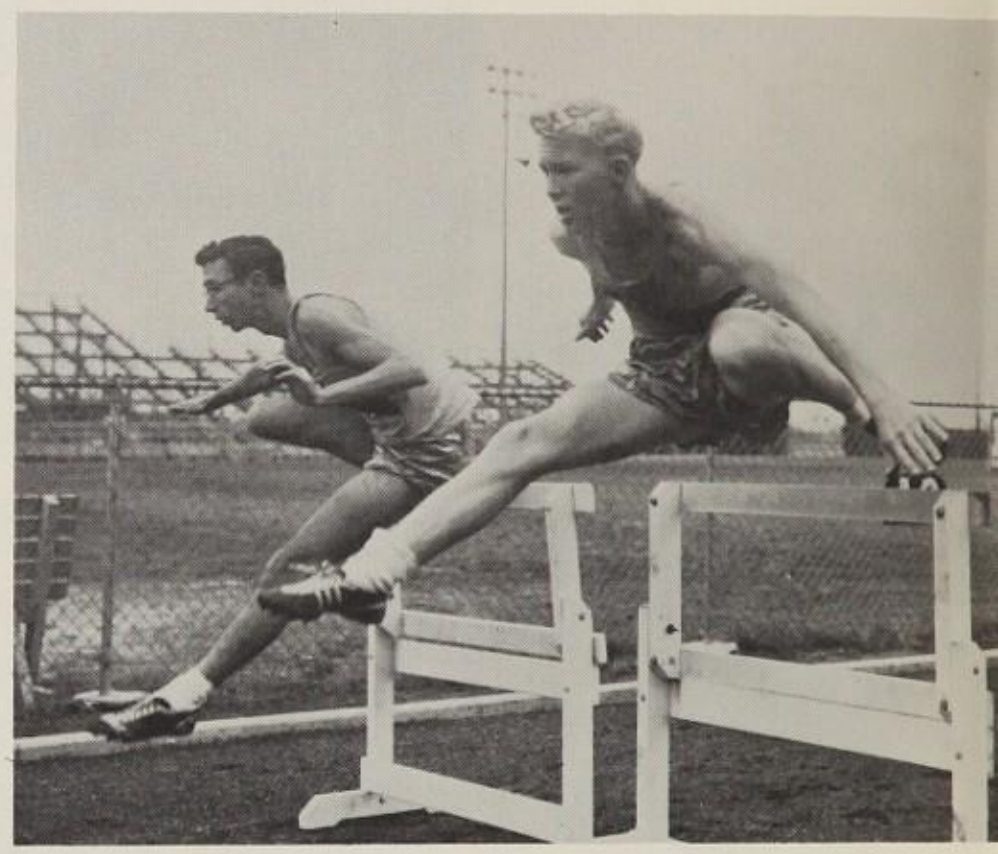


440-yard dash men take off for another race with hopes set to break the district 11-AAAA record of 51.0 flat. Barreling off are Bill Britt, Billy Barrett, Billy LaQuey, Gerald Blankenship and Buddy Looney.

Loosening up for the relays are sprinters Walter Miller, James Hall, Melvin Borel, Bill Britt and Billy Barrett. These athletes were called on often to run the many relays.

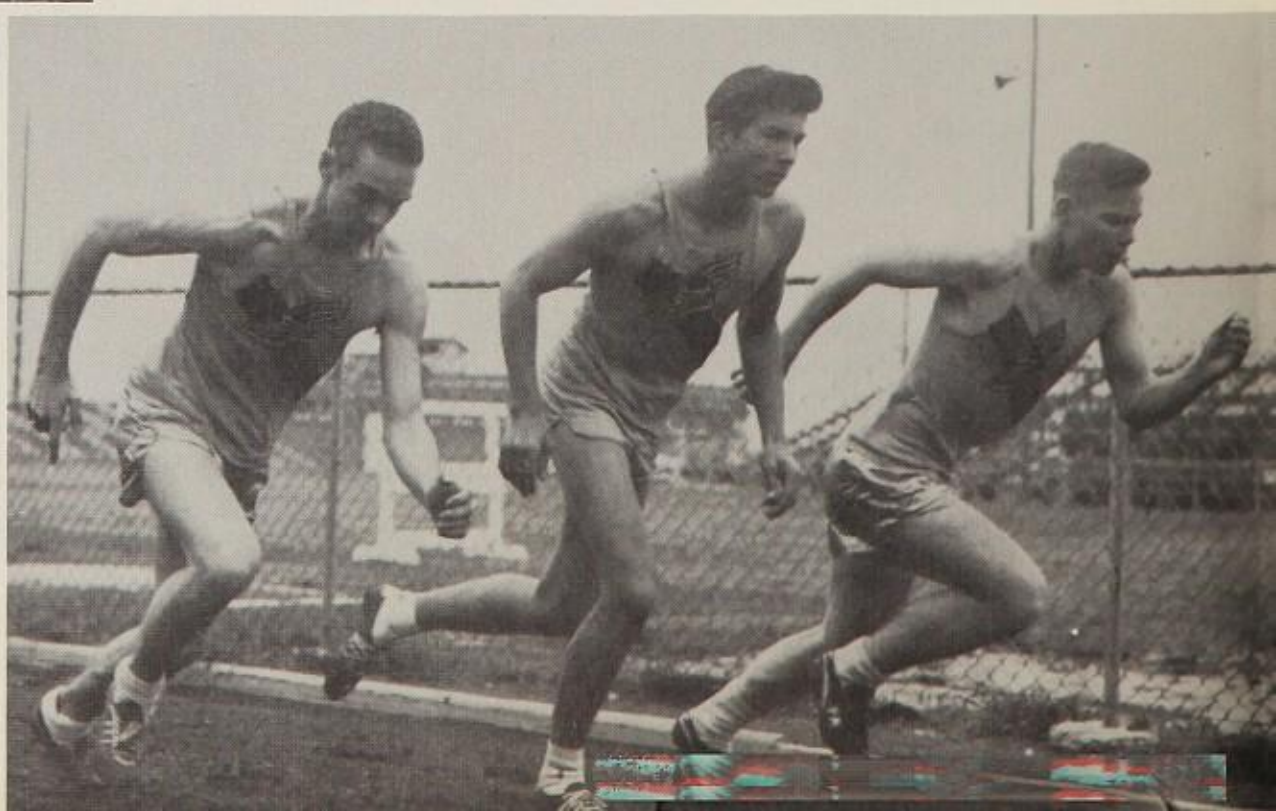
AND THEY'RE OFF

Caught with their best foot forward are milers Lee Patela, Glen Schadke, and Raymond Strother. These three runners were counted on heavily in the big distance hauls made in cinder path throughout the state.



Garland Wright and Walter Miller show their skill in clearing the high hurdles in good rhythm.

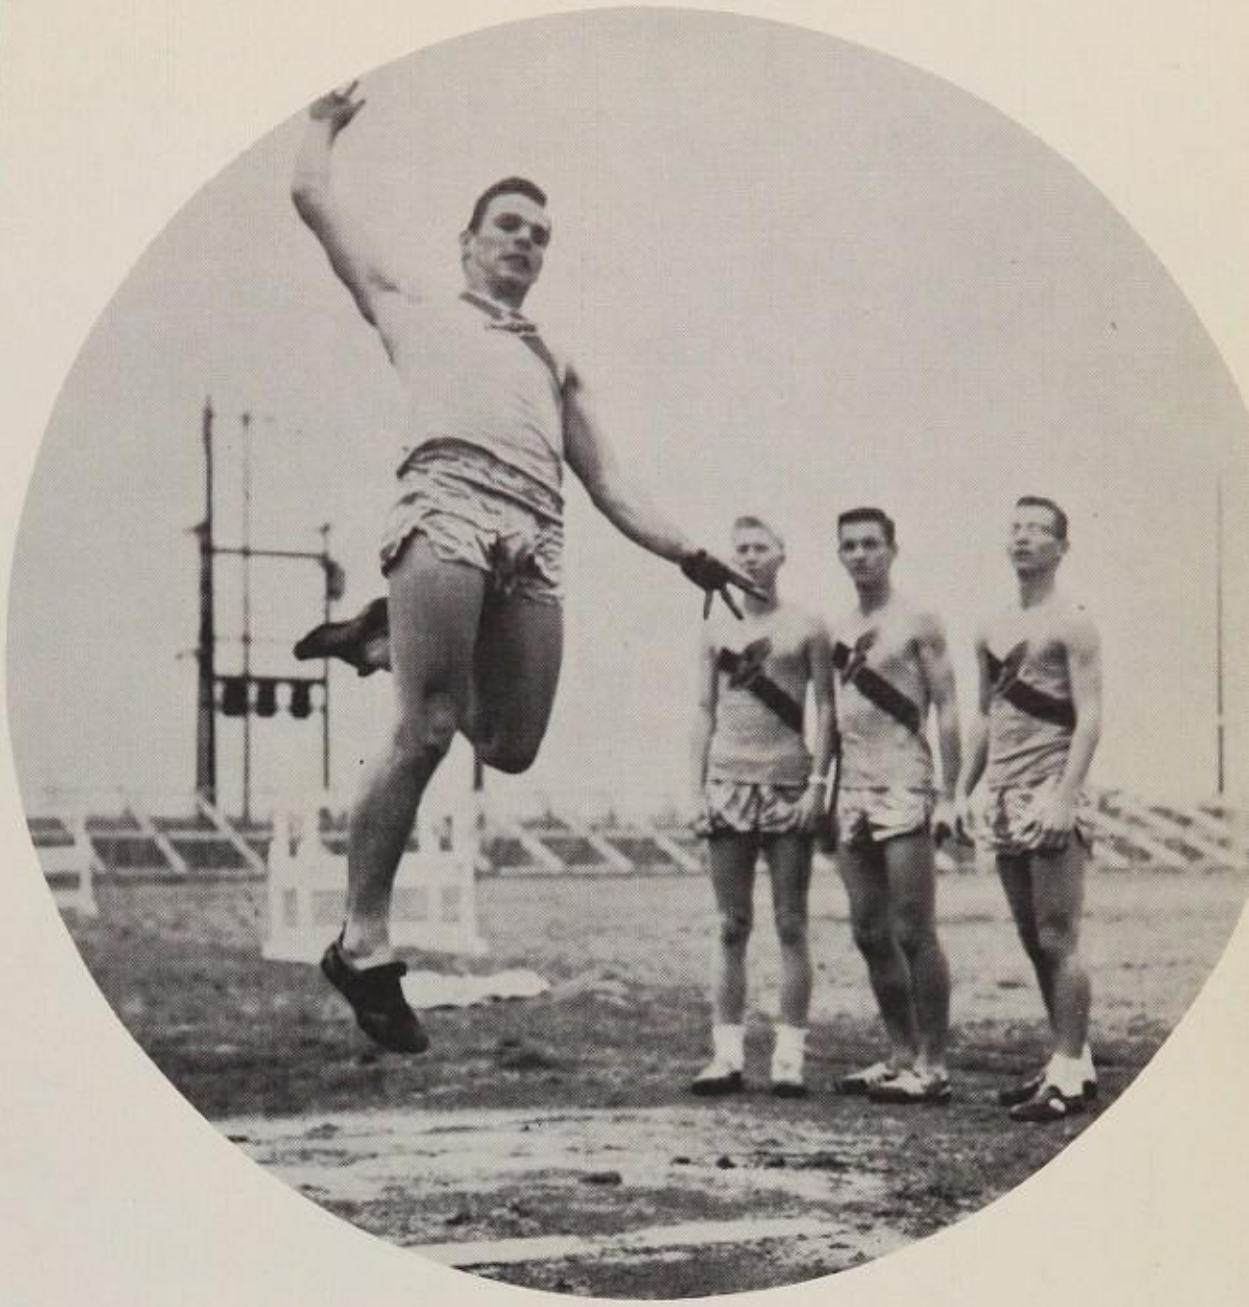
Pushing off for a long distance haul are distance runners Delbert Terrier and Robert Pryor.



The half mile is as rugged a race as can be seen by the expressions on the faces of these half-milers. Finishing the grueling race are Alvin Etheredge, Joe Warlick and Marvin Noel.

UP AND OVER

Vaulting, Bill McMillan displays good form and clears the bar with plenty of room to spare. Onlooker is Othell Hamilton.



Gary Dorsey aims for the 20-foot marker. Other broad jumpers in the picture are Garland Wright, Melvin Borel and James Hall.

LETTER GIRL ACTIVITIES

Mrs. Drummond, sponsor, and Linda Ulbrich, president, look over the food articles they collected for a needy family for a Christmas present.

Letter Girl Activities for the year of 1957-58 included many exciting and useful projects. Fun night, which entertained each Letter Girl and one friend who belonged to the G.R.A., really started the school year off with a bang. Other projects sponsored by the Letter Girls were the decoration and filling of a food basket for a needy family and the election of "Best All-Around Girl." "Secret Pal" was also a familiar saying this year since each Letter Girl drew a member's name and presented her with gifts, keeping the giver's identity a secret until the school year was over.

AWARDS ARE IN ORDER

Forty girls lettered at the spring Letter Girl installation.

Mrs. Drummond gives Gloria Mire one of the forty letters which she issued the night of the Letter Girl Installation.

Having the best posture in TJ is Dottie Honeycutt, "All School Posture Queen."

TENNIS CLUB

Members of the Tennis Club are B. Barbosa, T. Domingue, J. Day, E. Trahan, D. Richey, E. Hardy, E. Flores, S. Stevens, J. Bonnell, B. McGlothen. Second row: Miss McClain, sponsor; D. Coe, F. Ronshausen, L. Nabours, S. Stansell, J. Sherwood, N. Sadler, P. McMonagle, S. Poole, M. DuBose, and A. R. Scott.

Miss Nancy McClain, who did such an efficient job, was the Tennis Club sponsor.

Tennis Club officers are, left to right: Tommie Domingue, president; Delna Coe, veep; Pat McMonagle, treasurer; Frances Ronshausen, historian; and Mary E. Trahan, secretary.

Tommie Doningue is one of TJ's loyal contenders for the trophy case. Winning many matches was not just a stroke of luck, but the result of many afternoons of hard practice.

Sue Poole and Delna Coe, two major contributors on the Tennis Team, demonstrating their abilities at practice after school.

P.E. CLASSES — WE LOVED THEM

Heading the Girls' Physical Education Department is Mrs. Marjorie Drummond. Mrs. Lois Wilson, Miss Bertha Hebert and Miss Nancy McClain are instructors.

During those rainy days unpleasant—but funny—accidents occurred while the P.E. classes played that beloved game of kickball.

What's the big hurry? It's only Friday and the beginning of the last P.E. class.

Look out, Lora Mae! Rie Carr can really guard that ball. Basketball was one of the favorite games in all gym classes.

Winning trophies for their outstanding ability on the basketball court are the senior all-star team who won the school championship. They are Linda Ulbrich, Margaret Newman, team manager; Delna Doe, captain; Rose Mary Rummell, Anna Ray Scott, Betty Bobbit, Gay Mathis, Mary Straub, Joan McMonagle, and Sherry Johnson.

Everybody seems pretty well pleased with the refreshments at the February Letter Girl Installation.

Posture Queens of each grade were Dottie Honeycutt, senior; Sylvia Patin, sophomore; Leah Rae Catalina, junior.

Judy Blanton and Mary Bolles exhibit good sportsmanship after their game of badminton.

CONGRATULATIONS!

You have finished another year in the educational process. To some of you, it is the end of pursuit — to others it is only the beginning of a long climb.

Whatever choices you make in regard to the future, we wish you the utmost of success. It is our hope that in this hustling, busy world, you may achieve the happiness you seek.

As you continue to remember your dear Thomas Jefferson long after you have left the walls, we hope you will remember us. As you think of the fine teams, the Band and Hussar trips, the bonfires and pep-rallies, the spring parties, and your many associations with pleasant thoughts, we hope to be included in your list of friends.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The staff of the 1958 Yellow Jacket takes this opportunity to acknowledge gratefully the many people who helped make this book possible: Miss Jeannette Tenney, attendance clerk, for her patience; Mrs. Mike Redman, sponsor, for her cooperation. Thanks also go to Rice, Watkins, Cricchio's and Provines for their excellent quality of photographs and portraits. Especially we would like to thank the homeroom teachers for selling and collecting funds for the book, and the students who posed for pictures and bought 1600 copies of the book "sight unseen."
